NEAR HURRICANE FORCE WINDS

70 m.p.h. winds and 3.4" of rain cause damage, outages

70 m.p.h. winds and torrential rain hammered parts of the Heart of Oklahoma Tuesday morning knocking out power and damaging trees. The near hurricane type storm knocked over a huge tree blocking the road around the Purcell City

Lake, damaged limbs and trees all over the area and caused the electricity to go out for 68 minutes.

Wadley's seeking more support

JeanneGrimes
The Purcell Register

The owner of Wadley's EMS put the Purcell Public Works Authority on notice Monday evening that he will be seeking more financial support from the city.

Jackie Wadley stressed that doesn't mean he expects Purcell residents to pay more on their utility bills for the ambulance service.

Rather, Wadley pointed out language in the city charter that will allow those outside the city limits who are on Purcell water to be charged the same amount as residents in town.

That will include customers of other water systems that purchase water from Purcell.

Wadley said the ambulance needs more financial support to counteract rising costs, especially diesel fuel which is nearing $6 per gallon.

Other supply costs are also skyrocketing amid shortages of some needed items.

Glucose, he said, has gone from $17 to $75 per vial.

The glucose is shipped in 10 vial boxes, meaning the cost of a single box has jumped from $170 to $750 "when you can get it."

Summer pattern lurking

Several rounds of rain have moved through our area lately and it has helped our drought conditions tremendously as we head into the summer months.

This week, we’re going to feel the heat as we see our first large stretch of temperatures above 90° for the year. We’ll have a couple showers lingering into the Thursday morning commute, but after that our pattern will remain mostly dry heading into the weekend.

This weekend temperatures will hang in the upper 80s and lower 90s with some cloud cover to help out.

Sunday, southerly winds will pick up and sustain into Monday, where gusts could be 30+ m.p.h.

Also, heat index values Monday could reach as high as 100° for the first time this year.

The lower 90s will hang around as we head into next week and as we settle into our summer pattern.

Saturday’s Walk the Trail event at Purcell Lake was deemed a success by John Blue, director of the city’s Parks & Recreation Department.

How to treat a tick bite and when to see a doctor

Gail Ellis Agricultural Communications

It’s the season of ticks, and while most Oklahomans know how to ward off the creepy crawlers, tick bites are a common occurrence that can cause serious health implications.

Justin Talley, Oklahoma State University Extension livestock entomologist and head of the OSU Department of Entomology and Plant Pathology, said the reproductive cycle of ticks becomes more prolific when temperatures and humidity levels rise.

To avoid ticks during the summer months, he recommends applying a bug spray or other natural substance, such as clove or peppermint oil, around the ankles and waistline.

In both heavily wooded areas and tall grass, wear long sleeves and pants, tuck pant cuffs into socks and apply a repellant to avoid the risk of tick bites.

But what if a tick is discovered and still attached? Wes Andrews, M.D. and chief of staff for OSU University Health Services, offers the following medical advice:

• Use tweezers and pull gently to retrieve the whole tick, including the head and mouth parts.

• Do not apply any kind of chemical to the tick before attempting to remove it, including nail polish, Vaseline or a lit match.

“The thought is the chemical will smother or kill the tick, but that’s generally discouraged because of the risk involved with chemicals,” Andrews said. “Careful extraction with

How things have changed

Harry S. Truman was President of the United States. Buddy Holly, Ray Charles and June Carter Cash were some of the leading singers of the day.

The population of Oklahoma was 2,229,000.

The population of Purcell was 3,529 while Blanchard had 1,303 residents.

McClain County's population was 14,681.

Cleveland County had 914,808 residents.

A gallon of gasoline was 18 cents.

The great depression was becoming a faint memory and families were moving out to the suburbs.

Kids watched "Howdy Dood" on 12 inch black and white TV sets and spent Saturday afternoons watching cartoons at Cinema matinees.

Times were gentler with little violence and the consumer revolution was about to start in a big way.

The man of the household became the sole breadwinner with the median family income $3,300 a year and milk was still delivered to the doorstep.

Inflation was resting comfortably at 1.09 percent and the average cost of a new house was $8,450.

Diner's Club issued the very first credit cards that were made out of cardboard.

making a Pepsi commercial.

It was 1950 and on June 9 that year John Montgomery and Carolyn Flow got hitched.

I wasn't even a thought but soon was war.

Just a few days later on June 25, 1950, the Korean War broke out and my dad was shipped out as a newly commissioned Ensign in the US Navy.

He served on the battleship Missouri on Admiral Arthur Struble's staff.

If Dad was still alive they would be celebrating their 72nd anniversary.

My how things have changed. Gasoline is now over $4 a gallon.

The population of Blanchard is now 8,362 and Purcell has 6,508 according to the latest census figures.

The State of Oklahoma sports 3,949 million folks.

McClain County has ballooned to a population of 42,235 and 292,558 folks now reside in Norman.

Protecting our children from the shooters

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

Most federal career politicians end up very wealthy. They make good salaries. They have great health insurance and very nice retirement packages. They typically develop political action committees that cover expenses the government doesn't pay.

When they retire, they can donate campaign funds they have accumulated throughout the years to their own non-profits and administer the funds.

Most Americans know how lucrative a lifetime of "public service" can become and few really care. Most of us have more to worry about than the jet-setting life styles of our rich and famous U.S. Senators and Representatives.

What torches many of us is their inability and often refusal to do anything. Too many of them are spineless wimps who are terrified of casting a vote that might hinder their reelection.

You've probably noticed that most and often all of the Republicans vote the "party line" and all the Democrats do the same. How does this help us?

I'm tired of the red vs the blue and vice-versa. Doesn't anybody have an opinion that differs from their grand ol' party?

