David Childress works every day from 7:30 in the morning until the Washington School Campus is cleared of students and faculty and he watches over every home high school sporting event. But he said he really doesn't have a job.

"If you have a love for it, it's not a job," the affable McClain County Sheriff's Lieutenant says with a smile. He's the School Resource Officer for Washington Schools and is supervisor for all the School Resource Officers on campus at Dibble, Wayne and Mid-America Technology Center.

Childress began his sheriff's department career right where he is now.

"I worked there four years," he said. "All the kids that were in elementary school back then are in high school or have graduated.

That was 2013 with 22 years of police work in the rearview mirror.

The 1996 high school graduate has two science degrees from Oklahoma State University.

So why not a career in science instead of policing? "I didn't like science," he said with a chuckle. Childress has logged time with the Ardmore Police Department, Lone Grove's Police Department and as a

A big square bale of hay was put to good use by this truck during Monday's ice storm that blew through the state.

Blood supply dangerously low

As winter weather began moving in earlier last week, blood donors began cancelling appointments and blood drives were delayed, forcing an already struggling blood supply to critically low levels.

Our Blood Institute (OBI) in Oklahoma is asking donors to reschedule appointments as the weather clears.

OBI says a significant number of appointments across its nine donor centers in Oklahoma were cancelled. Before yesterday's storm, donations were already down from expected collections five-day supply of blood available but is well below that level now. This could impact hospital needs.

All successful donors through February will also receive an alien themed "Save the Humans" T-shirt.

OBI needs 1,200 blood donations each day to maintain an ample supply of blood for state hospitals. OBI provides more than 90 percent of Oklahoma's blood supply to more than 160 hospitals and medical facilities.

"January is always a difficult time as blood donations typically slow, and the winter weather is magnifying the problem," said John Armitage, M.D., OBI president and CEO.

"Since the start of the year, OBI typically has a three- to blood donations are suffering substantially, and fewer people are donating. We need the public to step up and help secure their community blood supply."

Anyone who is healthy and 16 years old or older can donate. Sixteen-year-olds must weigh at least 125 pounds and provide signed parental permission; 17-year-olds must weigh at least 125 pounds; individuals over the age of 18 must weigh at least 110 pounds. Photo ID required. Blood can be donated every 56 days. Platelets can be donated as often as every seven days, up to 24 times a year.

"Blood has no substitute," Armitage said. "Patients across the state rely on blood products to fight cancer, survive trauma and heal after childbirth. Blood donation takes about an hour and can save up to three lives."

Appointments to donate can be made online at obi.org or by calling 877-340-8777.

Today is Groundhog Day and in observance I did a little research.

The little varmint at the crux of the matter is Punxsutawney Phil, who lives at Gobbler's Knob in Punxsutawney, PA. It's really simple. Either he sees his shadow or he doesn't.

The whole thing derives from a Pennsylvania Dutch superstition.

According to tradition, if a groundhog comes out of its hole on this day and sees its shadow, it gets scared and runs back into its burrow, predicting six more sutawney where crowds as weeks of winter weather; no large as 40,000 gather each shadow, because of cloudiness, means an early spring.

What's the plan?

It's a head-scratcher what Sen. David Bullard, R-Durant and State Superintendent of Public Instruction Ryan Walters have in mind for public education in Oklahoma.

Bullard has authored a bill that would eliminate all federal education money in Oklahoma.

Money that Oklahoma taxpayers have sent to the feds.

Walters mentioned a similar proposal during his campaign for office.

That's the same guy who appointed a mother of five home schooled children to the Oklahoma State Board of Education. Another brilliant idea.

The state receives millions in federal tax dollars. Eliminating those funds would be devastating to numerous programs, especially free and reduced lunch programs.

Walters also cancelled the across-the-board $5,000 teacher pay raise replacing it with merit pay.

He is going to run off teachers and hurt public education in our state, which you have to wonder if this is his ultimate goal. It's a major problem.

NEWS FROM CAPITOL HILL

Addressing America's debt crisis

Congressman Tom Cole

Earlier this month, the United of charging up the nation's States hit its debt ceiling, which is currently at $31.4 trillion. After raising the debt limit by $2.5 trillion just two years ago in 2021, this sobering news should serve as a wakeup call that we must reduce our nation's spending and implement meaningful fiscal reforms to address America's debt crisis before it is too late. This fiscal trajectory is simply unsustainable.

