The Indian Territory Roundup Club presented Operation Christmas with a check just under $2,000 Monday after a fund-raiser barrel racing event last weekend.

They also donated a trailer load of toys, according to Operation Christmas Co-Manager Peggy Christian.

Roundup Club spokesman Butch Biby reported there were 120 barrel racers from around the state in the competition last Sunday at the Expo Center.

Biby expressed the club's appreciation for the assistance from the county commissioners in helping them put on the event that has been going on for almost a decade.

It's all in the magic

John D. Montgomery
The Purcell Register

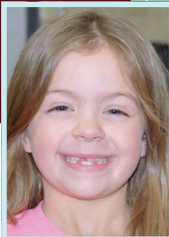

The Purcell Register went on the detective trail at Purcell Elementary recently trying to unlock the secret of how Santa gets around and what makes his reindeer have the ability to fly.

The question was posed to 11 first graders at PES with the common denominator being magic.

Vada King in Ms. Alloway's class said it was, "magic." When pressed about what kind of magic she said, "just regular magic."

Another member of Ms. Alloway's class, Layla Ponder, said Santa has a lot to do with it. "Santa shakes his jingle bells and it signals them to know to fly,"

Lynn family barely gets under ground in time last week

John D. Montgomery

Tim and Missi Lynn were awakened December 13 by an app on her phone alerting of impending severe weather.

"I turned on the TV and Michael Armstrong said it was a really intense storm," Missi said recalling her actions at 5:30 that morning.

"My husband and I discussed if we should wake up the kids," Missi continued.

Turns out it was a good thing they did wake up their 11 and eight year old children.

It was another blessing for them going straight into their basement and not trying to get to their storm shelter outside the house.

"It was less than a minute after we got to the basement before it happened," Missi said. "It just lasted about a minute but it seemed like 10. Within a minute of us closing the basement door everything was gone."

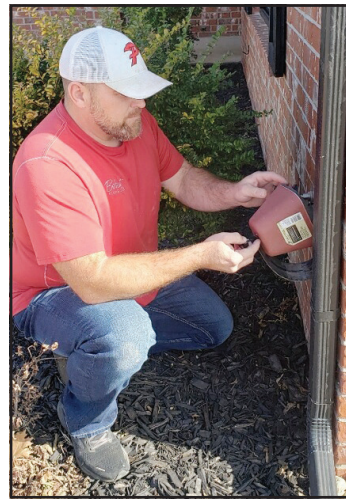

"Once we knew we were safe we started calling family to see if anyone else was hit," she said.

Their house, a shop and two of their three vehicles were destroyed. Missi said Tim's vehicle hardly had any damage at all.

"We salvaged nothing," she said. "We are going to try to salvage our dining room table. God put that tornado on my house for a reason. If it had been a half mile back toward town there would have been people killed."

"Only three people that I know of went to the cellar," Missi said. "Everyone else

A New Year, a New Beginning

By Bryan Golden

The New Year is a time of resolutions. It's a time when people commit to making a change in their life. Losing weight, changing jobs, saving money, making money, a new relationship, getting in shape, going back to school, or giving up smoking, are just some of the goals people set for themselves on January 1st.

Although it's possible for anyone to make a change or a new start, it takes determination, commitment, and persistence. A new goal must be your own. You have to really want it.

Without a burning desire, your motivation will fade quickly. It's virtually impossible to make a change due to external pressure.

You may agree to what someone else wants you to do, but it's very difficult to succeed without an internal drive. So, in order to successfully make a change or reach a goal, you have to make sure it's what you really want.

Don't start off on the wrong foot by making excuses as to why you will probably fail. If you don't truly believe you can do it, you won't.

People who do this will say something like, "I'll try to do it, but..." Or you may hear, "I tried before and it didn't work but I'll give it another go." Before you begin, make sure the only things you are telling yourself are, "I can," "I will," and "I will do whatever it takes."

A new beginning is a three-step process. You have to first know what you want, formulate a plan to achieve it, and then take the necessary action to get it. Setting a specific goal is essential. The more detailed the better. If you want to lose weight, how much and by when? If you want a new job, what will it be and how much will it pay? If you want to save money, how much and how often?

Next, you need a plan. Just like your goal, your plan must be as detailed as possible. If you are going to lose weight, what will be your menu each week? Are you going to go on a specific diet, cut out certain foods, or just eat less?

For finding a new job, what will be your strategy? Do you need a new resume? Will you look on line, in the classifieds, use an employment agency, network, cold call, or all of these?

If you want to save more money, in what areas will you cut back? Do you know where your money is going? Have you created a budget?

You want your plan to be doable. The smaller the steps are, the more likely you will be to succeed. Any time you feel a step is too big, break it down further. It doesn't matter how small each step is so long as you keep going and never give up.

Losing 20 pounds may feel overwhelming, but dropping two pounds a month doesn't

FCC issues public call to review broadband data by Jan. 13

Gail Ellis

Agricultural Communications

The Federal Communications Commission has updated its national broadband service map with a detailed list of internet providers available at both household and business locations.

The Oklahoma Broadband Office strongly encourages the public to review the map for accuracy and submit challenges to the data if needed by Jan. 13, 2023.

Challenge information collected through January 13 will be used to determine each state's share of the $42.45 billion provided by the Broadband Equity, Access and Deployment Program. Brian Whitacre, Oklahoma State University Extension specialist in agricultural economics, said challenge responses will be critical to the amount of grant money Oklahoma receives for broadband upgrades.

"The Oklahoma Broadband Office expects that many eligible locations are not accurately depicted on the map, including agricultural facilities that could use broadband," said Whitacre, who also serves as chair of the Oklahoma Broadband Expansion Council.

The FCC broadband map provides service details for homes, businesses, schools, churches, libraries or any other location where internet service is available. Type in the address and check the location's provider information. Select Availability Challenge if the service listed is not offered or Location Challenge if the data is missing or incorrect.

Broadband map users should note there are two options listed for service at a location: Fixed and Mobile (cellular) Broadband.

Any location on the map that currently does not have access to a fixed connection with speeds of at least 25 megabits per second download and three megabits per second upload will be classified as unserved and will be targeted for improvement.

"The current version of the map shows that over 98 percent of all Oklahoma locations had access to these speeds," said Whitacre. "I hope Oklahomans with poor broadband service will take advantage of this chance to document their situation."