It's obvious that Americans are torn into shreds over the gun issue. There is no perfect answer. However, doing nothing isn't working to save the next group of children begging for help in 911 calls.

The least our leaders can do is raise the age to 21 to own any kind of labeled assault weapon. Personally, I would push for 25 but honestly there is no golden number. Old people can go crazy with assault style weapons as easy as 18-year-olds.

We've seen more school shootings from those under 21 which makes it a reasonable place to start. Establishing a six-month waiting period to buy an assault style weapon will not hurt anyone.

Background checks are vital but again will not be a cure-all because often the shooters have unblemished backgrounds.

All schools must pay for a couple of armed guards to patrol and protect their students. Even then a surprise attack by two or three people with assault style weapons and body armor could easily overpower guards carrying semi-automatic weapons. Yet, the presence of armed security is better than leaving our children defenseless.

One local county I know

NEWS FROM CAPITOL HILL

Bringing an end to Alzheimer's

Congressman Tom Cole

Throughout Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month, we are reminded of our vested interest in slowing down, preventing and ultimately bringing an end to Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia.

Alzheimer's is a progressive type of dementia that affects memory, thinking and behavior, and symptoms eventually grow severe enough to interfere with daily tasks.

This month, we also remember those whose lives were uprooted and changed for the worse by this terrible disease, including their families and loved ones also serving as caregivers.

Indeed, my family knows firsthand how debilitating and tragic this disease is that currently affects more than six million Americans, according to the Alzheimer's Association.

My father battled and ultimately lost his life to Alzheimer's disease. With heavy hearts, during the last several years of his life, my family watched helplessly as he progressively became a different person and slowly lost precious memories from his entire lifetime.

As the most common cause of dementia, Alzheimer's accounts for between 60 to 80 percent of dementia cases. With cases continuing to grow rapidly and absent a medical breakthrough, the number of people aged 65 and older with Alzheimer's is projected to rise to 12.7 million by 2050.

Alzheimer's is also the most expensive disease in the United States. It is estimated that more than 11 million Americans provide unpaid care for Alzheimer's or other dementia patients.

Last year, caregivers provided more than 16 billion hours of care valued at nearly $272 billion. In 2022, Alzheimer's and other dementias are expected to cost the nation $321 billion and could reach $1 trillion by 2050.

Due to these alarming statistics, I am disturbed by the Biden Administration's proposal to cut funding for dedicated Alzheimer's and brain research at the National Institutes of Health (NIH) by $200 million in his budget request for fiscal year 2023.

As our nation grapples with this tragic Alzheimer's epidemic, cutting funding for critical research to unlock causes and cures is quite simply the absolute wrong move for Americans.

Under my leadership as the top Republican of the House Appropriations subcommittee responsible for funding the NIH, I will continue to work diligently to prevent such a mistake from becoming reality.

Since 2016, Republicans in Congress have proudly and tenaciously led the charge to increase federal funding to study this mysterious disease.

Your Views Great Depression

What? Another depression? Today, in this time? This year? Well, the depression one Oct of 1929, known as the Great Depression was no laughing matter, in to my Grandpa anyway.

While living in Purcell, Oklahoma, working on a farm from sunup to sundown and living with a family of seven, was not what they called a 'walk in the park'. Times were tough and they were going to get tougher. Nevertheless, my Grandpa knew what he had to do. He had to find a job, and fast! Grandpa replied sadly, "There was just no work and no money!"

What? Picking cotton! That's right. I bet half of us don't even know what cotton looks like much less know how to pick it. Furthermore, my Grandpa knew how and he went after it with all his heart and with both hands, knowing, just knowing, that things were going to get better. Things didn't get better, they got worse!

The price of cotton went down, way down. Five cents a pound to be exact, hogs, two dollars a hundred, and corn could be bought anywhere from ten cents to fifteen cents a bushel. Grandpa looked down at his boots and said, "There was just no work and no money."

Grandpa says he remembers when their next-door neighbors would pick cotton for them and his family would repay them back with homemade syrup. Everything was syrup, syrup rice, syrup biscuits, even syrup cookies. It was cheap and well worth the taste.

Nevertheless, there was school. Grandpa, his brothers, and his sister would go to school, get out at noon and go straight to the fields to pick cotton. That's right girls, us too! Grandpa attended the Primitive Baptist Church when services were held once a month. He was proud of that church and now is an ordained Missionary Baptist Preacher.

"As I recall," Grandpa replies, "things weren't looking good at all. So, I started off to find another job to help my family during this Great Depression." Grandpa did just that.

He walked from Purcell, Oklahoma, to Wellington, Texas, within three days.

"The first night I stayed in Marlow at the cotton gin. It was my trade; it was all I knew. I didn't know where else to go. The second night I stayed in Temple. The third night I stayed in Altus." Yep, that's right when he got there, he picked cotton.

However, as Grandpa got much older, he worked for the WPA.

"I bet you'll never guess what we walled the WPA, Tonia?" I replied with a shake of the head. Grandpa laughed, "We Piddle Around," he said while laughing. He pulled a team and hauled dirt. He couldn't remember much about it, just that it took a lot of willing and hard-working men to get the jobs done.

Grandpa's oldest brother, V M, worked for the CCC 18 whole months. V M would make $30 and send home $20 to his family.

"Everything was for the families. Families just had to stick together, and ours did," Grandpa said proudly. He looked down at his boots again and said sadly, "There was just no work and no money."

Grandpa made a little money by buying apricots from the neighbors and selling the seeds to the government for shelter belts. He made one dollar and one-half for the seeds of two bushels of apricots.

When I asked Grandpa the last question, he sat up proud and ready to answer. It was like he had known F. D. Roosevelt all his life. I didn't even get to finish asking him if he thought Roosevelt, was a good president. He said very openly "Yes!"

