Joyful & Triumphant

But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Joday in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." ~ Luke 2:10-12

May this season of miracles bring love, light, happiness, faith and many wonderful surprises to you and yours. Thanks for bringing so much joy to our year with your visits. Friends like you make us truly grateful. Merry Christmas!

Think you know Christmas? Think again.

The Purcell Register visited second graders in Wayne and Purcell last week to test their yuletide knowledge. You know Santa Claus, reindeer, elves, treat preferences, logistics and nighttime global navigation.

Just your basic Christmas FAQs, No googling allowed.

And in the privacy of your home or office, you can finally determine if you are in fact smarter than a second grader.

We presented each with a standard set of questions:

• How can Santa Claus visit every home in just

- the answer does NOT involve crossing the International Date Line.) • How does Santa know where all the world's children live? • Does Santa travel alone in the sleigh?
- Do you leave a snack for Santa? If so, what?
- Ditto reindeer snack?
- Can you name Santa's reindeer?

Easy-peasy. Or is it?

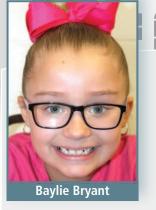

Merry Christmas

McClain Co. 4-H delivers holiday spirit

McClain County 4-H is always looking for new ways to get involved in the local community.

This year, 4-H'ers used their heads, hearts, hands and health to help families living within the county. Newcastle 4-H Club joined forces with the Salvation Army this December and rang the Salvation Army Bell in front of the Purcell Walmart. These 4-H'ers brought joy to all customers with a little 4-H magic and lots of Christmas Carols.

Choice Realty Metro Brokers of Oklahoma and McClain County 4-H teamed up for the 3rd annual "Coats for Warmth" children's winter coat drive. This event started November 10 and ended December 11. All coats that were collected were donated to the Operation Christmas program to benefit McClain County residents.

With all the support and hard work of the residents of the county, 170 coats were gathered. McClain County 4-H appreciates the residents of McClain County for generously donating to the coat drive.

They include the Blanchard Chamber of Commerce, the Heart of Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce in Purcell, Newcastle Library, Dibble School Library, Washington Elementary School, Wayne Elementary School and Starchy's Cleaners.

Purcell residents should know that trash collection will be on a holiday schedule for the next two weeks because of Christmas and New Year's Day.

The revised schedule calls for Monday's route to be picked up Tuesday, Tuesday's route on Wednesday, Wednesday's route on Thursday, Thursday's roue on Friday and Friday's route on Saturday.

Trash collection will return to the normal schedule on January 8.

Deadly roads

Traffic crashes claim two lives

JeanneGrimes The Purcell Register

Two traffic crashes in a 3-day span in McClain County claimed the lives of two motorists.

A Ninnekah man, 28-yearold Sean McCoy, was the victim in the first collision which occurred at approximately 4:36 a.m. December 13 at mile marker 104 on the H.E. Bailey Turnpike.

According to Oklahoma Highway Patrol Trooper Brian Dixon, McCoy was driving a 2008 GMC Acadia westbound on the turnpike.

McCoy attempted to make a U-turn and was struck by an eastbound 2007 Peterbilt hauling cattle.

After impact, the GMC rolled at least one-half time, the trooper reported.

McCoy, who wasn't wearing a seat belt, was dead at the scene. Driver of the semi, Stephen K. Long, 36, of Fort Sumner, N.M., wasn't injured.

Dixon was assisted at the scene by OHPLt. Stan Rooker, Troopers Kenneth Edmonds, Wadley's EMS.

Randal Milam, Jason Riddle, David Miner and Nick Vinson, as well as the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority and Newcastle police, fire and EMS.

The second deadly collision occurred around 3:37 p.m. December 16 west of Wayne on 120th Street near Horse Avenue.

Killed was Milton Pitts, 76, of Wayne.

According to Trooper Rodney Rideaux, Pitts was driving a Blue Polaris UTV eastbound on 120th Street that topped a hill and collided with a westbound 2004 Ford Explorer that was turning into a private drive.

The Explorer's driver, Tammey Little, 60, of Wayne, wasn't injured.

Pitts sustained head and internal injuries and was taken to Purcell Municipal Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Assisting Rideaux was OHP Lt. Brandon Schneider and Trooper Craig Ellis. Also on the scene were the McClain County Sheriff's Department, Wayne Fire Department and

STEM grant Area schools will share in award

Seven area schools will share $21,233.76 of a $2 million education grant awarded Monday by the Oklahoma Energy Resources Board.