The FCC's urgent request for public review of the broadband map will determine the reliability of current broadband service and activate billions of dollars in new federal funding to improve the state's high-speed network.

FAPC predicts food trends on the menu for 2023

Kirsten Hollansworth
Extension Educator

Tastes change—often quickly and sometimes drastically. It's exciting to learn about the next big thing in the food industry. Last year, interactive foods and celebrity food collaborations were all the hype as numerous brands hopped on the bandwagon.

Whether it's an innovative cooking method or a convenient way to enjoy bread and butter, upcoming trends can be hard to predict, but creativity is always on the rise.

Avocado oil and butter boards are on the menu for 2023, as the Oklahoma State University Robert M. Kerr Food and Agricultural Products Center highlights popular food trends for the upcoming year.

Andrea Graves, business planning and marketing specialist, said there is a lot of potential for new markets in the food industry.

"Food manufacturers should pay attention to food trends for it can open up new markets for their products and gain new customers," Graves said. "Staying informed has the potential to make them a lot of money."

Check out the top 10 trends for 2023, according to FAPC:

Steam Ovens: Steam ovens, also known as combination or smart ovens, are used to preserve moisture and nutrients of food without the need for oil or butter. Cooking with steam is a healthy alternative to a microwave and a great way to prepare just about anything.

Butter Boards: It's no surprise charcuterie boards are a crowd-pleasing and top-ranked appetizer, but meats and cheeses aren't the only popular ingredients. Butter boards are the latest trend where a layer of softened butter is spread on a wooden tray. The layer of butter is then garnished with garlic, spices and herbs. Bread is served alongside the butter.

Pasta Alternatives: Chickpeas, lentils and pulses are becoming more popular in plant-based pasta recipes. Low-carb dishes such as spaghetti squash, zucchini pasta and sweet potato pasta are health-conscious pasta alternatives.

Food Delivery Robots: Food technology has dramatically changed the food industry. Before the pandemic, food delivery robots were less popular, but with an increase in contactless food delivery demands, robots are becoming more common for delivering food across college campuses and cities. In 2023, delivery services will be challenged to adapt and provide sustainable solutions that reduce waste and pollution.

Dates: As a rich source of protective plant compounds, dates are showing up more and more in commercial products and as a staple ingredient. Enjoy dates as a snack, on their own, or find them used as a natural sweetener in the form of syrups and sauces. Food influencers are quick to share recipes of chocolate-covered or stuffed dates, and the creativity will continue in the new year.

Adventurous Dining: After cooking at home throughout the pandemic, everyone is relishing the fact that indoor restaurant dining is back. A massive rise in dining that offers an experience is expected in the coming year. Dinner theater restaurants are one experience that can spice up a meal.

Pickle-Flavored Foods: When exploring a grocery store, it is common to find a variety of pickle-flavored snacks, ranging from potato chips to candy. Some of the most dill-icious pickle-flavored foods include pickle pistachios, salsa and popcorn seasoning. In 2023, more products are predicted to hit the shelves for pickle lovers everywhere.

Meal Subscriptions: While the food delivery trends are constantly changing, food delivery subscription services are one trend that will keep growing for years to come. Delivery subscriptions are popular because they offer convenience for busy families and provide a variety of choices with hundreds of meal options. In a competitive market, prices are becoming more affordable.

Avocado Oil: The nutty flavor and buttery texture of avocado oil has made it a staple in pantries for years. As an alternative to olive oil, avocado oil is finally going mainstream in packaged products across the board. In 2023, this household staple is making its way into salad dressings, mayo, chips and more.

Dirty Soda: Carbonated drinks have become a craze on social media and are predicted to fizz into the new year. The trend originates in Utah and consists of soda, cream and flavored syrup or some type of sweetener.

There are endless ways to customize this sweet drink to your liking, and shops specializing in dirty soda are popping up in states like Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona.

FAPC, a part of OSU's Division of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, helps to discover, develop and deliver technical and business information that will stimulate and support the growth of value-added food and agricultural products and processing in Oklahoma.

The Twelve Days of Christmas

Many people believe the Twelve Days of Christmas is a song about the 12 days leading up to Christmas Day. Actually the Twelve Days of Christmas begins on Christmas Day and ends on the evening of The Epiphany on January 5.

It was written in the late 1700s when there was extreme religious persecution and was written as a catechism song that could be sung without fear.

Each verse starts with "my true love gave to me." "My true love" is a reference to God and the "me" in that verse is in reference to anyone who was baptized.

Starting on December 25:

Day 1: The partridge in a pear tree represents Jesus.

Day 2: The two turtles doves represent the Old Testament and the New Testament.

Day 3: The three French hens symbolize faith, hope and love.

Day 4: The four calling birds represent the four Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

Day 5: The five golden rings represent the first five books of the Old Testament, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy.

Day 6: The six geese a-laying represent the six days of creation.

Day 7: The seven swans a-swimming represent the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, prophesy, serving, teaching, exhortation, generosity, leading, mercy/compassion.

Day 8: The eight maids a-milking represent the eight Beatitudes, Matthew 5:3-10.

Day 9: The nine ladies dancing represent the nine fruits of the spirit, love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Day 10: The ten lords a-leaping are the Ten Commandments.

Day 11: The eleven pipers piping represent the eleven faithful Apostles, Luke 6:14-16.

Day 12: The twelve drummers drumming symbolize the twelve points of the Apostles Creed.

Purcell's Lights From the Heart at Chandler Park will be open nightly until Saturday, December 31, from 5:30-10 p.m. nightly.

Over two miles of lights are available to drive through.

Admission is free, but donations are appreciated.

Merry Christmas to all! Santa is going to feel right at home this weekend with the temperatures. Gonna feel like the North Pole around these parts.

I saw a wonderful display of helpfulness and volunteerism this past week after the tornado. Neighbors helping neighbors and folks helping total strangers. What a wonderful spirit of camaraderie in Wayne, America, for sure.

Medal appreciation

“This is all about Henry Nolatubby,” Lindsey said. “I was there blessing the steel because he is Chickasaw. We were giving notice to our creator to put power into the metal.”

Pfc. Nolatubby was among those killed aboard the USS Arizona. A Chickasaw and U.S. Marine, he is recognized as being the first First American killed during World War II. Nolatubby’s remains have not been recovered from the USS Arizona wreckage.