"In 1936 I borrowed an old mule from Orville Denman to ride three miles to vote." It was freezing cold those three miles but Grandpa went anyway.

In conclusion Grandpa said, "Tonia, never take the things of God for granted."

This is a story that Hugh Edward Colwell told his granddaughter, Tonia Colwell Dodd, when she was in school. Tonia's history teacher asked the students to talk to someone who had been in the depression and write a story about it. It was written in about 1985. Hugh lived in Purcell during the depression.

Ticks:

tweezers is best.”

If the tick is not entirely removed, a person should seek medical attention at a clinic or urgent care where a medical professional can properly remove the tick after numbing the affected area.

“It’s so important to get out all the mouth parts because that’s where the saliva is and where viruses and infections spread,” Andrews said.

Frequently, tick bites will itch or cause redness, but those reactions are not necessarily signs of infection.

These symptoms often represent a brief allergic irritation from the bite.

If the area is smaller than a quarter, concern is low, but if the area becomes larger than a saucer, seek medical attention.

Although ticks are most often associated with spreading Lyme Disease, Andrews said the disease is not prevalent in Oklahoma. Deer ticks that carry Lyme Disease thrive more in the northeast and Great Lakes areas in cooler summer temperatures.

Most infections or conditions resulting from tick bites in Oklahoma are:

- Rocky Mountain spotted fever – bacterial disease that causes fevers, headaches and a rash
  - Ehrlichia – bacterial disease that causes flu-like symptoms
  - Alpha-gal syndrome – food allergy to red meat
- “The most common infection we see is Rocky Mountain spotted fever, but Alpha-gal syndrome is definitely on the increase as we learn to recognize it,” Andrews said. “When a tick bites, it causes an immune reaction that creates a sensitivity to some of the antigens found in red meat. Testing for it is more available now than it was 10 years ago.”

Fever, body aches, sweats, chills and other flu-like symptoms are associated with these diseases.

Andrews said a rash usually appears after Rocky Mountain spotted fever has progressed to a serious state.

“If someone feels like they have the flu during the summer, it may be tick-related,” he said. “There’s a lot of illness out there that can create flu-like syndromes. Getting evaluated is important.”

Mollette:

fairly well has several schools spread out over the county. They have one sheriff and he has two underpaid deputies.

By the time he and the deputies could ever possibly even show up, dozens if not a multitude of children would be dead. This sheriff’s department is very underfunded and would have to wait for state police to arrive.

The local state police post is one hour away. It is unimaginable how many children could be killed. Such school systems have no choice but to come up with armed security guards to protect the children.

Who ever dreamed you would read something like this in your local paper? I never dreamed of a country where it would need to be written.

I had an interesting conversation with Elaine Arnold of Wayne this week.

She was talking about Janie Allen being her aide when she was a teacher at Wayne School and how good she was.

Then she mentioned that Joyce Stitt, the mother of the governor of Oklahoma, was also her aide and that she too was very attentive.

And then she mentioned that Kevin Stitt and his two brothers were students at Wayne for some time.

I had never heard that before and enjoyed learning it from Elaine.

This recipe combines two of my favorites - pasta and Mexican.

Taco Pasta

8 oz. spaghetti

1-1/4 pounds lean ground beef or ground turkey

1 oz. package taco seasoning

2/3 cup water

10.75 oz. can cream of chicken soup

10 oz. can Rotel diced tomatoes and green chilies undrained

8 oz. package Velveeta cheese, cubed

1-1/2 cups shredded cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 350°.

Lightly spray a 9x9-inch pan with cooking spray. Set aside.

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain. Set aside.

In a large skillet cook ground beef over medium-high heat until no longer pink. Drain fat. Return meat to skillet. Add taco seasoning and water. Stir to combine. Cook for 5 minutes.

Stir in soup, Velveeta and Rotel tomatoes. Reduce heat to low, and cook until the cheese melts, stirring constantly.

Stir in cooked spaghetti and pour into prepared dish. Top with cheddar cheese.

Bake for 30 minutes or until heated through.

Absentee requests

Application deadline 5 p.m. Monday

The deadline to request an absentee ballot by mail for the upcoming primary election is 5 p.m. Monday.

McClain County Election Board Secretary Karen Haley said absentee voting is available to all voters and can be submitted several ways.

“In Oklahoma, no excuse is needed to vote by absentee ballot and it’s easy to apply,” she said. “Voters can submit their application online, in person, by fax, mail or email.”

To apply online, use the OK Voter Portal at oklahoma.gov/elections/ovp.

The applications are available at the McClain County Election Board or downloaded at oklahoma.gov/elections.

Haley reminds voters only the applicant can submit his or her absentee ballot application. It is against the law to submit the application for another person. Voters who submit their application in person at the county election board will be asked to provide proof of identity.

Anyone with questions about absentee voting should call the McClain County Election Board at 405-527-3121 or email mcclaincounty@elections.ok.gov.

The office in the McClain County Courthouse is open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Truck donation shot in arm

For MATC Lineman program

Imperium Utility Services has donated an 2005 International Bucket Truck to benefit the Lineworker Technology program at Mid-America Technology Center.

MATC Superintendent Mike Eubank said, “We are excited about the opportunities this donation will provide for our students. Mid-America would like to publicly thank Imperium Utility Services and Center Phase Energy for not only their donations but also for their support of Mid-America to help make the Lineworker program the best in the state.”

MATC’s Lineworker Technology program trains high-voltage lineworkers utilizing hands-on instruction in indoor and outdoor labs, as well as theory-based learning on safety and electricity. Students gain a wide variety of skills, from pole climbing and framing to principles of electrical transmission and distribution.