The grant will be spread across every school district in the state to bolster science, technology and mathematics materials and equipment.

The local distribution includes $4,060.94 to Purcell, $3,774.59 to Lexington, $2,091.25 to Wayne, $1,910.40 to Dibble and $1,681.54 to Washington.

Blanchard and Newcastle will receive $4,191.33 and $3,523.71, respectively.

The amounts for each district were based on enrollment and percentage of low income students in the district.

Districts are free to spend the money on anything STEM-related which the district needs, according to OERB.

The OERB has been dedicated to providing quality STEM-related educational resources and classroom materials for more than 20 years," said OERB Executive Director Mindy Stitt. "We hear from teachers about how much supplies are needed and the grant will allow us to further our mission to provide educational resources to Oklahoma schools."

In 2003, OERB gave $1 million to the state's schools. "After hearing feedback from the hundreds of teachers who attend our workshops, we felt that now is the time we find room in our budget for another grant of this nature," OERB Chairman Danny Morgan added. "The OERB has always supported teachers and for the oil and natural gas in-

TACKY SWEATER 5K AND FUN RUN | DECEMBER 2, 2017

December 2, 2017 we held our 1st Annual Tacky Sweater 5k and Fun Run at the Lights From The Heart.

We started out with a goal of raising $2,500 and getting 150 people to attend.

Well, we did it ! We had 151 racers and raised $3,841 that all went to the Lil Dragon Food Pantry.

We could not be more excited about how well it went. Everyone that we have spoken to or gotten feedback from, even volunteers, told us how much they enjoyed it.

We hope to at least double those numbers next year.

We truly appreciate all of the support we received from local businesses, family, and friends.

Gail Cheatwood with JaMakin Me Tan graciously let us send folks there to register while our office is being remodeled and made delicious cupcakes! Kerry Wilhoit with McClain Bank and Susan Tarp with First United Bank got us several registrations.

A few supply companies we use locally not only registered to race but also made generous donations, not to mention all of the individuals that signed up their entire families and also helped spread the word to their friends.

We would like to thank Ryan Bayless and Kyle Powers for coming out and recording the event. We would also like to thank Purcell Parks for allowing us to hold the event and making sure we had access to everything we needed and Wadley's EMS for coming out in case of accidents, which thankfully there were none. Jimmy New was the Santa Claus that night and he was kind enough to stay late to take pictures with everyone.

We had some amazing volunteers, mostly family, close friends and the Okeyha Mothers Club. Everything could not have gone more smoothly and that was all because of you.

We had a ton of fun making silly videos and a bloopers highlight is surely to come soon.

You can see the stats from the race and many more photos on our Facebook page @pruittqualityhomes.

Reaching Your Lawmakers

For those of you who think The Purcell Register has taken Christ out of Christmas you can rest assured that is very much not the case.

The shorter X-mas was used on last week's front page only because of space.

I didn't especially like it. Several others on our staff made comments but it was a matter of space.

Period.

I even had one person call and say, "I know you go to church and I know you believe in Jesus."

That is very much the case. She was disappointed and so were others. But, like most every thing

The elusive white dog

I got home kind of late one day last week and discovered both cats were in an unusually good humor.

When I opened the back door and whistled for the dogs, I discovered why: Martin and Monroe were nowhere to be found. A dog-free environment - a cat's fantasy come true.

I have no idea how they got out. Martin has a history of digging under the fence, but there was no hole this time and their escape path remains a mystery.

I walked around the neighborhood and made sounds resembling a dog biscuit, but no Martin and no Monroe.

I drove around the next day and made the obligatory post on Facebook about my missing dogs.

Thursday morning, I drove the backroads to work and - lo! What's that large white object running across the road ahead?

Why, it was Monroe, that's what it was. And there was Martin, too.

They were a touch more than three miles from their back yard.

As soon as I pulled over, they sprinted toward me and seemed more than happy to jump in the pickup.

I took them home and fixed a temporary pen marked by a two-wire electric fence to keep them in place until I figured the demands and functions keep the government open, Entering the New Year out how they had gotten out and fixed it.

OKC leaders should follow Kansas City's streetcar model

ByStaff The Journal Record

As Oklahoma City leaders consider the best ways to pay for the operations of the new streetcar, we encourage them to look closely at the successful model in Kansas City.

