Washington clinched the Class 3A State fast-pitch softball championship Saturday after defeating Tishomingo 2-0.

The win seals a back-to-back championship run for the team and sends Washington's talented senior class out with a career record of 141-31.

The seniors were State runners-up their freshman and sophomore years and champions as juniors and seniors.

Ironically, the runners-up losses were both to Tishomingo.

This year's seniors are Skylar Wells, Abby Wood, Daisy Lampkin, Ellie Loveless, Tinley Lucas, Maggie Place and Elly Allison.

"For these seniors to get to go out on top against Tishomingo is something they'll always remember," said Washington head coach Tylor Lampkin.

An Interesting Neighbor
Everyone has a story

Jeanne Grimes

Paul Bettis sold cars and ran his own businesses before God put him to work saving souls through a prison and jail chaplaincy.

Churches would call him, asking him to preach. And his stock answer was always, "Thank you, but I'm not a pastor."

So when a call came in 1993 from Etowah Baptist Church east of Noble, he was all ready with his standard reply.

But what he heard himself saying was "Yes, I will."

It was a moment straight out of the hymn's refrain - "I will go, Lord, if you lead me."

And it was right in line with Paul's favorite Bible verse, Proverbs 3:5-6.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths."

"The Lord put it on my heart to say yes," he recalled. "You need to obey God when He calls you."

He pastored at Etowah for 10 years and then left for 10 years, after which he was back in the familiar pulpit for another 8 years.

Even as a pastor, he continued his work as a chaplain, mostly at Lexington Assessment & Reception Center and Joseph Harp Correctional Center.

That specialized ministry lasted more than 20 years.

For 16 years, he was a CLEET-certified deputy sheriff/chaplain with the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department.

He rounded out 20 years in law enforcement as a "pistol-packing preacher" by serving four years with the Canadian County Sheriff's Department.

Paul was the chaplain specialist at the Baptist General

Site owners sue meat packing companies

Jeanne Grimes

If the allegations in a lawsuit are found to be fact, residents downwind of a controversial meat packing plant between Washington and Goldsby could be breathing sweeter air.

Goldsby Investment Co., LLC owns the plant and the 10 acres on which it is located.

The investment company filed the lawsuit in McClain County District Court, naming as defendants the former tenant, Goldsby Meat Co.,

LLC and the present operator, Harker Meats LLC.

According to the lawsuit, Goldsby Meat Co., leased the plant on Sept. 1, 2018. The lease agreement provided if the company abandoned the site more than 24 hours, the lease would be terminated.

The lawsuit alleges Goldsby Meat Co., left the premises around Nov., 10, 2021, at which time Harker Meat Co., moved in and

OSU Extension helping children have a flavorful fall break

Trisha Gedon
Extension Educator

With fall break just around the corner for Oklahoma students, Oklahoma State University Extension and the Oklahoma Nutrition Information Education Project are partnering to promote healthy snacks while children are home for the school break.

The Flavorful Fall Break resource features a variety of healthy snack recipes children can easily make during fall break, said Jenni Klufa, associate state specialist for youth programs through OSU Extension's Community Nutrition Education Program.

Klufa said nutrition education assistants with CNEP will build on what they're already doing in many schools across the state by also offering Flavorful Fall Break materials. In addition, all the recipes are available on the CNEP Facebook page, through county OSU Extension offices and the ONIE website.

"We want to encourage healthy eating habits for youth, and that includes when they're on fall break," Klufa said. "Youth involved in making their own meals and snacks tend to try healthier foods. The recipes created by ONIE are quick, easy and full of flavor. Some of the recipes require assistance from a parent or caregiver."

Flavorful Fall Break recipes include:

- Cranberry Almond Snack Mix;
- Peanut Butter Spiders;
- Parmesan Zucchini Squash Fries;
- Candy Corn Parfait;
- Healthy Spider Munch; and
- Cheesy Witches Broomsticks.

With the holiday season right around the corner, many classrooms will celebrate with parties. These tasty treats are a great alternative to some of the more traditional sugary treats found at classroom festivities.

"We all love to celebrate the holidays, but the typical classroom party tends to provide too much sugar for children," Klufa said. "Parents and teachers who are in charge of party planning can use these recipes as a healthy food choice, but the students can actually make them during the party. This will help with party planning and gives them a fun activity to do."

A balanced eating pattern for children encourages no more than 25 grams of added sugar per day, and school parties can reach that limit quickly.

A 12 ounce can of soda contains about 40 grams of added sugar, and a regular size chocolate bar has about 20 grams of added sugar. It's easy to see how quickly added sugar can add up.

Melody Nabors, a teacher at Fort Towson Elementary School in Choctaw County, said she is happy to have more healthy snack options for her

OSSAA at it again

I can't believe my ears and eyes.

When almost everyone I talk to thinks college football has been gutted by the NIL and transfer portal, now the Oklahoma Secondary Sports Activities Association is sliding down the same slippery slope.

The OSSAA has raised an eye brow or two about an assorted number of things.

This is no different.

They claim the guidelines approved by state a student can receive NIL compensation as long as it is not dependent upon athletic success, does not act as an incentive for attending a certain school and does not come from the school itself.

We'll see.

What in the heck has happened to amateur sports?

If they are getting paid for athletic performance, they are professional.

Greed is defined as intense and selfish desire for something, especially wealth, power or food.

I'm dumbfounded that Oklahoma or any other state would do this.

It's been a kick in the rump for the game of college football and sand traps lay in wait for their high school counterparts.

Just like most everything else, this is a matter of the haves having it over the have nots.

High school coaches I spoke with about the NIL situation were not pleased.

More like dismayed.

One coach said, "I don't like it at all. It's just like the NCAA rich schools. They are going to use it to entice."

Yet another coach said, "I think it's ridiculous."

Here's the take of yet another head coach.

"I don't know enough of the details to know exactly how it will work, but it could turn into the Wild West.

"With the state transfer rules and now adding this, it could get very corrupt in a hurry," the coach continued.

Exactly my sentiments.