Dressed in Chickasaw regalia, Lindsey sang stomp dance songs devoted to warriors as the steel was placed into a crucible for melting.

“During the blessing, I was singing songs we stomp dance to,” Lindsey said. “This included a song in honor of our warriors. It is our own song. We have sung it for thousands of years. I was singing as a prayer and blessing.”

What remains of the battleship is considered hallowed ground. The USS Arizona was among nearly 20 vessels sunk or badly damaged in the attack that propelled America’s participation in WWII.

In total, more than 2,400 Americans died during the attack on Pearl Harbor. An additional 1,000 were wounded. Of those lost, 1,177 were crew members of USS Arizona. The bodies of many crewmen were never recovered.

Officials decided the USS Arizona would remain where it sank, serving as both a funeral and memorial site for those who died that day. The U.S. National Park Service cares for the wreck of the USS Arizona.

Ed McGrath, executive director of the Lauren F. Bruner USS Arizona Memorial Foundation, learned the story of Pfc. Nolatubby while researching individual crewmembers serving on the battleship. Leadership within the USS Arizona Memorial Foundation decided the ship’s connection to First Americans and WWII deserved recognition.

“Henry’s story needs to be told throughout all of America, which is what we will do through the donations for the Medal of Freedom,” McGrath said. “Our foundation wants to be able to explain to young people that there was a First American aboard the USS Arizona. He gave his life so Americans can enjoy and exercise their freedoms every day.”

After much discussion, the USS Arizona Memorial Foundation concluded the best way to honor Pfc. Nolatubby, along with other First Americans, was to invite a Chickasaw Nation representative to bless the steel used to cast all USS Arizona Medals of Freedom.

“The Chickasaw Nation is respectful of its heritage and is respectful of Henry and his service aboard the USS Arizona,” McGrath said. “I think the Chickasaw Nation realizes Henry, along with the other service members aboard the

The foundry that cast the steel was selected based on its ability to use a smelting process that combined Arizona steel with stainless steel, which ensures the steel will never rust again.

“We started the blessing ceremony at 5 a.m. when they lit the furnace,” McGrath said. “It lasted most of the morning, ending just before noon. Jesse Lindsey is one of the best-known resources the Chickasaw Nation utilizes. This isn’t just because of his cultural dancing, but also because of his heart and the way he embraces his culture.”

The USS Arizona Medal of Freedom is one of many projects of the USS Arizona Memorial Foundation. The Medal of Freedom can be ordered as a donation to the foundation, and proceeds will be used to create an educational app for high schools throughout America and Canada.

The Medal of Freedom is available for purchase at www.ussarizonamedaloffreedom.org.

Chickasaw Marine among the fallen sailors aboard USS Arizona

Pfc. Nolatubby was 19 years old when he died protecting his country. He is acknowledged as the first First American to be killed in WWII.

“It was a privilege to have Jesse Lindsey come to bless the USS Arizona steel,” McGrath said. “I asked Jesse personally to present the Medal of Freedom to Governor Anoatubby on behalf of the Chickasaw Nation. Jesse is interested in honoring Henry.

“We want the Chickasaw people to be aware of Henry Nolatubby. He is an American hero, U.S. Marine and a Chickasaw warrior who came from their nation. This is something that should be shared and passed down from one generation to another,” McGrath said.

According to research provided by USS Arizona Memorial Foundation, Nolatubby grew up in Maysville, Oklahoma. He graduated high school in 1939 from Chilocco Indian Agriculture School, a noted Indian boarding school located on the Oklahoma and Kansas border north of Newkirk, Oklahoma. He originally joined the National Guard, only later to enlist in the Marine Corps. Nolatubby was sent to San Diego for basic training.

After additional training, Pfc. Nolatubby was stationed aboard the USS Arizona. Survivors of the USS Arizona recount many sailors and Marines already at their guns when “quarters” sounded, sending each man to his battle station.

“With Henry Nolatubby being a member of the Marine Detachment aboard USS Arizona, Lauren Bruner believed that Henry was helping to man one of the 5-inch guns directly below Lauren Bruner’s battle station,” McGrath said. “Our research shows that Henry made it above decks. It was about 14 minutes from the start of the attack until the Arizona blew up.

“The U.S. Marines who were manning the Arizona’s guns put themselves on the front lines. Marines are tough men and women. Every man was fighting for his life,” McGrath said.

While he could not make out individuals, Bruner relayed that the section of 5-inch guns aboard the USS Arizona manned by Marines — where Nolatubby was stationed — was firing at Japanese planes when the bomb hit that exploded and sunk the ship.

The U.S. set headstones for those missing in action or buried at sea at Fort Bliss National Cemetery, El Paso, Texas. Pfc. Nolatubby’s name is listed on Tablets of the Missing, National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, USS Arizona Memorial.

Maintaining alleys

From: Code Enforcement
We will now be enforcing the City of Purcell Ordinances in regards to maintaining the alleys.
It is the responsibility of the homeowner and or renter to maintain from the curb to the center of the alley. You are required to keep mowed any grass, weeds or similar vegetation from the curb or edge of roadway to the center of the alley way.
This includes keeping trees trimmed, brush and limbs removed. Vehicles, trailers, tractors etc. are not allowed to be parked in the alley.

seem too bad. If you keep at it for 10 months, you will reach your goal. Saving $3000 might appear beyond reach, but cutting back $9 a day on family spending is manageable.
Finally, you must take action. The best goals and greatest plans will go nowhere without action. The reason you divided your plan into small sections is so it would be easy to take action, one day at a time.

All you have to do is keep going, until you achieve your goal.

Winter has many birds searching for food. Lend a helping hand by starting, continuing, or expanding your bird-feeding

Invite songbirds to your winter garden efforts.

If you are not able to plant a shepherd’s crook in the ground to hang your feeder, look for other options. Sturdy tree branches, hooks and supports used for summer hanging baskets, and deck railings are a few possibilities.

Recycle your Christmas tree into a bird shelter and feeder after the holidays. Move it outdoors and decorate it with slices of oranges, strands of cranberries, and other songbird treats.
Place bird feeders within three feet and no more than 30 feet away from your home to reduce the risk of deadly window collisions. Further reduce the risk by hanging streamers in front of the windows or placing decals on the windows.
Select locations with nearby trees and shrubs provide songbirds with a quick escape from predators. Avoid low-growing shrubs that provide cover for outdoor cats that kill over a billion songbirds each year.
Avoid excessively windy, wet, or otherwise exposed areas that may discourage birds from visiting your feeders. Provide a bit more shelter from the elements by fastening an evergreen bough above the feeder.
Add a source of water to support and attract a wide variety of birds. Those in colder areas will need a bubbler, heater, or aerator to prevent the water from freezing. As always, it is important to keep your bird bath clean.