Francisco, have been operating streetcars for more than a century and the costs are partially covered by fare collections. But San Francisco and other longtime streetcar cities operate their trains as part of a much larger, more robust public transportation system. They're not novelty rides, they're part of the commuting infrastructure used to take people to and from work and shopping destinations. As such, their use is included in monthly passes residents buy ing space in the city's financial district costs $300-$450 a show. Residents will still per month and that MUNI pass looks like a good bargain. San Francisco is the nation's downtown.

third-busiest streetcar system, with annual ridership of 52.6 streetcar has been successmillion. Boston is the biggest, ful is that it's free to ride. with 69.2 million. Monthly No fumbling for cash, no passes are $82.50 and parking spaces in the financial district are $300-$500 per month.

Those cities are densely Other cities, such as San populated; getting to a streetcar stop is easy because the systems are extensive. Residents walk to the nearest stop and head home, to the office, to school or to shop. Oklahoma City is one of the nation's least densely populated cities. Downtown parking costs $95-$120 per month.

Oklahoma City's streetcar will resemble Kansas City's new system. Both have routes of about 4 miles; Kansas City's is 2 miles each direction, OKC's will be a loop. And like Kansas City, the ridership could make Oklafor $75. Consider that a park- streetcar here will be used to homa City's new streetcar the go from work to lunch, or to model peer cities will envy drive to work from Edmond, Yukon and Moore and park are deposited at their front

One reason Kansas City's ticket machine to mess with. If you're done at Union Station and ready for dinner at City Market, just hop on the streetcar. You'll be there in 15 minutes with no parking or driving hassles.

Kansas City pays for that through a combination of local taxes. There's a maximum 1-percent sales tax assessed only within the transportation development district and small property taxes also assessed within the district. There is also a tax on paid surface parking lots. Their result: 1.9 million riders in 2017 through October.

A small tax to encourage and merchants won't object when trainloads of customers doors.

And I picked a good 400 ticks off them.

I have flea and tick collars on both dogs, but they must have reversed the polarity somehow and turned them into tick attractors.

The next morning, which must have been Friday, I looked in the yard to see the turkeys checking out the new fence.

The bottom wire was about a foot off the ground, so the turkeys had little trouble squeezing under it or hopping between it and the top wire.

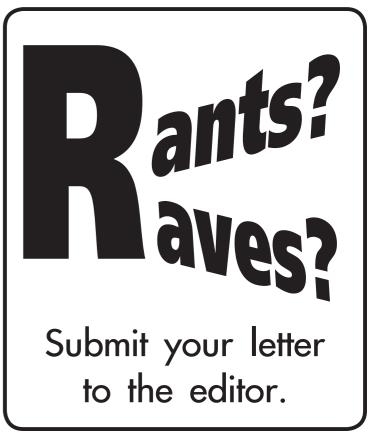

Their feathers insulated them from the shocks as long as they kept their heads away from the wires.

Monroe watched the turkeys carefully as they came through the fence, pecked and scratched, then went back through the fence to their pen.

The next afternoon, Martin and Monroe were gone again and I had no idea how they escaped until I captured them, put them back inside the electric fence and watched Monroe low-crawl under the bottom wire.

Exactly as she had seen the turkeys do it.

The Good Folks of Lennox Valley

Elbert Lee Jones dutifully did as instructed by Raymond Cooper, but that didn't mean he was pleased about the situation. "Why is it," he wondered, "I always get stuck with the dirty work?

Let's face it. If Raymond had an important task to get done, he would assign it to Marvin Walsh or Farley Puckett. Even postman Earl Goodman, the town's only federal employee, was higher on the pecking list than Elbert Lee.

"Sure," Elbert Lee, one of two primary dairy farmers in the area, thought, "if Raymond wants eggs prices to go up a nickel, he calls me. Or if he needs something or someone hidden for a while, I'm the guy. But it's always Marvin or Farley on his radio show."

This particular assignment took the cake, as far as Jones was concerned. "Why on earth," he pondered, "does Raymond want me to take Bascomb Finch to lunch and - on top of that - buy him a few beers?'

It didn't make sense. Nonetheless, Elbert Lee did as instructed and found Bascomb at Levitt's Oil, where he pumped gas among other duties.

"Bascomb," Elbert Lee shouted as he entered the glass door, "you need to find someone to cover the gas pumps for a while today."

"What in the world are you talking about?" Finch asked innocently.

"Raymond wants you on his show today," Elbert answered. "And to show his appreciation, he wants me to buy your lunch."

Bascomb wasn't the type to get much attention, outside of his recent "sighting" of A.J. Fryerson, so an invitation to be on "Renderings With Raymond" was guite the surprise.