This donation will ensure that industry standards will be met or exceeded, thus facilitating the students in obtaining the skills they need to be gainfully employed in the electrical lineworker field.

zoom updates, phone calls or emails, as well as volunteer at a local small farm or farmers market for a total of 40 hours in each class,” Squires said. “In addition to this they will be asked to join a panel discussion, host a training session or share their experiences by participating in the training.”

The second class will be the Market Gardener Master Class and a $2,000 scholarship award for 10 people. That application deadline is Sept. 21.

Squires and Norman Farm Market Manager Kate Cooper will facilitate accountability groups for both classes.

“These are proven classes that have taught farmers how to survive and make a living at what they love,” Cooper said. “People can sign up for the classes directly through the providers, but we are administering the scholarships.”

The Neversink Farm Master Class teaches no-till, high intensity farming on a small scale while the Market Gardener Master Class teaches small scale organic farming in the field of biointensive farming.

“We’re really excited about this grant program because it covers the cost of the entire class and really opens it up to a broader range of people,” Cooper said.

People can apply for either or both scholarships but only one scholarship per person will be awarded. Two more scholarship opportunities will be announced through this program in 2023 Cooper said.

For an application packet, email jsquires@matech.edu or kcooper@clevelandountyok.com.

The scholarships are made possible through the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food and Forestry’s specialty crop program.

Dr. Don Edward Beck

Dr. Don Edward Beck, who died on May 24, 2022, was a teacher, geopolitical advisor, and theorist who spent his life trying to make the world a better place.

It was perhaps the soil in his beloved “Red Hill,” in Purcell, Oklahoma, which imbued Dr. Beck with a unique sense of clarity. For sure, his parents, Louie and Bertha Mae Beck were symbols of humility and faith.

Dr. Beck was graduated from Purcell High School 1954, then furthered his education at Abilene Christian College, where he received a B.A in 1958 and an M.A in Theology and Communication from the same institution a year later in 1959. He was awarded his Ph.D. in Communication and Social Psychology with a focus on Large Scale Systems Dynamics and Change in 1966 by the University of Oklahoma.

It was in 1959 that he married the love of his life, Patricia Jane Watson, a timeless beauty with a precious heart. Pat died four years before Dr. Beck, after the couple celebrated their 59th anniversary. The Becks had three children, Belinda, married to Rob Richardson, stepmother to Matt and Kristina and step-grandmother to Josiah, Aurora, Ayzal and Axl; Don Beck II, married to Lauren with daughter Jillian Grace and Matthew Beck. Dr. Beck also leaves a sister Beverly Beck Elder, of Norman.

To encapsulate Dr. Beck’s achievements as a world citizen, as well as his passions, dreams and sense of optimism would take volumes. Every day his thoughts were focused on the mechanics of making world conflicts solvable. His insights into the South African social and political systems led him to make over 60 trips into all regions, making personal connections with no less than F.W. de Clerk and Nelson Mandela.

He created the Spiral Dynamics theory, an evolutionary human development model. He was also known throughout the country as a “sports psychologist,” writing columns on the subject for the Dallas Morning News.

Dr. Beck established the first center for Human Emergence in Copenhagen, Denmark and made many consulting trips to The Netherlands and, later, created the Center for Human Emergence, Middle East.

In 2007, he addressed the United Nations on the subject of “Global Governance.”

Many of Dr. Beck’s celebrated lectures and group interactions are available on YouTube.

Dr. Robert Wright, CEO of the Wright University and the Wright Foundation, perhaps said it best.

“We mourn the passing of a significant thinker and great humanitarian, Dr. Don Beck, respected advisor to national leaders from Tony Blair of the UK to President Fox of Mexico, and Nelson Mandela and his staff on the South African reconciliation process, as well as the Dallas Cowboys, Southwest Airlines and Whole Foods. His warm humanity extended to all peoples.”

A virtual memorial will be held Friday, June 10, 2022 for friends abroad and at Singing Oaks Church of Christ in Denton, Texas. Please contact 940-387-4355.

How to attract hummingbirds to the landscape

Trisha Gedon
Extension Educator

Hummingbirds seem to have the precision, speed and appeal of a U.S. Air Force fighter jet, and these quick-winged feathered friends are fun to watch in the landscape. Typically appearing in the U.S. from April through August, hummingbirds are the smallest of all bird species. But despite their tiny stature, hummingbirds play an important role in the ecosystem, said David Hillock, Oklahoma State University Extension consumer horticulturist.

“Hummingbirds are great pollinators. Besides the popular hummingbird feeders, gardeners can attract these birds to their yard with landscaping,” Hillock said.

“Landscaping and gardening to purposefully attract birds is becoming increasingly popular. Plus, attracting birds near your home can help manage insect populations as well as maintain the ecological balance of outdoor environments. And birdwatching is a great family activity,” he said.

What kind of plants do hummingbirds like? Bright, colorful flowers with places to perch are attractive to these birds. Flowers with tubular red and orange blossoms are good choices.

Other options include milkweeds, trumpet vine, coral bells, honeysuckle, salvia, zinnia, azalea, bee balm, hosta and flowering currant.

“Hummingbirds require a constant and diverse supply of flowers to feed on from late spring through the fall,” Hillock said. “When selecting plants, try to make selections that will bloom throughout the season.”

For those who may not have space for a garden, installing a hummingbird feeder is an easy way to attract them to the area. These feeders are different than traditional bird feeders in that they hold a sweet, sugary drink the birds can access with their slender beak.

Hillock said hummingbirds don't have an acute sense of smell, so they rely on their eyesight to find food sources.