Purchase quality birdseed mixes. These may cost more but contain a higher percentage of seeds the birds like to eat. This means more quality seed for each dollar spent. Many cheaper brands fill their mixes with milo, oats, and wheat that the birds tend to discard in favor of more desirable seeds in the mix.
Use a variety of seeds and feeders to attract a diverse group of birds. And don’t forget about ground feeders like juncos, quails, and mourning doves.
Black oil sunflower seeds are a favorite of cardinals, buntings, chickadees, finches, grosbeaks, jays, juncos, nuthatches, titmice, and woodpeckers. They are also a favorite of squirrels. Install squirrel baffles if you don’t want these critters devouring all your bird seed. Or use safflower seeds instead to keep cardinals, grosbeaks, finches, doves, and sparrows happy instead of the squirrels.

Nyjer thistle is a favorite of finches, goldfinches, siskins, and buntings. Purchase fresh seed and use a feeder that keeps it dry. Finches and others will tend to avoid stale and wet Nyjer thistle seed.
White millet is another popular seed and a favorite of ground feeders such as juncos, siskins, and towhees. You will also find cardinals, finches, grosbeaks, and sparrows feasting on them.
Nuts and cracked corn attract Jays, woodpeckers, nuthatches, and brown creepers. Mix them with other seeds or include a specially designed nut feeder in your landscape.
Suet is an excellent food for woodpeckers, nuthatches, chickadees, and jays. You may even find other birds like wrens and cardinals visiting your suet feeders.

Help the birds find new sources of food by sprinkling some seed on the ground near the feeders. If birds dine on the scattered seed but still don’t visit the feeders, keep leading them closer with additional seed.
Keep your feeders clean and filled so the birds know there is a reliable source of food. If your feeders go empty, it may take a few days to attract them back to your yard.
Evaluate your existing landscape and look for opportunities for adding new plants that provide food, shelter, and nesting spaces for birds. Creating a more bird-friendly landscape helps increase the number and variety of winged visitors. Their presence adds color and motion to the winter landscape and watching them will help lift your spirits.

Obituaries

Leah Marie Walck

Leah Marie Walck died December 14, 2022, in Norman, Oklahoma, at the age of 65 years 6 months 10 days. Funeral services were held Tuesday, December 20, 2022, at the Wadley's Funeral Chapel. Interment followed at Washington Cemetery, entrusted to the care of Wadley's Funeral Service. Online condolences may be made, and service livestreamed at www.wadleysfuneralservice.com.

Leah was born June 4, 1957, in Altus, Oklahoma to Archie Lee and Alta Sue (McFarland) Holloway. At the age of 3, Leah's family moved to Washington where Leah graduated from school in 1975.

She worked as a scrub-tech for a few years while starting her family, and then continued her education becoming a Licensed Practical Nurse. Leah was an amazing nurse, and has worked in every aspect of health care, but most recently for the Delta Head Start program.

Growing up, Leah was Rodeo Queen and Round Up Club Queen. She enjoyed fly fishing, planting trees and flowers, and "Glamping." Leah was a people person with a big heart and loved fiercely and unconditionally but would set you straight in a second when needed. She loved from behind the scenes, never asking for anything in return or any recognition.

Leah was a woman of words, who enjoyed writing poetry, and was proud of her native heritage and loved her chickens. She was a collector of antiques, eclectic things and loved the old ways. In the last few years, she started painting ceramics, and was generally up for any adventure.

Leah and her son, Colt, were inseparable and went everywhere together, no matter if they were fighting or not. Her family was the most important part of her life, especially her grandbabies. School functions, sporting events, no matter what, she was always there for them. Leah also enjoyed cooking or frying, baking, and being out on the water. She was the rock to so many people, with her grit, her moxie and her warrior heart. For all those that knew Leah, her legacy is one of unconditional love and strength.

Leah was preceded in death by her father, Archie Holloway; her brother, Tommy Holloway and her grandparents.

She is survived by her mother, Alta Sue Holloway of Purcell; her son, Dustin Beaver and wife, Crystal, of Norman; her daughter, Cara Loveless and fiancé, Mike Nelson, of Washington; her son, Colt Beaver of Washington; her daughter, Courtney Loveless and fiancé, Paul Ayers, of Washington; her grandbabies, Mackenzie, Brooke, Allee, Ellie, Presley and Sawyer; her siblings, Lucretia Harper of Purcell, Natalie Hirsch and husband, Steve, of Washington, Terry Holloway and wife, Judy, of Purcell and Angela Edmondson and husband, Steve, of Norman; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Fred Olen Wells

Fred Olen Wells, 71, of Washington, Oklahoma, passed away on December 13, 2022, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The son of Fred Ownell Wells and Lawanda June (McCool) Wells, he was born September 17, 1951, in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Outside of music, he had a deep love for his late wife, Debbie Gayle (Miles) Wells. Olen had a habit of writing her notes every single day.

In his spare time, enjoyed being outside when he was able to be, watching game shows on TV, enjoyed sports, and loved his Carl's Jr. breakfast. Olen will be deeply missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Debbie Gayle (Miles) Wells, his parents, Fred Ownell Wells and Lawanda June (McCool) Wells, and father-in-law, Charles Miles.

was just laying in bed and didn’t think it was that bad.

The storm didn’t even damage the power lines that were going to their house.

“Some of our debris was on the power line but the lines were fine,” she said.

A light drizzle followed the tornado.

“It wasn’t a real heavy rain,” Missi said. “The kids are doing pretty good. They don’t like going up there (to their house) and looking at it. But they are pretty remarkable for what they went through.”

For the time being Tim, Missi and the two kids are living with her parents Bob and Fonda Blackwell.

The Lynns are going to set up a rental home near their home and are discussing where to rebuild.

“We’re tossing the idea around,” Missi said. “One reason to rebuild back on the same spot is because of the basement that saved our lives. There was just no time to make it outside to the cellar.”