The U.S. Department of the Treasury defines the debt limit as "the total amount of money that the United States government is authorized to borrow to meet its existing legal obligations, including Social Security and Medicare benefits, military salaries, interest on the national debt, tax refunds, and other payments."

Upon hitting this debt limit earlier this month, the Treasury Department began employing "extraordinary measures" to avoid default. However, these measures are only expected to suffice for several months until all options are exhausted to avoid defaulting on our country's debts.

Since 2002, the debt limit

20 times. While lawmakers the solvency and trajectory of have been in a long habit mandatory spending, which, credit card, in just two years, the Biden Administration and Democrats in Congress went on a $5 trillion deficit spending binge that led to record-high inflation, soaring interest rates and an astounding $31.4 trillion national debt – larger than the entire U.S. economy. The national debt currently makes up 98 percent of the United States' Gross Domestic Product (GDP), the highest it has been since World War II, and within a decade, it is projected to reach 110 percent of GDP and 185 percent by 2052.

Although Democrats continue to threaten to repeal the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act or impose numerous revenue-raising proposals such as a wealth tax, financial transactions tax or carbon tax, none of these proposals would solve our debt crisis. In fact, our nation's tax revenue is currently the highest in history.

While Democrats' irresponsible and reckless spending over the past two years certainly led us to hit our debt limit faster than expected, the true path to long-term fiscal soundness will has been raised a staggering require lawmakers to address

In fact, over the next 30 years, Social Security faces a $36 trillion deficit and Medicare faces an $80 trillion deficit. These shortfalls are the prime drivers of our debt, not lack of revenue.

Although addressing mandatory spending should not entail eliminating these extremely popular programs, we must have a conversation not only as a Congress but also as a country about measures to take to protect these programs while also lowering our unsustainable budget deficits and curtailing our national debt.

If we are to preserve these programs for current and future beneficiaries, ignoring the problem is only whistling past the fiscal graveyard.

In response to these shortfalls, I have already reintroduced legislation this Congress to address Social Security's solvency.

prep for our next legislative session, which begins February 6. A few weeks ago, we received our committee assignments for the next two years.

I'm looking forward to serving my second term as chair office lately. Session begins in of the House Public Health Committee.

This year, I'll join the House Children, Youth and Family Services Committee and the House Appropriations & Budget Subcommittee on Family Services. I also maintained my seat on the House Health Services and Long-Term Care Committee

As a member of an A&B subcommittee, I'll be studying the budget requests from state agencies that fall under the subcommittee's purview and considering any bills that would have a fiscal impact on those agencies.

This week, A&B subcommittees and the full A&B committee heard budget presentations from various state agencies. These meetings give us time to delve deeply into what they plan to do with the additional funds they're requesting and how they've used the funds allocated to them in past years.

We're getting closer to kicking off the new legislative session. Our deadline to file bills was Thursday, January 19. Over 1,900 bills were filed in the House, and more than 1,100

The House is in full swing to but many are still working on the final language, which will be filed as amendments during committee meetings.

Between budget meetings and finalizing legislation, I've spent a lot of time in my Capitol just a couple weeks on Monday, February 6.

We'll spend the next four months moving bills through the legislative process and finalizing the proposed state budget for Fiscal Year 2024, as required by our state constitution.

Last week, I attended an event hosted by The Hunt Institute, a national nonprofit that highlights key issues in education.

Speakers discussed the benefits and challenges for teachers and schools regarding National Board certifications, higher education priorities, the importance of evidence-based reading practices, and combating the long-term effects of learning loss. It was a very insightful event and a great opportunity to discuss the future of Oklahoma education.

As session approaches, I'll share information regarding my own bills and other pieces of legislation I think you should be aware of. In the meantime, please reach out with any thoughts or concerns on legislation, as well as any requests that I may be able to assist with. You were filed in the Senate. ## New 3D interactive table brings learning to life at MATC

Students in the health and as it allows them to explore related classes at Mid-America Technology Center can now tap, swipe, and drag their fingertips across the surface on a touch-screen table or tablet for realistic anatomy instruction.