“These birds are attracted to bright, vibrant colors and floral patterns. If you've shopped for a hummingbird feeder, you've probably noticed they're red. Using these feeders and incorporating red flowers and garden decorations will help entice the birds to your area,” he said. “Placing the feeder near plants will encourage the birds to feed from natural sources in addition to the feeder.”

While they do like the color red, the liquid inside the feeder shouldn't be red. In fact, red dye can be harmful to hummingbirds.

Consumers can purchase commercial nectar solution, or better yet, make their own using one part granulated white sugar to four parts boiling water. Allow the nectar to cool before filling the feeders. Don't use honey or sugar substitutes.

Hillock suggests emptying and cleaning the feeders every few days, especially in warmer weather. Wash in a solution of 1 tablespoon of white vinegar and 1 cup of water.

Place the feeder close to a window to help in observing these little feathered creatures. Consider getting a bird book from the library to help young children learn more about ornithology.

Signs of progress

Nine colored belts are prominently displayed at Jimboy’s Fighting Arts Academy, motivating martial arts students.

Pawnee.

Mark has three martial arts disciplines. Those are Chinese Kenpo, American Kenpo and Tae Kwan Do.

Of the three, Chinese Kenpo is his favorite and he has a ninth degree black belt in Senshi Ryu.

There are 10 degrees to a black belt so Mark is clearly a master.

He works out with two other black belts. He met Jeff Smith from Wayne through the Chickasaws. Smith just tested for his 5th degree black belt.

The other is Elaine Guilloz from Sulphur. She is a third degree black belt and helps with the Little Dragons class.

The colored belts represent significant achievement.

There are three “beginner” belts. Those are in ascending order, white, yellow and orange.

Next are three intermediate level belts, going from green to blue to purple.

The advanced belts in order are red, brown and black.

Statistically, only three in 10 martial arts students will attain a coveted black belt.

“Usually when someone gets to blue belt, if they don’t have a passion for martial arts, they will try something else,” he said.

In 1994, with the blessing of his teachers, Mark began teaching martial arts in his parents’ garage in Lexington.

From there, he moved the fledgling school to the VFW post in Lexington.

He stayed there for six months and then relocated to a church gym outside Lexington.

Eventually, good friends from the church he was attending talked him across the Canadian River to Purcell where he opened his gym at 414 S. Green Ave.

After five years in that location, JFA Academy became a downtown fixture at 209 W. Main. That was in March 2021.

The JFA stands for Jimboy’s Fighting Arts and the academy is open from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursdays.

Children as young as 3 years start in the Tiny Tots class. Four-year-olds are also in Tiny Tots. He presently has about six in the class.

So what can kids that young learn?

“Basic motor control,” Mark said.

That includes running, jumping, learning to share, teamwork, discipline, color recognition and “very little martial arts.”

Little Dragons are 5- and 6-year-olds. Their curriculum includes kicking, push-ups, commands, stranger danger and “very little self defense.”

Progress for a Little Dragon is marked with stripes added to the belt. Ten stripes are required to move from white to yellow.

The Little Dragons class meets for 30 minutes once a week on Tuesdays.

At any time, there are seven to 10 Little Dragons.

Classes for kids and adults are an hour.

“The martial arts starts in the kids’ class,” Mark said, “but not until they learn weapon control and breaking techniques.”

Typically, the kids’ class draws 12 to 18 students.

“The adults learn it all,” he added. “A lot of families work out together.”

He’s proud of the “family time” goal. Other goals are physical fitness and self-defense.

Indeed, many people take martial arts as a fighting game when it is actually more self-defense.

“You fight with control and skills,” Mark said.

Self-defense is a popular reason to learn martial arts, though Mark said he’s only had to use his abilities “maybe three times in my life.”

The first class is always free and there is open enrollment so students can start anytime.

Tuition for Little Dragons is $40 per month. Kids and adults pay $100 per month. Under a family plan, up to four people can train for $175 a month.

Sparring and breaking boards begins with yellow belts. Added weaponry and demonstration requires a red belt.

This month, the curriculum expanded with a cardio kickboxing class that meets Wednesdays from 6 to 7 p.m.

If someone doesn’t want a class, Mark offers private lessons. Those lessons are popular, especially right before testing.

Once a month, the academy is open for Masters Club, a 2-hour self defense clinic taught by the Littletons.

There is also a Leadership Club for green belts or higher who are training to become instructors upon attaining a black belt. That club meets Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Although JFA Academy hosts tournaments, competing is something Mark no longer does. His last tournament was 1998.

JFA Academy will host its 3rd annual tournament on Saturday at the Multi-Purpose Building at Purcell Lake.

Only yellow belts or higher may compete in tournaments.

For more information on classes or the tournament, all Mark at 405-921-0223 or visit JFA Academy on Facebook or at www.JFAAcademy.com.

Students are tested before they earn the next belt and the evaluators also want written statements from school teachers and parents.

Mark has had only one student fail the test and he said that was due to her attitude.

After 60 days probation she tested again and passed.

Success is directly tied to motivation and that is achieved through attention span and “keeping their drive open.”

“To get to the next belt, they have to pass this,” he said.

Mark has two children from his first marriage. His daughter Lauran reached brown belt and his son, Elijah, is a second-degree black belt.

His present wife, Jayne, has a yellow belt and of his six step-children, one has an orange belt and two have yellow belts.

Jayne is Chickasaw and Mark is Creek and Seminole.

Mark is a member of Creek Chapel Methodist Church in Okemah where his father is pastor.

Before moving into his present job as a security officer at the Chickasaw Nation facility in Purcell, Mark worked at a detention center where he used martial arts on the job.

“I’m not a fighter. I hate fighting,” he said, “but I will if I have to. Martial arts is not a bullying tool. Never throw the first punch.”