"Really? He wants me on his show?" Finch stood a little straighter as he contemplated the idea. "Why does he want me on his show?"

Elbert Lee was getting a little impatient. "I don't know, Bascomb. Maybe he wants to brag about how you uncovered the A.J. Fryerson story. After all, you've been the talk of the town for weeks."

While not necessarily true, it was enough of an ego stroke to get Bascomb to lower his guard.

"I'll meet you at the Hoffbrau at noon," Jones told Bascomb. "We can have lunch, then walk over to the radio station. Raymond wants us there at one o'clock sharp.'

When Elbert Lee returned to the radio station, he noticed Cooper and Walsh had been

Tate announces candidacy

Dear City of Purcell voters,

My name is Jay Tate and I am announcing my candidacy for Purcell City Council. I am a fourth-generation Purcell resident. I was named after my grandfathers, Dr. James Tate and Louis Krapf. I care greatly for this community. I believe public service is an opportunity to give back to this town that our family cares so much about and I have done that in several ways. I have served on the Purcell Veterans's Committee. I am responsible for overseeing the placement of over 1100 flags at the Purcell cemetery for the Memorial Day Veterans's Ceremony, where I am also the Master of Ceremonies. I am also the statistician for the Purcell High School football and basketball teams. Having grown up in Purcell and worked here for over twenty years, I feel I am aware of many of the needs in our community, and I'm very much looking forward to hearing more from our citizens. I would welcome the opportunity to visit with you about how we can make our town even better, and look forward to the opportunity to continue to serve our community.

joined by Farley Puckett, who had just arrived after opening his hardware store. There was no time for pleasantries.

"Did you get it done?" Raymond snapped at Elbert Lee. "Is Bascomb meeting you for lunch?"

"He's coming. He's coming," Jones shot back. "Where's the fire anyway?

"I'll tell you where the fire is!" Marvin, Elbert Lee's best friend since high school, shouted. "If you don't get Bascomb to lunch and get a few beers down him, this whole A.J. situation could blow up in our faces!

While Raymond and crew held their "high level" meeting at the station, Iris and her "coconspirators," as Raymond called them, were still busily talking at the Hoffbrau.

"We can hold it in the fellowship hall of my church," Sarah told her friends.

"That would be okay," Iris replied, "but it might be better if we could get the town hall, to give it the appearance of a community-wide event.'

Jessie offered, "I can get the food catered by the 'Brau. We'll do it at our cost."

Back at the station, Raymond plotted with his allies, "We have to put out an issue of The Patriot next week.

The Valley Patriot, Cooper's once-weekly rag, hadn't been on a regular schedule for a while.

"Farley, I'll need a full page ad from you, so it doesn't look like a last-minute deal. We can use one of your old ones and change the date on it if we need to.'

Farley asked the obvious question. "What are you going to write about? We don't know what those women are up to. Are you going to make something up?'

"Don't you worry about that," Raymond quipped. "We will have plenty to write about after today's show. Plus," he added, "we have the whole weekend to come up with other stories."

When high noon came, Bascomb Finch walked into the Hoffbrau and saw Elbert Lee waiting in the same corner booth previously occupied by Iris Long, Sarah Hyden-Smith and Juliet Stoughton.

"What can I get you to drink?" Jessie asked, surprised at the pair in front of her. She couldn't ever remember seeing those two together. "I'll have a Coke," Finch replied.

"No, you won't," Elbert Lee interrupted. "You'll have a beer.' Bascomb was confused. "But it's just noon, and I have to go back to work later."

"You're having a beer," Jones insisted.

"Raymond wants to thank you properly."

The groom is the son of Lowell Doudna and Cindy Davis Flynn, both of Barnesville, Ohio.

The bride was escorted by her two sons, Raydon and Tyler. She wore a mermaid-style "Serencia" gown by designer Maggie Sottero in blush, a cathedral length veil with rhinestone edging and carried a hand-tied bouquet of white gardenias, sahara roses, wine dahlias, green succulents and eucalyptus, accented with a memorial picture charm of the bride and her late father.

Serving as Matron of Honor was the bride's sister, Joy Little of Wayne who wore a wine colored floor length dress and carried a similar arrangement to the bride's of roses, dahlias, succulents and eucalyptus.

The Best Man was Shawn Allar of Cambridge, Ohio, a childhood friend of the groom.

A small reception was held immediately following the ceremony followed by a post-wedding dinner at the churrascariastyle restaurant, Texas de Brazil in Nashville.

The couple will be enjoying their honeymoon in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina later in December. The marital home is in Pooler, Ga., a suburb of Savannah, Ga.