A GoFundMe account has been set up at First United Bank called “Tim and Missi Lynn and their children.

“We had a ton of clothing and monetary donations,” Missi said. “Food has been dropped off. We live in the best community. I’m convinced of that,” she concluded.

Wrap:

racing event included Bill Johnson Construction, McClain Bank, Sheehy Signs, Zeck Motor Co., Ted Cox, Comanche Construction, KD Arnold Trucking, Windy Chevrolet, First United and Bravo’s Mexican Grill.

Mrs. Christian, who has worked tirelessly for Operation Christmas for the past 30 years, said they handed out 195 food baskets this year and dished out presents to 692 needy children.

“The most number of food baskets we’ve donated is 263. The lowest number was 161 last year,” Mrs. Christian told The Purcell Register this week.

One group Operation Christmas really helps is grandparents raising grandchildren.

“There are a lot of them,” Mrs. Christian said.

Operation Christmas is a strictly volunteer organization with no paid positions that has been in existence for over 35 years, Mrs. Christian reports.

Christian reported that back in the day, the late Linda Edge organized a bunch of volunteers to get Christmas to families working with the Department of Human Services, the Salvation Army and Delta Community Service.

Edge, who was the forerunner of the current operation, was the toy chairman and Darrell Ford was a board member.

“Darrell is the last of the originals,” Mrs. Christian said.

“The first year I had a budget of $5 per toy for each child,” Mrs. Christian recalled.

“We had a charge account at Walmart and would pay it down as donations came in. Oh how we have grown.”

Thanks to a major donator, Operation Christmas now has a nest egg to fall back on but Mrs. Christian says the small donations are the bread and butter of the entire operation.

“We couldn’t make it without the $25 and $30 donations,” she confirmed. “And the help we get from places like the Wayne Schools, home schoolers and retired people is vital.”

Mrs. Christian reports about 40 people volunteer to help every day.

Food stores in town help feed the hungry volunteers. Mrs. Christian said among those are Walmart, Cash Saver, Sonic, McDonalds, Papito’s, Jo’s Pizza and Wastewater Solutions Septic Services.

“We have food drives in Wayne, Washington, Newcastle and Purcell,” she said.

“We have schools and churches helping to take care of families and mainly their children.

“And the cost of everything has gone up,” Mrs. Christian said. “The hams used to cost $10 and now they are $12. We will start shopping the day after Christmas and shop all year long. We only go where they are having a sale. We even get calls from people when they are going to have a sale.”

McClain County has provided a trailer to Operation Christmas for storage.

“We appreciate all the help from everyone,” Mrs. Christian said.

Magic:

she confirmed.

Representing Mrs. Haynes’ class were Nate Scrivner and Delanie Wartchow.

Nate said Santa pulls the string that is on his sleigh and that’s what makes them go.

“They go really fast and really high with the presents on the sleigh. He lives at the North Pole,” Nate said.

Delanie said the reindeer are powered by people being nice to each other.

“Giving out kindness helps the reindeer grow.”

She estimated the sleigh and reindeer travel about 25 m.p.h. and fly “really high.”

From Mrs. Brown’s class were Raegan Ward and Nick Smith.

Raegan said Santa has a secret weapon he uses to propel the reindeer through the night sky.

“He has a magic wand he keeps in his car,” she said. “He takes it out and waves it and that makes them fly. They go really fast and very high.”

Nick was quick with his answer. “It’s magic dust,” he said straight away. Nick estimated the reindeer fly at a pace of 10 m.p.h. at about 100 feet off the ground.

Hayes Pruitt and Karter Wilhoit represented Mrs. Epperson’s class. Both agreed it is magic that makes them go but they did vary just a bit on their speed and height off the ground.

Hayes said they go 100 m.p.h. at 96 feet off the ground while Karter said they travel at 70 m.p.h. at a height of 102 feet.

Two students from Mrs. Wilkins’ class, Thomas Montgomery and Landry Perigo put in their two cents about the talented Caribou.

Thomas reports the magic comes from Santa’s sleigh.

“They go 70 m.p.h. at 50 feet off the ground,” Thomas said.

Landry said, “They fly at about 15 m.p.h. about 12 feet up.”

JJ Franco, also out of Mrs. Brown’s room, said the reindeer fly at 50 m.p.h. at the 100 feet level.

“I think there is special flying dust that comes from Santa’s workshop,” JJ said.

Warrior girls ranked No. 4 heading into Christmas break

Both teams look to polish their games before January

JohnDennyMontgomery
The Purcell Register

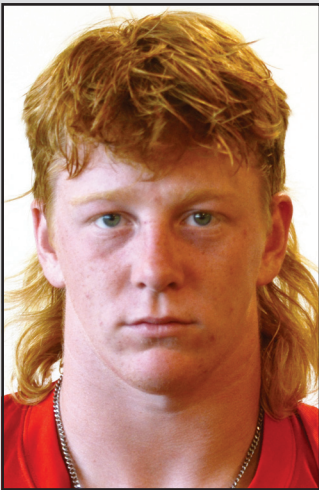

The Washington girls basketball team defeated Lexington last Tuesday, 76-24. They continue their aggressive play on the court as they land at the No. 4 spot in the Class 3A rankings. “We’re the aggressor in our games,” said head coach Kale Simon. “We’re sharing the ball and winning the right way. It’s not about winning but how we’re winning.” Breanna Lindert led all scorers with 19 points in the game. She was joined in double figures by Preslee Johnson (15) and Rielyn Scheffe (13). Simon is happy with the way his team is playing but will continue to develop his team over the break.

“We were sharp (against Lexington) and did things that translated into the long term,” he said. “I’m talking to them about habits we’re creating. They’re taking ownership of our system and our goals.” Washington hosted Guthrie Tuesday night and will scrim-

“That was a great start for our team,” head coach Roger Raper said of the 6-0 start. Hayden Ice led a trio of double figure scoring players with 15 points followed by Malachi Evans with 12 and Kylen DeFreeze with 11. Raper had seven other players figure into the scoring.

Purcell jumped on the Wolves early leading 13-4 after the first quarter and 28 to 11 at halftime. The Dragons poured it on in the second half outscoring the Wolves 37-18, including 25 points in the final period. “I was really proud of how we finished,” Raper said. “We were focused and

Bulldogs on break

Lexington will host Lindsay on January 3

The Purcell Register

The Lexington Lady Bulldogs were in Wynnewood for the Savage Invitational. They kicked off the tournament with a 69-22 win over Crooked Oak. They dropped their second game, 60-46, to Lone Grove. Their final game was a 56-49 win over Wynnewood.