GOP to host “Meet Your Candidates”

Save the date!
McClain County GOP brings you “Meet Your Candidates” Thursday, June 16, at 7 p.m. at the Newcastle Storm Shelter. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for meet and greet.
This month we will have Jackson Lahmeyer, candidate for U.S. Senate. Lahmeyer is a successful businessman, Pastor of Sheridan Church, and a conservative fighter.
“Jackson and his wife Kendra have five children and reside in Owasso. As a businessman, Lahmeyer faced death attacks and death threats from far-left activists for hosting events to Back the Blue. He refused to back down,” said Paul Maus, McClain County GOP Chair.
“As a Pastor, Lahmeyer fought to keep his church open during the statewide lockdowns, mask mandates, and escalating legal threats, and won. Lahmeyer believes we deserve a U.S. Senator who will protect our God-given rights and not fold under political pressure,” Maus continued.
“He is 100 percent pro-life, pro-liberty, and pro-America first. Lahmeyer will fight for Oklahoma values,” Maus concluded.
Lahmeyer stated, “Oklahoma needs a courageous fighter in the U.S. Senate who will put Oklahoma first, defend our nation’s values, and fight back against the radical left’s assault on our way of life. We will fight back, and we will win.”
An additional guest speaker for the evening is Miranda Jones. Miranda is the assistant director of Oklahomans for Health and Parental Rights, the fastest growing political action committee in Oklahoma.

Exceptional evening at the Opry

The guests (stars) of the Pauls Valley Opry were all shining bright and the crowd was exceptional.
We, and all of those in attendance, will remember this evening of fellowship and music for a long time.
Making her Pauls Valley Opry debut was Dana Price. Dana has an excellent voice and it was obvious the crowd fell in love with her after the first few notes of the Chrystal

Pauls Valley Opry
Gunner Shi Donham will be one of the featured performers at the next Pauls Valley Opry on Saturday, July 2. The show begins at 6:30 p.m. at the Pauls Valley Junior High School auditorium.

Gayle hit, “Don’t It Make My Brown Eyes Blue.”
Dana and her husband, Mike, who happens to be the keyboardist for the Memory Makers Band, thrilled us with the Everly Brothers hit “Let It Be Me.”
Gunner Shi Donham is a crowd pleaser and he knocked it out of the park on Saturday night. This exceptional singer/songwriter/musician/entertainer did an outstanding job on the George Strait classic, “The Love Bug.” He brought back a lot of Keith Whitley memories when he sang, “It Ain’t Nothing.”
We are always happy to see “Little Miss Dynamite”, April Davis on the show. This gal packs a punch, as evident when she belted out the Aretha Franklin mega-hit “R-E-S-P-E-C-T.”
She followed that up with the Fleetwood Mac hit “Landslide”, and she blessed us with a gospel classic, “Farther Along.”
Mary Alice Koehn is a star no matter where she is and when she is at the Pauls Valley Opry—she’s at home! She makes everyone else feel at home, too.
Mary Alice did a super job on the Linda Ronstadt hit, “Silver Threads and Golden Needles.” When she kicked into the Lorri Morgan classic, “Except for Monday’s” the crowd was on their feet.
Missy Rude is a multi-award winner and also a member of the Pauls Valley Opry Hall of Fame.
On Saturday night, Missy (like nobody else can) got us in that bluesy mood with the Mary Sarah hit, “Without You.” She rocked with the Jo Dee Messina hit, “Lesson in Leavin.”

Free car seat checks

The Cleveland County Health Department will be providing free car seat checks on Friday, June 17, from 10 a.m. to noon.
The checks will be provided at the Cleveland County Health Department, 424 S Eastern Ave., in Moore in the parking lot.
A statewide shortage in car seat technicians prompted health department officials to schedule this special event at the agency’s Moore location
Anyone can attend on a first-come-first-served basis.
Each instructional installation takes about 30 minutes and properly installed car seats save lives.
All three technicians working the event are nationally certified. One of those, County Health Educator Jennifer Trejo Rojo, speaks Spanish and English.
“We also provide handouts in various languages in case anyone needs that variation,” Trejo Rojo said. “We’ve been getting a lot of car seat appointments from other counties because there’s a shortage on car seat technicians so we decided to set up this event to address the need.”
Car crashes are “a leading cause of death for children ages 1 to 13,” according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, but NHTSA also reports that car seats, properly installed, save hundreds of lives annually. That’s why events like this clinic are crucial for the safety of Oklahoma children.
“Most car seats we see need to be done because they are not properly installed,” Trejo Rojo said. “About four out of five children, the car seat is

Sixth in State

The fishing team of Dax Beason and Abby Sample recently finished sixth in the State Fishing Tournament.

Lex fishing team sixth in State

Both teams qualify for tournament

Both Lexington High School tournament fishing teams qualified to fish during the 2022 State Championship Tournament this year.

“Both teams worked really hard and represented Lexington very well,” coach Garrett Benson said. “Most people don’t realize the work ethic dedication and sunburns one has to endure, and the hours these kids put in, to compete at this high of a level.”

“We are extremely proud of both of our teams that qualified for State and for one team to finish in the top 10 in the State Championship Tournament,” Benson continued. “For it to be the very first year of this program, is absolutely amazing,” said the coach said. “It’s really unheard of and goes to show the drive that these students have to win.”

The team members Dax Beason and Abby Sample, who are captained by Dax’s dad, Ritchie Beason, finished sixth overall in the State Championship Tournament.

There were 64 teams competing out of several hundred that were invited.

“Our other team, who were also invited to compete, because of their overall points throughout the regular season, put out a huge effort, showing an incredible amount of work ethic and intestinal fortitude, but luck just wasn’t on their side that weekend,” said Benson.