Hello from District 43

• Senator Jessica Garvin •

Update from the Capitol

While session may only be four months long, we work year-round researching issues for areas that may need possible legislative attention.

This also includes constantly reviewing current laws to ensure they're still needed and accomplishing their desired goal be it to keep people safe or properly regulate an industry. Laws are important and must be updated with the times.

One thing that really surprised me when I started preparing for my first legislative session was how early we begin working on bills each year. This year's bill request deadline is Thursday, December 9, approximately two months away. I'm well into the development process and am already working with our incredible Senate staff to research and start drafting policy for the 2023 session.

This past session, I tried to focus some of my attention on workforce development in long-term care. With massive shortages of healthcare staff across the country, I felt passionate about making reforms to the training process to allow for facilities to have quicker access to quality trained direct-care staff.

Unfortunately, Governor Stitt vetoed the bill, but through that I realized how important it is for someone like me, with the in-depth knowledge of such a complicated industry, to use their experience to positively impact the lives of senior adults in Oklahoma.

You have to remember we, as legislators, are only experts in our particular fields and whatever areas we have life experience in. We then depend on our constituents, state agencies and organizations to educate us on other issues and areas. This is the beauty of being a representative democracy. We represent the ideas and concerns of our constituents.

In addition to long-term care policy work, I plan to focus on women's issues, education, and cannabis reform. Over the interim, I've attended seminars and continued in-depth research of these topics and feel with my life experiences, contacts, education, and resources, I'll be able to move forward with meaningful legislation to improve Oklahoma.

I have two interim studies this month. The first was Wednesday, October 12, with the Health and Human Services Committee over substance abuse treatment options for youth. We heard from parents and teens about their experiences.

Then on Tuesday, October 18, at 9 a.m. in Room 535, the Business, Commerce and Tourism Committee will be reviewing childcare center regulation and access.

NEWS FROM CAPITOL HILL

Defending democracy matters

Congressman Tom Cole

This year has unquestionably brought much change to the world in which we live. Not only are Americans struggling to make ends meet here at home due to the worst inflation in 40 years, but on the other side of the globe, democratic nations are facing unprovoked aggression and attacks.

Unfortunately, the Biden Administration's failed trade and energy policies have emboldened bad actors around the world. Indeed, as Vladimir Putin's aggression against Ukraine continues, China has become more ruthless toward Taiwan.

Clearly, the United States must shift our reliance away from these adversaries and take a strong stance on the international stage.

As the drums of war beat in these areas of the world, the United States is morally bound to assume its role as the last superpower and leader of the free world.

With Communist China, we face an adversary that is more capable and aspirational than at any time in the nation's modern history.

And it dangerously views reunification with Taiwan as a national imperative, even if that means taking this independent nation by outright war.

For decades American foreign policy has simply danced around this Communist regime instead of standing up to China for its mockery of the international rules-based order, human rights violations against its own people and its grand scheme to replace the United States as the global economic and diplomatic superpower.

Our struggles at home are temporary, and by enacting policies that benefit our country and our allies instead of Russia or China, we have the full potential to rebound and stand stronger than ever.

However, if China is allowed to see its aspirations realized, the effects of that will be felt in all walks of life and in every facet of American society.

There is both a strong desire and need for the United States to rise to its full capacity of diplomatic and economic leadership around the world, matching our considerable military might.

America and our allies have safeguarded generations of freedom and democracy around the world, and that order is set to be threatened in our lifetime by China's aspirations. Fortunately, we are not yet at the brink, and there are steps we can take to guide the nations of the world to a peaceful resolution of our differences, and secure economic

Your Views

You do make a difference

By Bryan Golden

Do you make a difference in the world? Does anyone care about what you do? Are some people more important than others? We all ask ourselves these questions from time to time. Some people wonder about them more than others.

You do make a difference. You are important. Who you are and what you do does matter. You may have wondered what's the purpose of life. Or perhaps you contemplated the nature of the big picture.

There are many more questions than answers. But we don't need all of the answers to lead meaningful lives. Everything you do and each person you impact has a ripple effect, just like a stone thrown into a pond.

Every occupation helps people and fills some need. If it didn't, the job wouldn't exist. Although there may be a wide range of compensation, lower pay doesn't mean a job is less important. All people are equal, regardless of what they do to earn a living. What can make a person special is how they treat others.

A special person treats others with concern, care, and consideration. A special person's economic status, education, intelligence, or occupation is irrelevant. If you want to make a difference in the world you can do so one person at a time. By having a positive influence on just one person's life, you will have made a significant difference in this world.

The seemingly simple act of saying hello and smiling at a stranger will brighten the day of at least two people; the person who smiled and the one they smiled at. When you help improve someone else's day, who knows how many other people they will have a positive impact on as a result. It's like a good will chain letter that keeps multiplying.

You have three spheres of influence: immediate, direct, and extended. In your immediate sphere are all those people who know you and with whom you have repeated contact. These include family, friends, acquaintances and co-workers.

Many of the people in your immediate sphere depend on and rely on you more than you or they realize. Although people do not show their gratitude to you as often as they should, your presence is nonetheless important to them.

Your direct sphere of influence includes all the people you have personal contact with. Contact involves any kind of interpersonal communication including in person, over the phone, mail, email, or visual. You can have direct contact with a person once, and then never cross paths again.

You have personal contact with people everywhere you go. You talk to many people over the phone or via mail/email that you will never meet in person. You have visual contact with people in other vehicles when you are driving.

When you are polite and caring, it makes a difference to others. How do you feel when you are treated this way? It affects you as the receiver the same way it impacts others when you are the transmitter.

Your extended sphere of influence includes those that are affected by the people you have had direct contact with. One good deed will have a ripple effect that extends farther than you can ever imagine.

So don't underestimate the difference you make in the world. It is far greater than you realize. If someone voices appreciation for what you have done, ask them to repay you by showing the same consideration for someone else.

You do make a difference, one person at a time.

Rising prices - one thing you can do

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

Reports are pointing to an 8.9 percent raise for Social Security recipients. While it won't feel like enough, it may buy you a sack of groceries or a tank of gasoline. This is a big maybe on the gasoline as California reports prices of over $8 per gallon.