Crooked Oak

Scoring was hot from the tip with the Lady ‘Dawgs notching 29 first-quarter points to Crooked Oak’s two.

Lexington added 23 more in the second and held a 52-10 halftime lead.

They cruised to a 69-22 win behind Maddie Manuel’s 16 points. Ten girls scored in the win including Addi Lippel with 12 and Natalie Dickson with 10.

Lone Grove

The Lady ‘Dawgs started slow in the their loss to Lone Grove.

Rylee Beason had Lexington’s five points in the first quarter.

More girls got going in the second as Lexington outscored Lone Grove and narrowed the gap. The Lady Longhorns were up 26-23 at the break. Beason and Hardy had two threes each.

The third quarter was more of the same but it’s the fourth quarter when Lone Grove opened up and pulled away for the win.

Beason led Lexington with 13 points while Lippel was also in double figures with 11.

Wynnewood

In their final game of the tournament, Lexington faced host Wynnewood and won a 56-49 contest.

Lippel was the lone Lady ‘Dawgs in double figures with 14. Beason and Abby Sample each added nine.

Washington

Last Tuesday Lexington was in Washington where they dropped a district game, 76-24.

Dickson led the team with nine points.

Scoring was scarce as Washington’s defense was stifling. Lexington’s only points in the final stanza was off of free throws.

The Lady Bulldogs are back on the court on January 3 hosting Lindsay.

Washington was 6-0 as of press time.

Boys

The Class 3A No. 15 Warrior boys drilled Lexington 87-31 last Tuesday.

They led 17-4 after the first quarter before they blew the barn doors off with a 36-point second quarter.

“We were able to pressure the ball really well to create turnovers,” head coach Trevor Smith said. “We were scoring in transition and playing really well together, sharing the ball.”

The Warriors created 20-25 turnovers and used their press to extend the lead.

“It was the home opener and they were excited to play at home after going on the road the first five games,” Smith said. “It was a good home opener.”

The Warriors had 13 players score in the game.

“A lot of guys were able to score it,” Smith said. “Seth Bunch had a career high with 15 points. Cash Andrews had a career high too with 23.”

Washington will host two scrimmages over the break.

The first is on Dec. 29 against Anadarko.

“They’re a good team and ranked No. 12 in 4A,” Smith said.

Then on New Year’s Eve Dickson and Elk City come to town.

Washington is 4-3.

Dragons:

played unselfishly the whole night.

“We has solid play from Malachi Evans, Hayden Ice, Lincoln Eubank and Kylen DeFreeze. They all had really nice games.

“Eubank had some really nice passes and DeFreeze scored with the strength of his game, the midrange jump shot,” the coach said.

Evans and Ice controlled the game from their point guard and post area respectively.

“We have lots of room for improvement as we have only had a full roster in two of our six games,” Raper said. “Overall, I am very proud of our guys.”

Coach Toney Cooper’s Dragons were slow out of the gate finding themselves down 9-4 at the end of the opening quarter.

But, they found their groove in the second frame and took a one-point lead into the halftime locker room, 23-22.

Led by Kenna Esparza’s 14 points, Purcell iced the game away in the final stanza, 23-15 to post the 52-43 victory.

Cooper’s club is 5-1 heading into the Christmas break.

“I thought we started out very sluggish,” Cooper said. “We knew going in that Davis, while young, are a very disciplined team offensively. So, credit them for coming out and playing very well.

“I was happy with our efforts offensively both in the second and fourth quarters,” Cooper continued. “Hannah Whitaker hit some big shots in the third and fourth quarters, all momentum changers. I am extremely proud of her.

“When we needed to make stops we did. I’m happy for the team as they wanted to close out the first half of the season with a win.

“I do not mind wins like these as they are growth opportunities for us. Learning how to play through adversities and come out successful will play dividends for us going forward. I love the fight in our team,” Cooper confirmed.

A close 49-43 loss to Lindsay ended their tournament.

Santa Fe South

Scoring was slow in the first two quarters for the Bulldogs.

Senior Ezra Faulkenberry hit a three in the first quarter, but the Saints outscored Lexington 15-7 after the first stanza.

The Bulldogs’ defense tightened in the second and only gave up seven points. Lexington was down 22-15 at the break.

Two guys for Santa Fe South went off in the second half as the Saints scored 18 points in each of the final two quarters.

“We didn’t match up very well with them. Their big guy was athletic and had his way in the middle. We gave them too many open looks,” Thetford said.

Lexington couldn’t keep up and dropped the game.

Christmas elves at work

The elves at Purcell's First Baptist Church helped load items donated by church members for McClain County Operation Christmas.

Lexington United Methodist Church

Our Christmas program presented by a quartet of students from the School of Music from the University of Oklahoma was wonderful. These young women sang a selection of Christmas songs and inspired all who were present.

Our preparation for Christmas continued with the Fourth Sunday of Advent. We lite the third purple candle, known as the Love or Adoration candle. It also represents peace and is called the "Angel's Candle."

The angels announced that Jesus came to bring peace—he came to bring people close to God and to each other again. The readings for the fourth Sunday relate to the annunciation of Christ's birth, and the Magnificat, or Song of Mary, may be featured. John 3 is another such reading. A section of that chapter is as follows:

John 3:16-19, "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son. This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil."

To switch gears, last Sunday was also the beginning of Hanukkah, which began at sundown on Sunday, December 18 this year and ends at sundown on Monday, December 26. Our Jewish brothers and sisters will celebrate this eight-day festival of rededication, also known as the Festival of Lights, by lighting the candle holder known as a menorah, or alternatively, a hannukiah.

The story of Hanukkah is in the book of Maccabees and tells of the miraculous victory

Santa Claus is comin' to town!

Well, by the time this column hits your mighty-well-lit and finely-decorated front porch Christmas will be in full swing. I never get to this place without some healthy December cravings. I had this powerful urge for some hot chocolate with marshmallows just this morning, and I usually want it with whipped cream half a foot high, the way the friendly waitress fixed it for me one morning up in the Smokies a few years ago. She had all the other guests oohing and ahing at how high the whipped cream was. That's how you do Christmas, I thought.