Those team members are Wyatt Woods, Wyatt McBride and are captained by Mark Woods.

You can follow these teams, as well as Lex’s top five ranked Archery Team, on Facebook. Stay tuned to all the updates by looking up OutdoorEd Lexington High.

Sunray Baptist Church

Josh Pickard sang “I Am Leaning on Your Everlasting Arms” for the morning special.

Brother Dennis Clark used Matthew 8:1-4 for his sermon and explained that there are people in life who touch you in a positive way. God uses all kinds of people to bring us to where we should be.

Jesus came down from the sermon on the mount and encountered a leper. He touched and healed him. The leprosy was gone immediately. When Jesus touches you, you do not remain the same. You are cleansed and your mistakes are taken away. Jesus touches us that we might touch others with the good news about Him.

Our evening service was a continuation of the video series “The God Who Speaks.” The Canon of Scripture was discussed. In our Bible, God has given us everything He wanted us to have. The Word stands on its own and changes and transforms our lives.

Father’s Day will be recognized at our church with a dessert fellowship following the evening service.

On Saturday, June 25, beginning at 6 p.m. we will welcome The Williamsons and Mark Bishop to our annual SummerSing gospel singing service. Everyone is welcome. This promises to be a special evening of worship, praise and song. A love offering will be taken to help with expenses.

Come be a part of Sunray Baptist Church. Join us for Sunday school, worship and all activities. We are located at 2223 North 9th Street in Purcell. For additional information call 527-6808.

Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church

By Stella Bledsoe

On June 12, 2022, we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Encyclopedia Britannica gives this brief summary of the Holy Trinity: In Christian doctrine, the Holy Trinity is the unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as one God in three persons.

The word Trinity does not appear in the Bible. It is a doctrine formulated in the early church to interpret the way God revealed himself, first to Israel, then in Jesus as Savior, and finally as Holy Spirit, preserver of the church. The doctrine of Trinity developed in early centuries of the church and was explicitly stated at the Council of Nicaea in 325.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity can be considered as a celebration of all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons. The Trinity joins together what we have experienced through Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, the Ascension and Pentecost.

In the same way as college students have a capstone year following several years of specific instruction, Holy Trinity Sunday gathers many events of the Christian faith which are studied in the preceding months.

When they have comprehensive exams in college, students are fearful they must remember every single thing they have previously studied. There is no need for fear because they have already studied each of the components in such exams.

Some Christians may be fearful they cannot explain the Trinity. Just like comprehensive exams, there should be no fear because we have studied all the important concepts already and now we are ready.

We celebrate the love of Jesus at Our Lady of Victory parish all year long. Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church is located at the 307 West Jefferson. The office is open weekday mornings (405-527-3077). Weekend mass services are Saturday, 5 p.m.; Sunday, 11 a.m.; and Sunday, 1 p.m. (Spanish). Until late June, we will not be having daily masses. However, there will be communion services on Wednesdays at 12 noon in English and on Thursdays at 7 p.m. in Spanish.

Peace be with you.

The God of the Mountain!

I was just thinking about how things are nowadays, and I realized something: Things and people are not that much different from way back years ago, as far back as the Old Testament days. People have always thought they could, somehow, get away from God’s sight long enough to weave a plan that God wouldn’t be able to spoil.

One of those types of kings was named Ahab. You’ll recognize him by the name of his wife: Jezebel. You don’t get any worse than having a wife such as that.

Look around, don’t be surprised if we don’t see some Jezebels today. You know them because their agendas are those that promote abject godlessness, not godliness. You understand.

But as bad as Jezebel’s husband Ahab is, he is still the king of God’s people—so, he at least has one thing going for him. One of Ahab’s enemies named Benhadad, king of Syria, is one of the biggest bullies to come along in that day.

He picks one fight after another, just because he can. One of those fights takes place up on a mountain, where the Lord sides with Ahab; and they soundly whip the Syrians—with God’s help, of course.

Benhadad’s men limp home defeated, but they are not through. They have another plan. (Isn’t it just like men to keep coming with evil plots! If one plan doesn’t work, then they’ll try another plan, whatever it takes).

These men come to the king with this ‘brilliant’ plan, saying that the God of Israel is a powerful God, but He’s really a God of the mountain. What they need to do is attack Israel down in the valley, because this God isn’t powerful down there. We can’t help but laugh a little at that! Of course, they aren’t engaged in battle down in the valley for long before they realize that God is not just the God of the mountain, He’s God down in that valley, too.

I’d like to send a “thank you” to Stella Bledsoe who writes the articles for Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. She wrote about Pentecost last Thursday, which we celebrated last Sunday. We don’t always remember this birthday of the Christian church.

Our next Food Give Away will be Saturday, June 18, from 12 to 4 p.m. Masks are still advised for those who have serious medical conditions; we have masks available. We also provide hand sanitizer. Please pass this info on to anyone who may be hungry and low on food.

Lexington and its surrounding communities are invited to the first of a series of films next Thursday, June 16, at 12 noon. These will be family friendly, so bring a sandwich for yourself plus an extra sandwich for a friend to “Munch and a Movie.” We will provide chips and beverages.

The film will begin at approximately 12:30 p.m. and should last for about two-and-a-quarter hours. We will be showing one of the movies from the series “Patterns of Evidence.”

There are four different films: one on Exodus, one on Moses, and two on the Red Sea Miracle. They are all from filmmaker Timothy P. Mahoney. Each is about the search for scientific evidence that these things happened. So, bring your sandwich, and join us for the movie. Feel free to invite a friend or two.

This week we start a series of articles about what makes Methodists different from other Protestant Christian churches. First off is a list of

Westside:

The Syrian army limps home after that second defeat, and they are done with their evil plots for a while. God has spoken. Remember, God will speak, always, in His time.