Some of our government leadership is crying because Saudi Arabia is cutting their oil production by two million barrels a day. This means less oil for everyone in the grand oil supply pool. I don't understand why anyone in our government would want to do business with the Saudis.

Buying oil from Saudi Arabia, Venezuela or any foreign entity is crazy. Why don't we use our own oil? I'm all for green energy but we aren't quite there yet.

Make electric cars and drive them. Utilize solar energy and else anything that we can do to help preserve this planet and its resources. Regardless, our country still needs oil.

As long as we need oil, it would be wiser and much more cost effective to use our own oil. Put Americans back to work drilling our oil and selling it to foreign countries.

Our government has been draining our own oil reserve to try to keep the price of gasoline down. This doesn't seem to be working very well. Plus, it puts our country at risk.

When China and Russia decide to attack us, we need to be able to put fuel in our jets and ships. That would not be a good time to have to go back to Saudi Arabia and beg for oil.

We should utilize a full arsenal of energy from electric cars and a grid to supply the power. Utilize our oil, wind, natural gas and coal. Once our country can do everything without oil or coal, then we can move on from those resources.

Being dependent on getting them from foreign nations doesn't make sense, especially when we have the resources.

A loaf of bread will eventually cost Americans their 8.9 percent Social Security increase. Ukraine has been one of the world's leading providers of wheat.

Having Russia in control of Ukraine, a major source of the bread supply, along with their major supply of natural gas is bad news for the world.

The Crimea bridge that was recently bombed between Russia and Ukraine should have been bombed on day one by Ukrainians.

Ukraine must do whatever it takes to thwart Russia's ongoing destruction of their country.

The news has been filled with fear that Russia will go nuclear in their efforts. When the nations start hurling nuclear bombs you won't need to worry about gas, groceries and cost of living adjustments because this planet can only take so much.

Keep in mind there is still something you can do to make a difference - vote. Clear your calendar for voting.

If you don't vote then don't complain about our government, inflation, rising interest rates, gasoline prices and more.

I know it doesn't feel like your one vote matters, but it truly counts.

The only way you can bring about change is to clear your schedule, take the time, and vote.

Get ready for Fire Prevention Week: Prepare your home

By Oklahoma Insurance Commissioner Glen Mulready

After a long summer of fun in the sun, the fall season has finally arrived in Oklahoma. Fall brings cool, crisp weather and beautiful colors. It also brings new hazards and risks along with falling leaves and cooler temperatures.

While it's nice to warm up next to a fire or with a heated blanket, it's important to understand the risks involved. Home fires and related injuries increase in the fall with the use of candles, space heaters, stoves for cooking and fireplaces to keep warm.

As we ease into the colder months and get ready for Fire Prevention Week, now is a great time to make sure your home heating system is working properly, and you understand the importance of seasonal inspections.

Proper maintenance protects your family from avoidable fire dangers and protects all of Oklahoma from fire disasters and increasing insurance rates. Last year, insurance companies paid out over $1.3 billion in claims for fire-related damages nationwide.

During Fire Prevention Week, I'd like to share helpful reminders to Oklahomans on fire safety.

Here are a few simple tips to help you protect your family and property as you crank up the heat.

- Inside Your Home
- Make sure your smoke and carbon monoxide detectors are working properly.
  - Clean fireplaces and chimneys.

- Install fire extinguishers in your home.
- Keep flammable objects away from furnaces, fireplaces and other heating units.
- Never leave burning candles or items on the stove unattended.
- Never use a range or an oven as a supplemental heating device. Not only is it a safety hazard, but it can also be a source of potentially toxic fumes.

Outside Your Home

- Remove dead leaves and other debris around the house and from the roof.
- Clean or replace the furnace filter and clean the entire furnace area to remove debris.
- Have heating units inspected by a licensed contractor.
- Never discard hot ashes near the home. Place them in a metal container outside and well away from the house.

Many fire departments, including Oklahoma City and Tulsa, offer free smoke detectors, batteries and installation to residents who request it. It's a product that can save your life, so I strongly encourage you to get it installed.

After learning these safety tips, I hope we can all remain safe and healthy while enjoying the fall season without any fires.

If you have questions about other insurance issues, please contact the Oklahoma Insurance Department at 1-800-522-0071 or visit our website at www.oid.ok.gov.

prosperity for ourselves.

The United States could have and should have done more to deter Russia's actions prior to the start of its invasion of Ukraine, and this should be a lesson to us on how we deal with China moving forward.

In this endeavor, I am proud to cosponsor the Taiwan Policy Act along with 35 fellow House Republicans. This much-needed and long-overdue legislation comprehensively addresses America's policy towards Taiwan and provides the authorities and resources to our government to deter Chinese aggression.

Furthermore, working closely with my colleagues across the aisle and in the Senate, I am fully focused on developing bipartisan legislation to arm our foreign relations enterprise with the tools it needs to foster American economic cooperation and growth in the Pacific and begin to counter Communist China's coercive economic policies aimed at its weaker neighbors and others around the world.

students. "Classroom parties are a lot of fun, but the amount of sugar consumed can sometimes interfere with learning. It's nice for our students to have healthy alternatives," Nabors said. "We have a great working relationship with OSU Extension, and I'm looking forward to using the information offered through these resources." Klufa said the recipes are designed to encourage healthy eating, and when a child develops good habits, it helps them make healthier choices throughout their lives.

"When children are involved in the process of making their food, they're more receptive to trying new, healthy options," she said. "It's important to keep in mind that all foods can fit into an eating plan, and adults need to serve as good role models with their food choices."

Nancy Maynard

Graveside memorial services for Nancy Maynard, 79, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, October 14, 2022 at the Blanchard Cemetery. Services will be under the direction of the Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell and will be livestreamed on the website www.wilsonlittle.com.

The family invites you following the service, to join them at First Baptist Church in Purcell. Come share a dessert and a sweet memory.