This device, which comes from the company Anatomage, provides fully interactive individual structures and systems that are reconstructed in accurate 3D rendering, featuring life-size digital replicas of humans and animals.

Students can view the whole system in its realistic complexity, or students can rotate, cross-section, and animate to learn how the various body systems work.

Purcell Senior Citizens By Val Blackburn

Heartfelt appreciation to everyone who donated to the center this past year. Your cash and merchandise donations help us continue to operate and provide for the community. In the coming year, we hope to offer more and better services as we continue to grow. The center is a great place for fellowship, food and good times. Everyone over 60 is welcome!

Just a reminder for all: If Purcell Schools are closed due to weather, the Center is also closed. Your safety is important to us! Slips and falls are no joke...and sliding into a ditch is no fun either!

The center garage sale is open Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. (Weather permitting!) We have new merchandise and lots to choose from. Everyone is invited.

Our center is available for rent on Saturdays for parties, meetings and/or gatherings. For information or to make a reservation, please call Val at 405-527-5070. We do book in advance, so the sooner you make a reservation, the better chance you have for an open Saturday.

Delta Nutrition provides meals Monday through Friday beginning at 11:30 a.m. They also deliver in-home meals. Any questions you have about obtaining meal service or dining here at the center, can be answered by the kitchen at 405-527-9462. This number is also the one to call when you let them know what days you will be here to dine.

It is becoming more important to remember to make your reservation for meals. That can be done weekly or daily, whatever works for you. The rising cost of food and supplies is making it more essential every day for Delta Nutrition to have a count of the meals. Please let them know you will be here or if you won't. They always want to have plenty of food for all who would like to join us. Thank you for being understanding of their policies. Menu for February 6-10:

Monday-Loaded potato with ham and cheese, broccoli soup, applesauce, crackers, cookie.

Tuesday—Taco salad, ranch beans, Fritos, fruit crisp.

Wednesday—Baked chicken, mashed potatoes with gravy, green beans, bread, gelatin.

Thursday-Southwest stew, pickle, onion, coleslaw, cornbread, spice cake.

Friday-Pork chops, sweet potatoes, cabbage, bread, bread pudding.

One milk per person is served with every meal.

We appreciate everyone who continues to donate and support the senior center. Your donations continue to enhance the lives of our seniors and the operation of our center.

Purcell Register Obituaries

Norma Gail Abrams

Norma Gail Watson was born on July 29, 1942, to Woodrow and Katharine Watson in Purcell, Okla. As an only child, she enjoyed time with her parents and extended family, living near her grandmother's farm in early years, and moving to town as she neared secondary school. Norma was an excellent student and talented musician. After graduating from Purcell High School in 1960, she went on to study German at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., graduating in 1964.

Prior to her college graduation she wed her long-time friend, Don Abrams, surrounded by friends and family in Purcell, Okla. That next year she obtained her teaching certificate from the State of Oklahoma and started her teaching career at Carl Albert High School teaching English. Soon after, she joined Don in Germany where she served as a United States Army wife during the Vietnam War. Her time living in Germany was one of her most cherished adventures, where she was able to enjoy using her German language skills, meeting friends from across the world, and traveling throughout Europe.

She later joined Don as his career took him to Buenos Aires, Argentina and often spoke fondly of the excitement of living abroad. Upon returning to the U.S., Norma took a position teaching German at Midwest City High School in Midwest City, Okla., where she led the Bombers to win state language arts championships in German.

Her most favorite adventure started in Edmond, Okla., with the arrival of their first daughter, Lara. When Lara arrived, Norma began dedicating her life to her children, as they later welcomed daughter, Erica. In the early 1980s, the family finally settled in Spring, Texas, in what would be her forever ome in Northampton.

Delbert Leon Taber

Funeral services for Delbert Leon Taber, 71, of Purcell will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, February 3, 2023 at the First Baptist Church in Purcell. Interment will be at 3:30 p.m. at the Pond Creek Cemetery in Pond Creek. Services will be under the direction of the Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Mr. Taber passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, January 29, 2023.

He was born May 15, 1951 in Kingfisher, Oklahoma, the fourth of five children born to Franklin Leon "Jack" Taber and Martha Jane (Trindle) Taber. He spent his early years in Enid, where he began school. He attended high school in Medford, graduating with the Cardinal Class of 1969.