Let us note this, too: Regardless of what’s going on around us, the Lord knows who they are with evil motives and underhanded schemes. No, don’t be surprised when they get away with their corrupt plans for a long time—but, just remember, with God, what goes around does, indeed, come around.

Count on it.

They’ll turn this way, and that way, trying to outsmart the Lord. They’ll work up a plan to attack the Lord’s people up on the mountain, and – when that fails – they’ll send their men down in the valley armed for war. Whatever it takes, they’ll do, feeling invincible. All of their confederations casting their votes with them give them plenty of false confidence. But they’re missing the one vote they need.

But they always forget something: The time will come when the Lord will have enough, and He will send them a whipping like no other. He’ll start out with the beat-down up on the mountain -- then, when they don’t give up, He’ll repeat the whipping down in the valley.

No sir, our God – the God of our country, and the God of the world – isn’t just the God of the mountain.

He’s definitely God of the valley, too.

Wash News:

we have been playing catch up to process the hundreds of claims that veterans and surviving spouses who have asked for our assistance in filing their VA claims. The sheer number of requests overwhelmed our volunteers.

We will start accepting new clients in July both online and in-person. Until we add more trained volunteers, we will have place a limit on the number who is accepted.

Maybe it is time for you to consider joining our team of dedicated volunteers who are making a difference in the lives of the men and women who have served in our military.

I don’t need to tell anyone about the increased cost of food and fuel, along with everything we need to survive. We have more people than ever who are requesting our assistance in paying for some of their unforeseen expenses.

It seems to me that people in our country are facing some very difficult choices when it comes to paying for food, fuel, housing or medical care. Some of the veteran families who have recently asked us for help with their VA claims are making difficult decisions every day on some of the choices I listed above.

I have had veterans who tell me that they may take turns with their spouse on who gets their medications each week. During the next few years, we don’t know how much the cost of living is going to increase. What I do know is that all of us on a fixed income are in for a very rough time financially.

The only way that I know how to make a difference in the lives of the men and women who ask us for help is to do everything possible to help them to be approved for the VA benefits that they may be eligible to receive.

Over the years that we have advocated for veterans and their surviving spouses to receive VA benefits we have been successful in most of their claims. I know that not all will be approved, but using our evidence-based claims process, most veterans will receive a VA rating.

We are partnering with Tinker Federal Credit Union to host a two-part financial literacy series at our Foundation. The goal is to educate and empower veterans until all have the financial stability they and their families deserve.

If you have questions about the saving and investing please register for the seminar held Friday, July 22nd: Saving & Investing Workshop <https://airtable.com/shrxGiDVx-HZzekGji> Limited seating is available.

Please remember volunteer training is available either online or in person for most every volunteer position we have. Volunteers have the option of working from home or at our location in Norman at 1233 West Lindsay Street.

We are a 501c-3 non-profit organization and there is never a charge for the services we provide to veterans and their families. We do accept financial contributions to be used to support veterans and this organization. We also accept donations of wheelchairs and other types of handicap equipment that can be given to other veterans or their families. Other items that we accept are cars, trucks, motorcycles, or items that can be given to veterans or sold to raise funds.

We are open to active clients Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon each day.

To donate to our Foundation, you can do so online at dalekgrahamveteransfoundation.org or mail a check to Dale K. Graham Veterans Foundation, 1233 West Lindsay, Norman, OK, 73069. You can contact us on our website or by calling 405-550-8806.

Methodist:

“core beliefs” based on quotes from John Wesley, who was an Anglican priest and instituted a more methodical approach to worship. One of the easiest is: “Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God.”

His teachings stressed God’s grace. Grace is the bounty or favor of God that is undeserved and unmerited. We can’t do anything to earn it: it is the loving action of God. We can look at it as God’s kindness to everyone, whether or not they acknowledge that God exists or is even a part of our lives.

Wesley describes three types of grace in the Christian life. Prevenient grace, justifying grace, and sanctifying grace. Let’s explore a little further.

Prevenient grace is present in all of Creation and is there in preparation for us to accept God’s grace. Justifying grace is the pardon and forgiveness of sins that we accept from God and recognize it as God’s gift to us. Sanctifying grace is the process of being made whole and holy in response to the step of justification. Sometimes we call this “perfection” which is working toward the completeness of our hearts and lives.

Some believers speak of being “born again,” but others of us see that as a combination of justifying and sanctifying grace. When we accept God’s grace in response to pardon and forgiveness, we prove that we have truly had a change in our lives by sanctification. It doesn’t mean that we are perfect in Jesus’ image, but that we are pursuing growth in our ability to be like Jesus. We open ourselves to allow God to fill us and receive Jesus.

Methodists believe people should have a very personal relationship with God that transforms their lives. They have a concern for the people of our society who need help and believe that faith in God should lead people into service for others.

Next time, we’ll explore the Wesleyan Quadrilateral and five beliefs that set Methodists apart.

We are always looking for volunteers at the Food Bank. We’re open for four hours on the third Saturday of the month. If you can only give an hour or two that day, we can still use your help. There are opportunities to help on other days too—helping unload the food from the Regional Food Bank, rearranging shelves, setting up tables and chairs, visiting, etc. If you would be available to help with the Food Bank ministry, even for only a couple of hours, please contact Ms. Robin Cook at (405) 527-4177 or (405) 568-8032.

As always, we invite you to worship with us at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday to see how we’re different from other churches. Sunday school starts at 11 a.m. Our address is 631 East Ash, just west of Lexington High School.

For more information, please call the church at (405) 527-3506 to leave a message, or contact Pastor David Cook directly at (405) 406-6174.