Nancy was born Sept. 13, 1943 in Blanchard, Okla., to James M and Margaret Helen Wilson. She lived in Blanchard and then the family moved to Purcell, Okla. Nancy graduated from Purcell High School in 1961. Nancy was very active in HS. She was in the Science club, art club, basketball, state and national honor society, and many other activities.

Ronnie and Nancy started dating in the summer of 1961. Nancy attended Oklahoma State University on scholarship for one year and then returned to her parent's home. Ronnie and Nancy were married on August 31, 1963. They moved to Oklahoma City into their first home they owned at 825 SW 56th where the monthly payment was $61.50/mo!

After living in Oklahoma City, they moved to Washington, Okla. They had two boys James Dale, born Dec. 20, 1964 and Than Hall, born May 11, 1968. They purchased their final home in Purcell in early 1968; it was here that she passed away peacefully with her family by her side.

She loved construction and especially remodeling their own house (aka directing her husband Ronnie on what to do and what to do over). It should be noted that Ronnie was almost finished remodeling when she passed away on Oct. 05, 2022 at the age of 79 years. Ronnie will soon be finishing the final remodel and we fully expect her to be "guiding" him as he continues his passion of doing what she told him to do.

Nancy obtained her real estate license in 1977. She worked for Velma Barnes Real Estate in Norman, Okla. When Velma Barnes retired Nancy moved her license to Heart of Oklahoma Real Estate in Purcell. She also worked for Paul Frank, CPA of Purcell part time and Centri-lift Hughes in Pauls Valley for a few years. Ronnie and Nancy purchased Heart of Oklahoma Real Estate in 1985 and Nancy became the Broker/Owner of Heart of Oklahoma Real Estate. In 1997, they purchased a franchise and became Coldwell Banker Heart of Oklahoma Real Estate. She worked full time in real estate until her illness weakened her this summer.

Nancy's lineage traces back the birth of the United States with family fighting for our independence in the American Revolution. She joined DAR (the Daughters of the American Revolution) in 1975; in 2015 Nancy and Ronnie attended the 125th DAR Continental Congress and Nancy was Oklahoma's state regent. Nancy loved helping friends and family. As an example, for about 10 years Ronnie and Nancy would go over to Washington almost every Sunday morning. She would cook meals for her mother-in-law and family. From approx. 1977 to 2010 she hosted the Maynard Family Thanksgiving meal. She used this annual family event as an excuse to continue her home remodeling as the family grew and as a result she was often able to host more than 80 family members and more than 100 at the peak.

She was also very giving and often went out of her way to help others and worked many years with Habitat for Humanity and was on Habitat's board from 2010-2016. One of her most beloved and life-long friends told us of the real estate lady who drove them all over Purcell and even into pastures in her Lincoln Continental and then brought them to her home to cook a pork chop dinner for everyone. These California transplants were not sure what to make of Nancy at the time but quickly realized this was a genuine, caring family and they are friends of Ronnie and Nancy to this day.

She is survived by her husband, Ronnie; her son, James and his wife, Heidi; son, Than and his wife, Sally; her grandsons, Zach, Evan and Ryan; and her granddaughter, Alexandra and her husband, Nick.

Pearl Jean (PJ) (Cook) Shupert

Funeral services for Pearl Jean (PJ) (Cook) Shupert, 84, of Washington were held Friday, October 7, 2022 at the Wilson-Little Funeral Home Chapel. Services were under the direction of the Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Ms. Shupert passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 4, 2022, surrounded by her family.

PJ was born on June 4, 1938, in Oakfield, Wisc., and was the youngest of 10 children born to Charles William Cook and Pearl Zora (Farmer) Cook.

She married Ernest Marion Martin Jr., and they had three children, son, Ernest III and daughters, Linda and Michelle.

In 1976, she married John Thomas Shupert; they made their home in Elkhart, Ind. After his passing, she relocated to Oklahoma. There she enjoyed working at the University of Oklahoma in the athletic department cafeteria, caring for athletes. Her biggest accomplishment was her family; she was happiest when surrounded by them.

She is loved beyond measure and will be dearly missed.

PJ was preceded in death by her parents, John and Pearl Cook; her stepfather, Hank Warnke; her husband, John Thomas; her nine siblings; granddaughter, Staci Snyder; grandson, Phillip Smith, and many friends.

PJ is survived by her son, Ernest Martin III (Becky) of Lexington, Okla.; daughters, Linda Snyder (Bruce) of McNeal, Ariz., and Michelle Madden (Timmy) of Washington, Okla.; nine grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Online condolences may be made at wilsonlittle.com.

Pauline Laura Wilson-Hartley

Off to her greatest adventure of everlasting life, Pauline passed away peacefully Sunday, October 2, 2022, at Mercy Hospital Oklahoma City. For 91 years, she was loved and admired so much by her family and friends and blessed us with her quick wit, humor, and storytelling.

Pauline was born on July 29, 1931, in Colony, Oklahoma, the second oldest of seven children born to John Williams Christian and Laura Oma (Thornton) Christian. Like her siblings, Pauline grew up a hard-working farm girl, persevering through the challenging days of the dust bowl, the great depression, and world wars. Still, her work ethic, positive attitude, and enduring faith sustained and blessed her throughout her long life.

Pauline graduated from Purcell High School in 1949 where she played basketball, softball, and some tennis. She was very active in the FFA and became a reporter for girls' sports and the Home Economics Department. In retrospect, it was Pauline's sophomore year when she enrolled in accounting, geometry, shorthand, and typing that she found her niche in business, and education that would serve her well for many, many years.

Anyone who knew Pauline well could agree that she was a courageous and independent woman. Often she beamed when telling stories of finally getting registered and being able to vote as a woman in 1952; attending Draughn School of Business as a teenager fresh off the farm; becoming a nominee for Who's Who on American Campuses and becoming a member of Phi Kappa Phi honor society while attending Cameron University as a working mom; ultimately graduating with honors as a member of the Alpha Chi scholastic honor society from Central State University in 1980.