The bride is a graduate of Wayne High School, a veteran with the U.S. Army on the UH-60 "Blackhawk" helicopter and is employed by FlightSafety International as a GV/G550 Maintenance Instructor for Gulfstream Aerospace in Savannah, Ga. Mrs. Doudna is an Airframe & Powerplant Mechanic and holds a Master Technician Award for the Gulfstream GV airframe.

The groom is a graduate of Barnesville High School in Barnesville, Ohio, a veteran with the U.S. Air Force on the MH-53 "Pave Low" helicopter and is employed by Gulfstream Aerospace as Senior Mechanical Technician. Movies:

character better than the rest of the movie combined. It's a shame the whole film couldn't have been that good.

Not only is the acting not great, but this movie can be downright boring at times.

This movie's based on a 32-page children's book, so naturally they had to fill in the gaps to make the story stretch to the length of a feature film. But most of what they came up with just isn't that interesting.

I was struggling to stay focused the entire first half of the film. And it wasn't just me. I noticed kids in my showing getting antsy around the midway point as well.

Luckily it does pick up second half and there are a couple of genuinely fun action scenes, and of course the fantastic ending I mentioned before, but it's such a slog to get to those good moments.

I don't know. This is far from the worst animated movie I've seen recently.

But when you have films like "Coco" completely knocking it out of the park, it's hard to recommend a movie like this one that drops the ball so frequently.

"Ferdinand" is rated PG.

Milton Pitts

Funeral services for Milton Pitts, 76, of Wayne will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, December 23, 2017 at the Wilson-Little Funeral Home Chapel. Services will be under the direction of Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Mr. Pitts passed away Saturday, December 16, 2017.

Milton was born June 20, 1941 in Lawton, Okla., the second of six children born to Doyle B. Pitts and Charlie Marie (Thomas) Pitts. He was raised in Wanette and attended Wanette High school, graduating in 1960.

On June 10th, Milton married his sweetheart, Miss Julia Alene Cagle. They started their life together in Wanette. Together they raised 3 children, son, Terry, and daughters, Karry and Kimberly.

Milton owned and operated several gas stations and raised cattle. His true passion however was flying. Milton was an accomplished pilot, and his love for flying became his life work. For more than 38 years, he served area farmers as a crop duster with locations at Wanette and Altus, Oklahoma. When not flying, he traded his plane for his Harley, as he loved both the freedom of the open skies and the open road. He lived his life to the fullest.

In June of 2000 Milton and Judy relocated to their present home near Wayne, Oklahoma. Milton was devoted to his family and friends. Milton cherished Julia, his son and daughters, his grandchildren, great-grandchildren and his four legged fur baby, Petey. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his son, Terry Pitts and his parents, Doyle B. and Charlie Marie Pitts.

Milton is survived by the love of his life, wife Julia of the home; his girls, Karry and Bill Raines of Norman and Kimberly Albert of Washington; brother, Bradley Pitts of Wanette; four sisters, Wynelle Long and husband, Don, of Council Hill, Okla., Elaine Wood of Oklahoma City, Pegg Coulter and husband, Guy, of Midwest City and Anita Skaggs and husband, Ray, of Tulsa; four grandchildren, Randi Bennett and husband, Brandon, of Washington, Eric Albert and wife, Heather, of Goldsby, Justin Albert of Washington and Cody Pitts of Slaughterville; seven greatgrandchildren, Brant, Kacie, Karlie, Shelbie, Tate, Trinity and Kynslee; a host of nieces and nephews and other family and friends.

Virginia Andrews

Graveside services for Virginia Andrews, 76, of Washington were held Dec. 19, 2017 at the Washington Cemetery. Services were under the direction of Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Mrs. Andrews died Dec. 15, 2017 at Norman Regional Hospital.

Fannie Virginia Idlett was born April 14, 1941 in Lexington, the eighth of 15 children of W.T. "Bill" Idlett and Lela Elizabeth (Farrow) Idlett.

Survivors include her boys, Larry Andrews and wife, Kim, of Mustang and Bruce Andrews and Chuck Andrews, both of Washington; three sisters, Mary Cooksey and husband, Reese, of Oklahoma City and Doris Compton and JoAnn Parker, both of Wanette; two brothers, Andy Idlett and wife, Shirley, and Bobby Idlett and wife, Sandy, all of Oklahoma City; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Hollis "Hob" Atkinson

Graveside funeral services for Hollis "Hob" Atkinson, 83, of Purcell were held Friday, December 15, 2017 at the Washington Cemetery. Services were under the direction of Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Mr. Atkinson passed away Tuesday, December 12, 2017.