Delbert was a standout athlete and captain of the football team, and his high school sweetheart, a young lady named Judy Fore, was the head cheerleader. Delbert and Judy were married on June 27, 1970 in Medford, and the rest, as they say, is history. Delbert attended Oklahoma State for a short time, before opportunity led him to Southern Nazarene University. He later transferred to Northwestern Oklahoma State University in Alva where he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Agriculture Ecology.

After graduation, Delbert started working for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. They first made their home in Idabel. After brief stops in Anadarko and Ft. Cobb, they eventually settled in Beaver where they raised their children, Steffanie, Travis and Ryan.

Delbert stayed active in his community, serving as President of the School Board, Mayor of the town, member of the Jaycees, and First United Methodist Church. Delbert was a father figure to many children. He opened his heart and his home to those in need; mentoring, tutoring, and even was a guardian for some. He sponsored many youth trips, summer camps, and will be forever remembered for "Taberball," a 3 on 3 basketball game he hosted in his back yard whenever the weather was warm enough. He was a hard worker, always looking for additional ways to provide for his family, in everything he did, he did it 100%. Delbert was never afraid to take on a new challenge, and when he saw a better opportunity, he changed careers and went to work for the Cabot Oil and Gas Company. After many years of this, he made another change and worked as a construction manager for Hog Slat, before an injury convinced him to seek another path. He earned his insurance license and began working for Oklahoma Farm Bureau in Alva, and later he brought the Taber family to Purcell in 2001. For 20 years, Delbert served the Oklahoma Farm Bureau Purcell location before retiring in August of 2021. In addition to spending time with his family, he enjoyed fishing, hunting, boating and camping. He was an avid Oklahoma State fan, loved wood working, and shared his many talents with family and friends. Delbert was a man of great faith, and a member of the First Baptist Church in Purcell. He served as Deacon and Chairman of the Construction Committee for the new sanctuary. He took great pride in the role he played in the construction of the new church building. He cherished Judy, his children and grandchildren, and was never happier than when his family was all together. He will be dearly missed! He was preceded in death by his parents, Jack and Martha Taber; his brothers-in-law, Ken Frech and Bill Downing and sisters-in-law, Darla Fore and Barbara Taber. Delbert is survived by his wife, Judy; children, Steffanie Wheeler and husband, Kirk, of Flower Mound, Texas, Travis Taber and wife, Amber, of Sachse, Texas, and Ryan Taber and wife, Jennifer, of Piedmont, Okla.; sisters, Evelyn Frech of Enid, Okla., and Marilyn Downing of Medford, Okla.; brothers, Frank Taber and wife, Sandy, of Broken Arrow, Okla., and Albert Taber and wife, Celeste, of Stillwater, Okla.; his pride and joy, grandchildren, Kerighan, Kenedy, Kylan, Blake, Logan, Toby, Lexi, Brady, Haley, Hannah, Abby and Kate; many nieces and nephews and a host of other family and friends. In lieu of flowers, please consider memorials to Church Missions Fund of First Baptist Church Purcell, 400 W. Main St., Purcell, OK 73080.

Smothering Dragon defense holds Davis to 19 points

John D. Montgomery The Purcell Register

Purcell's stifling defense limited Davis to a mere 19 points last Friday night in a 51-19 homecoming breather.

Sophomore Kobe Freeman nearly matched the Wolves' team total with 14 points to lead the Dragons.

Hayden Ice was also in double figures with a dozen.

The victory hiked Purcell's season record to 16-1 and moved them up one spot in the latest OSSAA poll to No. 3 in Class 3A.

"I'm really proud of our guys, especially on the defensive end," head coach Roger Raper said."Holding any team to 19 points is not an easy task.

"We were a little off offensively and that can happen. We just have to always bring it defensively. Our schedule does not get easier as this conference is in my opinion the toughest 3A conference in the state. We will be battle tested as the playoffs near," he said.

"The win against Davis was my 250th career win as a head coach and I am so thankful it was here as a Purcell Dragon,"

Last Friday Wayne hosted Konawa and the Bulldogs dropped a 50-49 overtime decision.