In 1954, Pauline was introduced to her superman Army veteran with size 16 shoes, Richard Dean Wilson of Watonga, Okla. They courted and laughed and danced until his monthly marriage proposals finally charmed her heart into a resounding 'yes' and they were wed in January 1955. The next 41 years together would be filled with long and distinguished careers at Kerr McGee for Pauline and Southwestern Bell/AT&T for Richard. Together they raised a brilliant engineer and golfer son, Stan, and a beautiful and talented daughter, Sandi. Pauline was so proud of their accomplishments but more so for the blessings of wonderful families and grandchildren.

As lifelong OU Sooner fans, she and Richard retired and spent eight fun years together as snowbirds at Tropic Star Resort in Pharr, Texas. Crowned as Valentine's King and Queen, they were both very socially active, teaching oil painting and stained-glass classes, and serving as worship leaders for the choir. Retiring early turned out to be a wise decision as Richard's life was taken by cancer much too soon in 1996, leaving Pauline with only precious memories and one-third of her life yet to be scripted.

After returning to Edmond in 1997, Pauline remained very active. She attended summer classes at the Oklahoma City University School of Law and began serving on the Allocation Committee of the United Way of Oklahoma City for the next two years. Then in 1998, a fellow snowbird and good friend from Tropic Star, Norman Hartley, called with a "golden years" proposal to become traveling companions. It was a great friendship that eventually did lead to marriage a year later. Their journeys took them to the Caribbean, Mexican Resorts, England, Scotland, and all across the USA, especially Norm's hometown of Smithville, Mo. Norm's final passport was stamped on February 8, 2009, when he collapsed and died from congestive heart failure. He was laid to rest next to his first love "Mollie" in Kansas City, Mo. At 6'8, Norm was a giant of a man and will always be remembered as a fun and adventurous soul who loved his family and friends.

In 2009, Pauline became a member of Quail Springs Baptist Church, working in the library and becoming very active with the Senior Adults Sunday School Class. For her 80th birthday in 2011, Pauline went flying, co-piloting a Cessna 150 two-seater over Edmond/Guthrie area with owner/pilot Glenn Crabtree. Sassy. Independent. Fearless. That was Pauline - daughter, sister, mother, spouse, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend.

Pauline Laura Christian Wilson-Hartley was preceded in death by her parents, John and Oma Christian; love of her life and husband, Richard Wilson; traveling companion and husband, Norm Hartley; and her oldest brother, Glen Christian.

Surviving is her son, Stan Wilson and wife, Gaye; and daughter, Sandi Stewart and husband, Mel, of Edmond, Okla.; two brothers, James "Sony" Christian and wife, Peggy, of Purcell and David Christian and wife, Norma Jean, of Lexington; three sisters, Ruth Morphew and husband, Phillip, of Eufaula, Janice Jones and husband, Kenneth, of Purcell and Norma Faye Bloodworth and husband, Charlie, of Purcell; grandchildren, Robert Maier and Brooke of Fulshear, Texas, Carli Stark and husband, John, of Oklahoma City, Matthew Stewart and wife, Lauren, of Edmond, Okla., and Andrew and wife, Jackie, of Edmond, Okla., and four beautiful great-granddaughters, Peyton and Reese Maier of Fulshear, Texas, and Roslyn and Evelyn Stark of Oklahoma City. Pauline was blessed to share in the lives of many nieces, nephews, and a host of other family members and friends. She simply adored her church family and especially her Adult Sunday School Class members. Her spirit, smile, and wisdom will be greatly missed and cherished by all!

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation Cancer Group, 825 N.E. 13th Street, Oklahoma City, OK 73104-5097.

Private Funeral Services are under the direction of Hahn-Cook/Street & Draper Funeral Directors.

Jeri Thomas

Jeri Thomas was born June 4, 1944 (and, as she was quick to add) two days before D-Day. She was taken home to be with the Lord on August 16, 2022, with her husband, Warren, close at her side.

Jeri's parents were Jack and Dorothy Jones, both of whom preceded her. Children born to Jeri and Johnny Horton were Darin Horton of Rush Springs and Destry Horton, a firefighter, who was fatally injured in a tragic fire in 2006.

In fact, allow me to share what Jeri wrote, somewhat prophetically, just two years ago.

"I miss my son Destry. It has been 14 years, and as most mothers would say after such a loss, I miss him every day and never forget his smile, hugs, sense of humor, an infectious laugh... and so very much more. His faith was first, his family second. He loved everyone, helped everyone and never missed an opportunity to show the love of Jesus. His youngest daughter McKenzie is in Heaven with him and I'm certain they are singing God's praises. Destry was Praise Leader in his church on the Sundays he was not at the firehouse. I believe in Jesus as my Lord and Savior, so I know I will see my son and granddaughter soon. God bless all firefighters and keep them safe."

Her loving and nurturing nature was indispensable to her mother (McMa, as she was affectionately known) and her father in helping to rear her four younger siblings, Steve, Janel, Betty Jean, and Justin. Anyone who truly knew her, knew that those qualities defined Jeri Thomas.

See if these resonate with you: loving unconditionally, generous, non-judgmental, a kind and sweet spirit, easily approachable, humble, grateful, and empathetic (defined as "the capacity to enter into and participate in another's feelings"). Do I hear an Amen?

Jeri graduated from Rush Springs High School and went on to complete her degree at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma. She then taught English Literature, including Shakespeare, at Norman High School. Driven by her business acumen and entrepreneurial spirit, Jeri began a life-long career in commercial real estate, ultimately starting her own company.

The dye had been cast. As a child, Jeri was Shirley Temple incarnate, stunningly beautiful – inside and out; as a teenager, she was Rush Springs pre-eminent Watermelon Queen (in other words, royalty in Rush Springs, Oklahoma) and that infectious, contagious beauty would continue right to the end of her life. She was beloved at MD Anderson Hospital, where she and Warren have practically lived in a small hospital room since February, 2022. The same was true with her neighborhood friends in Houston, just like her beloved church family in Lexington, Oklahoma.