John Hollis Atkinson was born November 2, 1934 at the family home place west of Washington, Oklahoma. He was the second of four children born to Lester D. Atkinson and Hazel L. (Cox) Atkinson. He was raised in Washington and attended Washington Schools, graduating in 1953.

He married Daisy Nell Bearden, and to this union, three children were born; daughter, Holly, and sons, Tolar and Tobey. Hollis' heart was in the land; a farmer and rancher by trade. He enjoyed the Rodeo, mainly for the socializing and the acquaintances he made over the years. Hollis, known to many as "Hob," was a team roper well into his 70s. In fact, he loved it so much, he built his own arena so he could put on Jackpot Ropings and practice when he wanted. He would often say, that his favorite horse "Buck" was like his 4th child.

A preliminary hearing conference for Gray is scheduled for 9 a.m. January 31.

The charges were filed after a former felony conviction.

A judge ordered Gray to have no contact with the brother, Bruce Gray, or his mother, Diana Gray. He is also to stay away from the house at 530 S. Canadian Ave., which is owned by Diana Gray.

According to an affidavit, a Purcell police officer was sent to the house to quell a disturbance shortly after 4 p.m. on November 16.

Bruce Gray met the officer and said his brother was inside the house. He said he'd stopped by the home to check on it and found Terry Gray hiding in the bathtub, adding Terry Gray was evicted months prior and wasn't allowed in the house.

"I was really sad till this year and he's back to life."

Finding everyone's house is up till all hours. It seems not to no problem given that Santa knows all the children. Still it's quite a task for the Jolly Ol'Elf so he always has a few North Pole elves along to help him get the right presents into the right houses.

Jake always leaves a glass of milk for Santa, sometimes with a gingerbread house and sometimes with cookies. Yum. The reindeer?

she is sure about is that Santa goes down a lot of chimneys.

While unsure how he finds all the houses occupied by children, she concedes it might be magic. Santa leaves his elves at the North Pole.

She's on more familiar ground when asked about snacks -"chocolate chip cookies and yeah, I help make them."

"And usually we get reindeer He does know his reindeer, food," she added. "Last year we got it at Walmart. But last night we went to the fire station we took a picture with Santa."

and Rudolph) with carrots.

It's a weighty responsibility Santa has and that's why "10 to 20 or 5 or 6 elves travel with him."

"To help him deliver the presents," she said.

Jackson credits Santa's global journey to his sleigh and added Santa knows where to drop off presents "because the reindeer tell him..

And anyone knows he's got elves in that sleigh to "help him

Emma explains Santa's seemingly impossible global feats thusly:

"Maybe the reindeer go fast. They can run pretty fast and they're flying too."

He takes one elf with him and that elf is tasked with helping Santa give out presents and helping to drive the sleigh.

Like an ever thoughtful hostess, Emma leaves cookies and milk for Santa and the elf and apples and water for the reindeer - Rudolph, Dancer, Dasher, Vixen, Cupid, Comet, Donder and Blitzen.

Guess Prancer has the night off.

Cannan agrees Santa's list of stops is based on addresses taken from letters children write to him (that's why it is always important to include a return address on the envelope!)

With reindeer, sleigh and the magic that is Christmas, Santa simply can't fail at that global navigation.

Cannan said Santa is a solo act when it's time to depart the North Pole on Christmas Eve.

He never fails to set out a bowl of carrots for the reindeer outside and fill a Santa Claus plate with cookies and a mug with milk by the tree.

He decorates the cookies himself, be they Santa Claus cookies or gingerbread men.

And he knows most (if not quite all) of the reindeer by name:

Dancer, Dasher, Donder, Prancer, Blitzen, Rudolph and Cupid. Merry Christmas!

Wayne held a 37-31 lead after three quarters. Lexington tied it up in the fourth at 43-all, sending the game to overtime.

The Lady Bulldogs' offense 12/12 was more than Wayne could handle as they allowed 10 points and eventually lost the game.

Morgan Posey led the team with 12 points while Jaidah Wilson and Hannah Wissinger added nine a piece.

In the second game of the tournament, Wayne notched a 38-29 win over the Dibble Lady Demons.