And I've had this urge for some of that seasonal hot and spicy apple cider. I think they're now fancying up the name and calling it "Wassail" or something – but call it what you want, I can smell it right now all the way from last December. As soon as it warms up, I'm goin' to build a fire, prop my feet up, and watch "Home Alone" again.

And just today I was wishing "It's a Wonderful Life" would come on, too. In my daydreams I've even been thinking about certain toys that made their way under the tree in my growing-up years: slinkies -- never had a Christmas growing up without a slinky! -- toy train sets, and bicycles with streamers in the handle bars. And B.B. guns.

Could we go back there again, just for a moment? Well, maybe we just did.

Whenever my heart's radar starts picking up Santa as it's doing right now, I always think about my big brother Wayne. He's the one who – back when I was about nine – foolishly tried to tell me there's no Santa Claus. I'm still laughing at that one. Just ask my granddaughter "Pretty Eyes." She just turned 14 at this writing, and I still haven't heard her say she doesn't believe in it all. Regardless, she still likes Frosty, Rudolph, the chipmunks, and the Grinch.

And speaking of the Grinch, even he can't avoid a chill down the spine when he hears, "Away in a manger, no crib for a bed. The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head ..."

Or ... "Silver bells ... silver bells ... it's Christmas time, in December 25, 2022 is Christmas Day. Glory to God in the highest and peace to people on earth.

Christmas Eve and Day Mass Schedule: Saturday, December 24: Mass at 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. in English. Christmas carols in Spanish at 11:30 p.m. with Midnight Mass in Spanish. Sunday, December 25: Mass at 9 a.m. in English.

Last Sunday, December 18, 2022 was the final Sunday of Advent. The Gospel reading was Matthew 1:18-24. Mary was betrothed to Joseph. It was the custom at that time that a couple would be betrothed, an engagement which could only be terminated by divorce.

During the time before the wedding, normally about one year, the couple did not live together. Joseph was an up-right man and did not want to disgrace Mary when he learned she was pregnant. He planned to divorce her informally.

Then, while sleeping, an angel of the Lord came to Joseph. The angel told Joseph that the child in Mary's womb was conceived by the Holy Spirit. When Joseph awoke, he took Mary into his home as the angel had told him.

Through the centuries, there have been a wide range of consequences for conceiving a child out of wedlock. At the time of Jesus' conception, a man was permitted to have his bride or bride-to-be stoned to death if he learned that the baby was not his. Even in the 1960's, a girl who became pregnant out of wedlock was commonly whisked off to an aunt so no one would know of the disgrace. Even now, a woman becoming pregnant by someone other than her spouse frequently results in divorce.

Joseph was greatly troubled, to say the least, when he learned Mary had conceived a child. Yet, his faith was strong and when the angel of the Lord came to him in a dream, he accepted God's message and stood by Mary.

Obedience to God should be our goal. We will not face the monumental decision Joseph faced. However, we need to remind ourselves that obedience gives us a bedrock of faith not enjoyed by people who "don't let anyone tell me what to do."

We celebrate the love of Jesus at Our Lady of Victory parish all year long. Our Lady of Victory parish is located at 307 West Jefferson. The office has relocated to 501 N. 4th in Purcell and is open weekday mornings. You can call the office at 405-527-3077. Weekend mass services are Saturday, 5 p.m.; Sunday, 11 a.m.; and Sunday, 1 p.m. (Spanish). Daily masses are Tuesday, 9 a.m.; Wednesday, 12 noon; Thursday, 7 p.m. (Spanish), and Friday, 9 a.m.

Peace be with you.

Sunray Baptist Church

The children presented a short Christmas program for the special.

Brother John's sermon was titled "Visited by a Sympathetic Human."

The Scripture text was Luke 2:1-7. In His incarnation, Jesus stooped low. He was born into poverty, squalor and obscurity so He could identify with all humanity. Jesus came near as our Kinsman-redeemer, the only qualified to redeem us.

We observed our annual candlelight service Sunday evening. Brother John spoke of the elements of Christmas: expectation, a willing vessel, the praises of heaven and earth and the blessing of receiving and sharing the light of Jesus.

Come worship with us on Christmas Day! We will start our service at 10 a.m. There will be no Sunday school or evening service.

We extend wishes for a Merry Christmas to all. We are located at 2223 North 9th Street in Purcell. For additional information call 405-527-6808.

First Presbyterian Church of Rosedale

The First Presbyterian Church of Rosedale announces its holiday events schedule.

A Christmas Eve service, December 24, will begin at 5 p.m. Seasonal hymns, scripture readings and a sermon will be featured. A Candlelighting service will conclude the event.

Christmas Day worship begins at 9:45 a.m. The sacrament of communion will be observed as a part of the service.

Samual McCann, the supply preacher for the congregation, will deliver the sermon at both services.

Green Avenue Church of Christ

As always, we offer a sincere invitation to come join in with us as we study the Scriptures. Jesus said we ought to search them for they testify of Him. On Wednesdays, we are currently studying in 1 Timothy to learn the things of the Lord written there.

We picked back up our lesson series in the issues Christians face today with a new study about the work ethic. Did you know that God assigned the first work detail to Adam and Eve? They were to care for the garden God had planted, in return they could eat the produce from it. We were challenged to think about our labors as something we enter into as a mutual effort with God, both in the work and its productivity.

The Growth of the Apostle Peter was the subject of the Sunday morning sermon. Keith Shackelford discussed information regarding his early days with Jesus and how the events he witnessed must have affected his faith. He also pointed out that at a most critical time, Peter struggled with his faith like everyone else did the night Jesus was betrayed.

However, we saw that the apostle did not remain weak, but he grew stronger (with ups and downs) throughout the rest of his life as we know it. Peter serves as an example to us today both when we feel strong and when we feel weak.

The evening sermon concluded the previous Sunday's message entitled "The Mighty Ships of God." Like last week, we examined six more terms ending in the suffix "-ship": discipleship, companionship, friendship, stewardship, leadership, and hardship.

It was interesting to look at these subjects as if they were indeed different ships in a fleet. Each one serves a different purpose, yet all together they help fulfill the function of God's armada which sails life's ocean.

We invite you to meet with us for Bible study at 7 p.m. Wednesday night and 9:45 a.m. Sunday and our worship services on Sundays are 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Bible correspondence courses are available, call 405-527-4052.