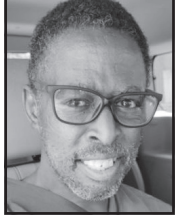

Jeri married Warren Thomas in December of 2000 at the First Baptist Church of Washington D.C., their absolute favorite part of the country. Anyone who knew them was aware of how in love and deeply committed Jeri and Warren were to each other and their blended family. They were bound by their commitment to their Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and His word, the Bible, which they read entirely every year of their marriage. They together read a chapter of the Proverbs nearly every night before they went to sleep. Warren would remind Jeri on or about the 31st of every month that she was the embodiment of the Proverbs 31 woman: she had an innate "sixth sense" mind for business, cared personally for the well-being of her employees just as she did her household; her children (and grandchildren) would rise up and call her blessed; and though obviously and profoundly beautiful, Jeri was forever humble and self-effacing when reminded of her beauty and tell how the Bible admonishes that "charm is deceitful and outward beauty is fleeting – BUT a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised." Warren readily acknowledges that any business and financial success attributed to him would not have been possible were it not for what the Bible refers to as their one flesh – with his partner and wife, Jeri.

Together with Warren, and after losing two sons and a granddaughter during their years of marriage, Jeri has temporarily left her devoted husband, Warren, and her dear family – just as the Lord would define family with the firm conviction that one day – yes one glorious day – there will be a reuniting of those we cherished and loved only to become separated for a season that given eternity is but for a short while. And that ever-present hope and confidence is what helps sustain us from day to day – especially when our loved ones' absence is so unspeakably painful and raw.

In addition to her husband, Warren, Jeri leaves behind son, Darin, of Rush Springs, four siblings and their spouses, two sons and a daughter from their larger, blended family, and numerous cherished grandchildren (who affectionately refer to her as 'ChiChi') and many nieces and nephews. Jeri's extended family includes nearly innumerable cousins and friends – most of whom would testify that she had a God-given gift for making them feel as though they were her favorite. Until we meet again, we will always love and miss you!

A Celebration of Jeri's Life will be held on October 22, 2022, at First Baptist Church, 900 E. Broadway St., Lexington, Oklahoma. If you plan to attend this event, please RSVP to jerithomascelebration@gmail.com by October 9, 2022.

Boost your indoor garden's beauty

Melinda Myers
For The Purcell Register

Whether your indoor garden has outgrown its location or you are looking to expand your garden, a bit of pinching, pruning or propagating may be the answer.

Grooming houseplants keeps your indoor garden looking its best and plants contained to the available space. You can use some of the trimmings to start new plants.

Give plants with long, leggy stems a pinch. Removing a small or large portion of the growing tip encourages the plant to form more branches and compact growth.

Pinching removes a growth hormone produced in the stem tip called auxin. This hormone encourages upward growth of the stem. Removing the stem tip reduces the auxin and allows more branches to develop along the stem.

A soft pinch removes just the uppermost portion of the stem with developing leaves and the stem tip. A hard pinch, more like pruning, removes the tip and several inches of the leafy stem. These stem pieces can be used to start new plants.

Some gardeners pinch with their fingers, but I prefer using sharp snips like Corona Tools ComfortGEL® micro snips with stainless steel blades that resist the buildup of plant residue or Corona bypass pruners that make a clean cut that closes quickly and looks better.

When pinching and pruning your houseplants make the cuts just above a set of leaves. The plant remains relatively attractive while you wait for new leaves and stems to grow. Avoid leaving stubs by making cuts elsewhere as these detract from the plant's appearance and can create entryways for insects and disease.

Houseplants can be propagated in several different ways. Avoid propagating patented plants protected by patent laws. These laws are designed to protect the investment of the plant breeder. Respecting patent laws allows companies to continue breeding improvements into plants for all of us to enjoy in the future.

Use leaf stem cuttings to start a variety of houseplants like inch plants, philodendron, pothos, dieffenbachias, dracaenas, jade plants and many more. Use a sharp knife, snips or bypass pruner to cut three- to six-inch-long pieces from firm, mature, non-woody stems.

Remove the lowest leaf or two that will be buried in the potting mix. This is where new roots will form. If you have had trouble rooting cuttings in the past, try using rooting hormone labeled for use on houseplants. It contains fungicides to fight disease and hormones to encourage root development.

Root cuttings in a small container filled with vermiculite or a well-drained potting mix. Make a hole in the mix, insert the cut end, and gently push the potting mix around the stem.

Loosely cover the potted cutting with a plastic bag left open at the top. This increases the humidity around the cutting to compensate for the lack of roots.

Set the container in a bright location out of direct sun for several weeks as roots develop.

Give the stem a gentle tug to see if roots have formed. Move the rooted cutting into a container filled with well-drained potting mix, place it in a location with the proper amount of sunlight and water as needed.

You'll be amazed at how a bit of grooming and propagating can perk up a tired indoor garden. Share or trade extra rooted cuttings with family and friends so each of you can grow your indoor garden and memories.

Threats made

Byars man facing four counts

A Byars man is jailed in lieu of $5,000 bond after prosecutors charged him with four counts of threatening to perform an act of violence.

Cody J. Campbell, 53, was ruled indigent.

According to an affidavit, Campbell was intoxicated when he went to his grandmother's house in Byars on September 20 and threatened to kill and rape the woman.

The grandmother called the McClain County Sheriff's Department and a deputy was dispatched.

The deputy found Campbell laying on his side in front of his grandmother's car.

The deputy arrested him and reported Campbell threatened to murder the officer while they were enroute to the jail.

He repeated the death threat to another deputy when they arrived at the jail

Campbell also allegedly made threatening comments to a detention deputy, according to the affidavit.

Unhappy patient

Man threatened PMH physician

An arrest warrant is outstanding for a Purcell man charged in McClain County District Court with threatening to perform an act of violence.

Terry Gray Jr., 45, went to the Purcell Municipal Hospital emergency room, asking to be admitted so he could rest.

The emergency physician,

Dr. Matthew Wood, told police he cursed the nurses during his assessment and while they administered an IV.

According to an affidavit, when Wood discharged Gray, the man became upset and threatened the doctor for lying to him.