Wayne jumped out in front in the first quarter and never looked back. Dumping in 20 points in the win was Posey, who led the team in scoring. In their final game of the tournament, Wayne was up against Stratford, but fell short, losing 38-27 to the other Lady Bulldogs. Stratford jumped out on top and cruised to the 11-point victory. Posey had nine points in the loss. Coralee Castle and Blackwood each added five points. Last Tuesday, Wayne traveled to Minco where they fell to the Lady Bulldogs 57-29. Posey was hot offensively, scoring 25 points to lead the Lady Bulldogs. But, her offensive onslaught wasn't enough to pull the Lady Bulldogs through. mas is "Optimism." On the highways and in the shopping centers you must watch to avoid being stepped on or run over. All the activity serves as a reminder that Christmas is still the most wonderful season of the year.

Never have we seen more smiles, heard more sounds of music, watched more packages being processed at the checking counters and received more greetings of "Merry Christmas."

We may not be blessed with a white Christmas, but we have all the prospects for a big Christmas. Be sure to attend the church of your choice on Christmas Eve.

We want to thank Sandra Mayo and the three young ladies that provided the congregation with a beautiful Christ-

The key word for this Christ- mas program during the Sunday morning worship service.

The scripture text for the Sunday sermon was found in Ephesians 1:3-8. Christmas is the season for praising the birth of Jesus. Gifts and Christmas are closely associated with this season of the year.

Hopefully we will take time on Christmas Day to remember the magnitude and the beauty of the gifts Jesus has delivered to us. We travel to the local shopping center or over the internet to purchase gifts for those we love.

The Wise Men from the East traveled far to deliver three gifts for Jesus. Our travels to show love for others is nothing compared to the distance Jesus traveled form heaven to earth to bring us many gifts.

A partial list of the gifts to us from Jesus include peace, at 11 a.m.

access, comfort, reconciliation, adoption, forgiveness, righteousness, life, mercy, joy, victory, glory, power, wisdom, rewards, guidance, promises and heaven.

The gifts Jesus places under out Christmas tree are precious gifts, expensive gifts and eternal gifts.

This Christmas please take time to open and enjoy the gifts Jesus delivered to us from His Heavenly Father. Please remember that you are a gift from God. What you become is your gift to God.

Sermon title for this Sunday is "Born to Bless."

The Wednesday evening Bible study for this week will be the sixth chapter of The Acts of the Apostles.

Good week to you all. Wel- I guess, because Judy married come to the "front porch."

I read a story many years ago about a well-known Hollywood actress and hostess with a special gift. She hosted parties for the most famous people in Hollywood, and everyone loved her get-togethers probably better than any. Someone asked her one day what it was about her parties that made them so popular.

She smiled, and answered: "I suppose," she said, "it is because when people arrive I greet them as if I thought they would never get here. And when they leave, I ask, 'Oh, do you have to leave so soon?""

She knew, you see, how to win friends and influence people.

I thought of that little story this week when we lost our good friend and sister in Christ, would shake your hand or hug Marie Bradford. Marie is my your neck and ask how have vent, both Isaiah and Paul gave us good advice today on how to prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ. Isaiah wrote: "As the earth brings forth its plants and a garden makes its growth spring up, so will the Lord God make justice and peace spring up before all the nations." (Is. 61:10-11)

Justice and peace will blossom, but we must be patient and do our part. How do we do our part? Paul tells us: "Rejoice always.Pray without ceasing.. . Test everything; retain what is good." (1 Thes. 5:16-24)

We should learn how to pray always. We should learn how to pray in our coming and our going, in our laying down and in our rising. By prayer, we are lifting these things up to God. Each feeling and event in our lives - we lift up to God and ask him to transform into His blessedness.

We live in the Age of Information. Each day we are bombarded with information-from television, from social media, from noises all around us. We must learn to test everything. Retain what is good. Discard what is bad. Much of what we hear is bad, discouraging, of the darkness. Retain what is good. Discard what is bad. We must test everything.

This past week, the Church celebrated the Feast of St. John of the Cross. St. John was a Spanish mystic, a Carmelite friar. He was born in Avila in Spain, and was the confessor to St. Teresa of Avila.

John asks us to do this when we pray. Imagine a house that is peaceful and still. Perhaps it has a courtyard filled with flowers. When you pray, your soul is like this quiet house. It becomes absorbed in stillness. It is inviting to any guest. This is where the Prince of Peace would like to visit. Our soul becomes a welcoming place for the Lord Jesus.

The world needs this peace. You and I need this peace. From this inward stillness will flow the outward peace which the world desires. This is how we can learn to pray always. And to rejoice always. This is how we can bring to the world that peace which it desires.