Methodist:

of the Jewish freedom fighters over the Greek occupiers in the year 139 BCE. After recapturing the Holy Temple in Jerusalem (which had been converted into a place of idol worship by the Greeks), the Jews searched for pure oil with which to re-light the Temple menorah.

They found just enough oil to burn for only one day, but miraculously, the menorah burned for eight days until more oil could be brought. This miracle is attributed to God and the faith the Jews had in God. The word hanukkah means dedication.

On each of the eight nights of Hanukkah (alternatively: Chanukah), Jewish people light special nine-branched candelabras (menorahs), lighting another candle each night until on the eighth night, eight flames are burning brightly, plus the helper candle in the middle.

The lighting takes place at home, in a doorway or near a window and is performed after brief blessings are recited. In our times, communal menorah lightings are often held in public squares, sharing the Hanukkah message of the triumph of light over darkness and the freedom to worship God.

As part of the celebration of Hanukkah and the commemoration of the miracle of the oil, oily foods are eaten. Since the Middle Ages, jam-filled doughnuts have been a favorite food. Potato pancakes, known as latkes, are also a classic. It is also customary to eat dairy, which recalls how the brave Jews served cheese and wine to a Greek general before defeating him.

A meal might start with matzoh ball soup, followed by traditional brisket and a stack of potato latkes, sometimes with applesauce. If you prefer, a roasted chicken can be served instead of the brisket.

Other Hanukkah customs include playing with a four-sided spinning top called a dreidel and exchanging a small gift on each night of the festival. Good hostess gifts include chocolate, gourmet applesauce, candles, books, or board games.

Eating gelt (gold foil covered chocolate coins) while playing dreidel is also a custom, as is wearing items of blue and white. The colors of blue and white hold a great symbolic significance to Jewish people. Often Mary, the mother of Jesus, is shown wearing blue and white, even in the Christian tradition.

The traditional greeting for the Jewish holiday in English is "Happy Hanukkah!" Other ways include "Happy Holiday!" and "Happy Festival of Lights!"

The last night of Hanukkah has this blessing: "Blessed are you, Our God, Ruler of the Universe, who performed miracles for our ancestors in their days at this season."

All those who worship God can be children of the Light instead of staying in darkness. And so, we close with prayer: Dear God, your faithfulness has been great, leading us to this day of anticipation and celebrations. May the glorious light of your steadfast love shine brightly in us and through us, that all may give you praise and glory. Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. In the Savior's name we pray, Amen.

We worship at 9:30 a.m. every Sunday, followed by coffee, tea, and fellowship. Sunday school starts at approximately 11 a.m. Our address is 631 East Ash, just west of Lexington High School. For more information, please call the church at (405) 527-3506 to leave a message, or contact Pastor David Cook directly at (405) 406-6174.

the city ..."

And everybody is glad they still can hear and read about the little babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and the manger, and the shepherds keeping their flocks in the field, and the angels streaming down from heaven with this great announcement: "...I bring you good tidings of great joy ... to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

So, let's start right now, if you haven't already: Let's slow down just a bit. Let's fix a smooth, marshmallowy cup of hot chocolate. Let's sit by the fireplace in our housecoat and slippers and flip through the TV 'til we run across a movie starring Jimmy Stewart or that little redheaded fella who's home all alone, again. Let's listen for those sleigh-bells ringing a joyful tune in the air. Let's get in the spirit now, because, you know it's true:

Santa Claus's comin' to town!

Dale K. Graham Veterans Foundation

Our volunteers and staff here at the Foundation would like to wish each of you a very Merry Christmas! May you be able to spend it with those near and dear to you.

Last week we started mailing out our annual newsletter to the veterans and their families who we have assisted for the last fifteen plus years. We do this to keep you updated on some of the changes that VA is making each year that can affect each of us.

For those of you who may not have received a copy due to address changes or other reasons let us know and we will try to provide you with a copy.

Another reason we send these out is to provide surviving spouses who did not know that they may have been eligible for VA benefits after their veteran died. Please remember that as a dependent or surviving spouse of a veteran who was receiving VA benefits, if their service connected disability is listed as the primary cause of death or as a contributing condition they will probably be eligible for VADIC survivor's benefits.

Also if the veteran dies from a condition that is presumptive to their military service they would also be eligible to file for VA benefits. We suggest that all surviving spouses of veterans check to see if they might be eligible for VA benefits. During the last year VA has added many conditions that are presumptive to many veterans' military service.

Nineteen veterans received an early Christmas present from VA when they were awarded a 100 percent rating for their service-connected disabilities last week. We also received notification from VA that 99 veterans were awarded disability ratings from 10 to 90 percent for their service -connected disabilities. We are very proud to have assisted all of them with their applications for VA benefits. One thing I do know is there are 109 families who will be having a better Christmas because of our volunteers.

As always, the number of veterans and surviving spouses who ask for our help is always more than we can accommodate each week. To solve that problem, we are continually training new volunteers to help us to provide our services to an ever-increasing number of veterans and their families.

On another note, many of you know that we have volunteers in other states assisting veterans remotely using our digital computer programs. We are very excited to let each of you know that we will soon be opening a satellite office in Nashville, Tenn., to accommodate some of the veterans in that area. Currently, we have veterans and surviving spouses traveling to our Norman, Oklahoma location from all 50 states and 15 foreign countries.

Please consider joining our team of dedicated volunteers who are making a difference in the lives of veterans and their families.

Shop at <https://smile.amazon.com> every time you use Amazon for purchases! Choose Dale K. Graham Veterans Foundation as your SMILE recipient and Amazon will donate a portion of your purchases to us! All you have to do is log into SMILE each time you shop! We appreciate you for helping us serve veterans and their families!

We are a 501c-3 non-profit organization and there is never a charge for the services we provide to veterans and their families. We do accept financial contributions to be used to support veterans and this organization.

We also accept donations of wheelchairs and other types of handicap equipment that can be given to other veterans or their families. Other items that we accept are cars, trucks, motorcycles, or items that can be given to veterans or sold to raise funds.

We are open to active clients Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon each day.

To donate to our Foundation, you can do so online at dalekgrahamveteransfoundation.org or mail a check to Dale K. Graham Veterans Foundation, 1233 West Lindsay, Norman, OK, 73069. You can contact us on our website or by calling 405-550-8806.