Gray also reportedly threatened to blow the hospital up.

began operations. That violated a clause in the lease forbidding any sublet of the plant without the investment company's consent. The investment company had acquired a permit from the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality on May 16, 2016 and the permit was in good standing when Goldsby Meat Co., leased the plant. However, according to the lawsuit, Goldsby Meat Co., let the permit expire in 2021. When multiple citizens complained about Harker Meats Co., this spring, the DEQ inspected the plant and determined Harker Meats increased water usage to around 40,000 gallons a week and was using, without a permit, two surface impoundments and one subsurface. The DEQ reported a stream of blood was flowing from the facility to the ditch along State Highway 74. Further, there was a large amount of solids and vegetation in one of the impoundments. As a result of the inspection, DEQ fined the investment company for "unpermitted wastewater discharge and maintenance violations," according to the lawsuit. Despite this, Harker Meats continues to operate both unpermitted impoundments, the lawsuit states. During a subsequent June 9 visit by DEQ, unpermitted discharge was observed flowing into a neighboring pond. The lawsuit asks for an injunction barring the meat companies from operating a slaughtering and processing business at the plant. In a related small claims filing, the investment company reports it gave Goldsby Meat Co., three written notices terminating the lease when rent went unpaid from April 1, 2019 until Nov. 30, 2020. In addition, the action alleges the meat company failed to comply with USDA for an "egregious incident of inhumane handling." The meat company also failed to provide the investment company with proof of liability insurance, a requirement of the lease.

Defense wins championships The Warriors played dominating defense during their run to the title pitching three shutouts, including a no-hitter. "We had one error over three games," Lampkin said. "The defense played really well as a whole. The outfield played great and the infield took away run after run." The coach also bragged on senior catcher Tinley Lucas. "She makes 97% of the pitch calls herself and keeps the batters off balance," he said. "And Maggie is really, really good." They opened the tournament with a 6-0 win over Morris. Wood and Lucas were both 2-3. Lucas also had two RBIs. Emersyn Massey was 2-4 with two ribbies herself. Place had 10 strikeouts and no walks in the circle while giving up just two hits. "We were relaxed and confident going into the tournament but a little unsure of a couple of the teams (like Morris)," Lampkin said. "They didn't lack confidence."

ation that could give us some electricity," Lampkin said. "She got a base hit and it was special for her in her role and special for me as a dad." Lampkin's hit led to the first run of the game. Washington added another run in the sixth to take a 2-0 lead. Lampkin wouldn't be the only Warrior coach with an ear-to-ear grin in the game. Assistant coach Brad Lucas watched his daughters Tinley and Presley both hit homers in the seventh inning to help the Warriors blow the game wide open. "When the Lucas sisters homer in the same inning ... it was awesome," Lampkin said. Not to be overshadowed, Wood went 4-5 at the plate. Washington put up seven runs in the seventh to put the game away. They didn't even need all the offense though with Place dealing in the circle. She threw a nine-strikeout no hitter to make sure there would be no Leopard heroics.

Loveless tripled and Allison was 1-3 with an RBI. With the Warrior defense playing the way it was two runs proved to be more than enough to hoist another State trophy. "This season was just awesome," Lampkin said. "It's so hard to repeat and the two seasons were so different. Everyone thought we'd score all kinds of runs and we didn't. We won it with our defense." Washington finished the year 38-3.

However, the grants went to the top four applicants, all of which were for larger projects than what Purcell proposed. With grant funding out of the picture, Blue is seeking financial commitment from the community. And the clock is ticking. The parks board presented three options to the Purcell City Council. The quoted prices for all three are half-off through October 31. In other words, come November 1, the costs double. The current price tags are $158,574.46 for option 1, $285,947.66 for option 2 and $181,490.15 for option 3. Although all are on the table, there is support for option 3, Blue said. "All are good designs," he added. The council will have a special meeting later this month to determine how much the city is able to spare to keep the playground replacement on track. In the meantime, Blue is putting together a community fund raising plan. The first step consists of updating the department's website to include a link through which prospective donors can pledge money. The upgrade will also include graphics for each option. The community funding drive also solicits donations from civic organizations.

Brown's death and COVID. And he saw possibility. "I walked in the place and it seats 250," he said. "There were seven people holding that church together." When the small congregation learned who their visitor was, they lost little time in asking Paul to preach. He agreed and they liked what they heard. On Sunday, they offered the pulpit to Paul. The small congregation is already growing. Paul conducted a baptism last Sunday and there were 23 in the pews, including five visitors. "We are open for business," Paul said, extending an invitation to anyone searching for a Bible-based church home. "We're not into loud music," he said. "We sing the old songs and do things the old way. I preach from the Bible. I'm not giving my interpretation. I'm giving the word of God." Paul was raised in the church, but drifted from it for a time. In 1968, he volunteered for the Marines and a year later was in Vietnam. He served in the Corps until 1974. He and Pat have been married 54 years. Their son, Gary, lives in Broken Arrow and works at a casino. Daughter, Cynthia Higgebottom, works for a doctor and is moving from Pauls Valley to Norman. One grandson works for the Department of Corrections at the Lindsay hospital and another is a junior at the University of Oklahoma. A granddaughter plays basketball. Paul and Pat are commissioned home missionaries. Quite possibly, Johnson Road will be the church from which Paul will leave the clergy. But not quite yet. Not by a long shot. This Sunday he will preach on the calling. "Everyone has a calling, but not all respond to it," he said.

Defense rules supreme in 39-0 rout of Crooked Oak

John D. Montgomery
The Purcell Register

In their 39-0 rout of Crooked Oak last Friday night Washington's Warriors gained 521 yards on 46 offensive plays. Head coach Brad Beller was quick to point to the play of his offensive line paving the way for the skilled positions to do their jobs.

"Tanner Winlock graded out at 92 percent," Beller said. "Caleb Bruce continues to improve. He's been really consistent the last three games.

"Baylor Haynes and Wyatt McCauley are the two with the least amount of game experience, but they have played really well," the coach continued. "And Jordan Vanya is as consistent as they come."

Jaxon Hendrix and Major Cantrell combined to throw for 231 yards. Hendrix had a pair of passing touchdowns.