Christmas Masses will be held on Christmas Eve (Sunday) at 6 p.m. (bilingual) and Midnight (bilingual), and on Christmas Day (Monday) at 10 a.m. (English).

Our weekly Mass schedule is Saturday at 5 p.m. (English), Sunday at 11 a.m. (English) and 1 p.m. (Spanish).

(This is in addition to the sales tax reported monthly.) Every state with a sales tax has a companion tax for outside the state. In Oklahoma, that tax is called "use tax."

Those having purchased items for use in Oklahoma from retailers who do not collect Oklahoma sales tax, the buyer owes the state use tax on those items.

The use tax in the state was first enacted in 1937.

Health Department records show allegations of deliberate deception

PaulMonies Oklahoma Watch

Documents released December 15 by the state Department of Health include a summary of alleged deceptions within the agency that include fraudulent budget reports to state finance officials and omissions in reporting the agency's financial position to the Legislature and the State Board of Health.

The records, provided in response to an Open Records Act request made by Oklahoma Watch, include an October memo from Health Department Chief Financial Officer Mike Romero that outlined initial findings to the agency's chief operating officer.

The memo, marked "confidential," is the most comprehensive picture to date of the agency's alleged financial mismanagement, which has led to an emergency, $30 million cash infusion from -An absence of business discipline on health programs where 'a wish or desire gets executed without deliberation."

-Omissions to the Legislature and the Board of Health regarding the financial position of the agency.

The release of records comes amid multiple investigations and audits, including the state's multicounty grand jury to explore possible criminal charges and an leased under the request show top leaders responding to financial questions from OMES and the state auditor's office, and preparing for a site audit by a federal agency, the Health Resources and Services Administration. That agency administers several grant programs, including the RyanWhiteHIV/AIDSProgram.

Several emails from Romero and his finance team explained the urgency of the cash crisis roiling the agency. Detailed spreadsheets lay bare just how low on cash the health department was and projected when certain funds would run out of money.

"I predict the Agency runs out of Cash Position next week (Cash Position Tab)," said an Oct. 20 email to Romero from a finance employee over grants. "Also, I predict Unrestricted 400 Cash to run out the end of January, 2018 (Fund 400 Tab).

The agency's main account for federal money is its 400 fund.

the Legislature, almost 200 job reductions and the resignation or firing of much of the agency's former leadership team.

Highlights from the memo include:

-Debt of more than $30 million as a result of the financial maneuvers, constituting "unconstitutional indebtedness of a state agency."

-Creation of agency "borrows," or transfers, that amount to "fictional assets."

-False claims that liabilities were reconciled.

-Breaching restricted federal funds, such as a fund for an HIV/ AIDs program, and restricted state funds, such as revolving funds.

-Agency payroll expenses that grew to $150.8 million in fiscal year 2018, up from $132.7 million in 2011.

-Money "fronted" on contracts, including more than $13 million to the Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust and $1.5 million to the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center.

No. 1087-December 21-1 Time IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF MCCLAIN COUNTY STATE OF OKLAHOMA

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF RUBY LILA HERRIAGE Deceased

Case No. PB-2017-124 NOTICE OF HEARING PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL, APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE, DETERMINATION OF HEIRS, DEVISEES AND LEGATEES Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in the Estate of Ruby Lila Herriage, Deceased, that on the 19th day of December 2017, there was produced and filed in the District Court of McClain County, State of Oklahoma, an instrument investigative audit by the state auditor's office.

A special House investigative committee looking into the health department heard from four top officials earlier this week, includingthose from Gov. Mary Fallin's office and the Office of Management and Enterprise Services.

The memo details several warning signs that led to a deeper examination of financial issues. Among them was "hyper-control" over financial reports to the board of health and high turnover of prior financial directors and chief financial officers. There is needed for a cure because it were also complaints from vendors for nonpayment or delayed payments.

Former top leaders at the agency displayed a "cavalier attitude about implementing normal financial reporting objectives" and used casual excuses to avoid addressing impending financial problems, according to the memo.

Other emails in October re-purporting to be the Will of Ruby

Another email exchange betweenRomero and Brian Downs, director of state and federal policy, talked of a "downward spiral" of cash.

"The over-budgeted payroll position plagues our cash," Romero wrote to Downs on October 16. "The fact that we have tried to shore it up with all of our funds by moving costs around plagues the integrity of our ability to repair the problem because this is where the funds 'starving' for cash comes into play. Years of this means that outside money cannot cure internally. If this is the case, then clearly, this activity has created unauthorized debt for the State of OK."