"It was good to see Major get out there in a very limited amount of action," Beller said.

Fall Break sets up Thursday night football

John D. Montgomery

Due to Fall Break, Purcell will join a bevy of Oklahoma High Schools to play on Thursday night.

The game at CCS kicks off at 7 p.m.

Head coach Tracy Scott said he doesn't think the Royals are as good as they were last year when they pinned a 38-17 loss on the Dragons.

"But they have Bai Jobe, kid who will play next year for the Michigan State Spartans. "He's a really good player who will play receiver on offense and defensive end on the other side of the ball.

"We'll have to account for him on both sides of the ball. We'll probably have to double team him to keep him from being in our backfield," Scott said.

Rush Springs scored again in the third quarter and once more in the fourth on a short field to take the lead for good.

Sunray Baptist Church

James and Pam Kyzer sang "Oh What a Savior" for the morning special. Brother John used Revelation 5:8-14 for his sermon "A New, Old Song." The central theme of Bible prophecy is Jesus Christ. These verses relates a prophetic vision that only Jesus can unleash. Only He was worthy to open the 7-sealed scroll. In response, a "new song" and worship breaks out telling the old story. It praises Jesus and tells of the redemption we find in Him. The redeemed, blood-brought group will come from every nation. There will be a time of unity and worshipping, basking in His glory. We should focus on and praise Jesus. The Gospel is the best news you can have. Following worship, most of the congregation stayed to enjoy the Pastor Appreciation Day Ladies Casserole Cookoff. Winning cooks were Sue McGehee, third, Mary Lou Ashley, second, and Faye Schmidt, first. Brother John's devotion was from Hebrews 10:24-25. He explained that a church is an assembly for a specific purpose - to worship. When we assemble with others we also perceive their needs and provoke them to do good works. We should love one another and strive to be better Christians. We are all connected by the blood of Christ. This coming Sunday, we will resume our evening service at 5 p.m. We will have our quarterly business meeting with snacks following. On October 22, there will be a district WMA meeting at Pleasant Hill in Blanchard. On October 23, we will be taking a special offering to benefit Life Word ministries. Join us for Sunday school, worship and all activities at Sunray Baptist Church. We are a small traditional church with a lot of friendly people. We are located at 2223 N. 9th Street in Purcell. October 16, 2022 is the twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time. During Ordinary Time, the Gospel focuses on the teachings and miracles of Christ during his time on earth. The Gospel reading is Luke 18:1-8. Verse 1: "Then he told them a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart." In verses 2-8, a judge said he had neither fear of God nor respect for any human person. However, a widow pestered him continually to give her justice against an enemy. The judge, partially to get her to stop bothering him but also to avoid her slapping or punching him, finally did give the widow her rights. Then Jesus asks the group this question: "If an unjust judge listens to repeated requests, do you not realize that God will "see justice done to his elect if they keep calling to him day and night even though he still delays to help them?" In last week's article, only one of 10 lepers who Jesus cured came back to thank Him. Jesus does not need us to tell him "Thank you" but we need to tell him. In the same way, God already knows what our needs are and is up to date on what is happening in our lives. Prayer is for our benefit. Prayer is to prepare our heart for what God wishes to give us. What we need is not always what we want, but God in his mercy gives us what we need. Since our lives should be about following Jesus, we need to keep the conversation (prayer) going. This helps us follow Jesus down the road of life. Remain consistent in prayer and do not give up when you do not get your desired result immediately. Remember your prayer is not to convince God of your point of view but to seek his will and be open to changing your own heart based on his guidance. Finally, if you have been praying for something for years, remember the widow's persistence and trust that God hears you and will answer in His time. Choose to adopt the Psalmist's attitude from Psalm

Our next Food Give Away will be this Saturday, October 15, from 12 to 4 p.m. Please pass this information on to anyone who may be hungry and low on food. It has been a couple of weeks since Hot Dogs in the Park, but we appreciate all of those individuals and businesses who contributed to the food and fellowship. We would also like to remind the honorees, those employees and first responders of our community, that we continually appreciate what they do, not just once a year. Next week will be our monthly Munch and a Movie. Please join us as noon for food, followed by the movie starting around 12:30 p.m. Pastor David will cook, so you won't need to bring your own food. The price will be $2 to cover the cost of the food. As always, the movie should be thought-provoking. I've had the verse about sowing and reaping in my mind for the past few weeks. From Galatians, Chapter 6, Verses 7 - 10, the Apostle Paul writes: "Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith." Even in the Old Testament, Job 4:8 tells us "As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap the same." Simply put, we can't do bad things to others and expect them to do good things to or for us. That's not the way the system works. God didn't make us with that end in mind. If we want good in our lives, we must give good to others. As John Wesley said, "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can; in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can." Not a bad way to live one's

Mental health and tobacco use among youth

The Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust (TSET) is creating awareness of the growing teen mental health and vaping issue with the launch of a new educational message from their Behind The Haze brand.

According to Mental Health America, approximately 54,000 youth in Oklahoma experienced at least one major depressive episode in the past year.

And a spring 2022 TSET survey of 275 Oklahoma teenagers showed that amongst past 30-day vape users, 57 percent cited stress, anxiety, depression and other mental health-related reasons for use.

Electronic cigarettes, or vapes, are known to contain extremely high amounts of nicotine, which the CDC says can harm the parts of the brain that control youths' attention, learning, mood and impulse control.

TSET's new youth vaping prevention ad, titled "Off," explains how vaping nicotine can worsen, not relieve, feelings of anxiety by breaking down the science behind its impacts.

Oklahoma teens can interact with the campaign online through digital and social media.

The goal is to prompt family conversations about the dangers of vaping and tobacco and encourage kids to make healthy lifestyle choices.

Behind The Haze is part of the TSET Healthy Youth Initiative — a statewide public health education campaign geared toward Oklahoma youth ages 13-18.

You can view "Off" and other youth tobacco prevention messages by visiting the TSET Healthy Youth Initiative website: TSETHealthyYouth.com.