Jaxon Dill led Wayne with 18 points in the close loss. Wyatt Webster added 11 and Kaleb Madden had eight.

Webster also had 12 rebounds to lead the Bulldogs. It was a back and forth game that saw Konawa hold a one point, 24-23 lead at halftime. But, Wayne and Konawa were knotted at 44all at the end of regulation.

"This was a game of runs. And we didn't handle it all that well," head coach Jackson Embry said.

Konawa outscored Wayne 6-5 in overtime to pull out the one point win.

Once again, according to the coach, the Bulldogs got off to a slow start.

"We started slow, getting down 11 points after the first quarter. But, the guvs' effort was amazing. We worked hard and got within four by halftime," Thetford said.

Lexington kept the game close throughout the second half, but ultimately turnovers proved too costly.

"We had 18 turnovers and that was the biggest difference in the game. They were just too big of an obstacle to overcome against a good team.

"Our last game was competithe final minute and ended up losing by six," Thetford said.

"It will be competitive again and as long as we take care of the basketball and limit turnovers, it's a winnable game for us."

With the final stretch of the regular season upon the Bulldogs, Thetford believes that they are on the verge of taking the next step.

"Right now we're playing good basketball. We have to work on turnovers and being consistent, but I know they're ready to take the next step and make a run in the postseason," Thetford said.

OHCE Cultural Enrichment Poster Contest

AngieSteele Washington Correspondent

Washington Chapter of Mc-Clain County OHCE (Oklahoma Home & Community Education) is participating in the statewide Cultural Enrichment Poster contest. The Washington club has chosen to highlight the former Oklahoma Central Railroad (OCR) in Mc-Clain County.

The Oklahoma Central Railroad (OCR) was a railroad operating in Oklahoma from 1907 to 1917. It was formed by Dorset Carter of Purcell, Indian Territory, and other business interests. The corporation started life on September 20, 1904, as the Canadian Valley and Western Railway Company. It changed its name to the Oklahoma Central Railway Company on September 27, 1905.

The track ran from Lehigh to Chickasha, Oklahoma, and was completed in 1908. It ran through McClain County along Walnut Creek from Blanchard to Purcell and on through Byars, Oklahoma. It connected with the Santa Fe Railroad in Purcell. The primary sources of revenue included transport of passengers and express, coal, cotton and cotton byproducts, livestock, and building materials. The final track was abandoned in 1964.

OHCE clubs in McClain County will submit one poster per club. The county entries will be judged, and one poster will be chosen to be taken to the District meeting for judging at the District OHCE meeting in March. Washington's entry will be presented at the February 3 Winter Council Meeting along with posters from all McClain County OHCE participants. First place winner from the February 2023 District Meeting will be displayed and judged at the SE District Meeting in March.

First place winners from all District submissions will be displayed and judged at the Annual State Conference in July.

Last week one of our volunteers, Clayton Lee, was recognized for his many years of service to the thousands of veterans who he has transported to their VA appointments and to our Foundation where they received assistance with their VA claims and questions. We appreciate all Clayton has done to serve veterans and their families over the years.

Last week there were 11 veterans who were awarded a 100 percent rating for their service-connected disabilities. They will also receive the Oklahoma State benefits that include reduced auto tags, exemption of excise tax on a new or used automobile, property tax exemption on their primary residence and sales tax exemption on purchases up to $25,000 per year. Fifty-three veterans were awarded disability ratings from 10-90 percent. We also had two surviving spouses be approved for DIC benefits.

A veteran who receives a disability rating of 30 percent or higher can receive an additional amount for their spouse and dependents. Veterans who receive a fifty percent disability rating Basketball, Davis, Girls home, are eligible for two reduced auto tags each year. Spouses and dependents of veterans who are rated at one hundred percent and are not military retired are also eligible for Champ-VA medical insurance.

We are continually requesting that more volunteers sign February 6-7th/8th/9th on to help us to process the increased number of veterans who are requesting our assistance with their VA claims and questions. Since going Digital we have positions for people who want to work from home Lindsay in Norman.

We are receiving many requests from veterans and surviving spouses asking for information on the Pact Act which went into effect Jan. 1, 2023. This act establishes presumptive exposure to Agent Orange for veterans who served in some areas of Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Johnson Island and Guam during the Vietnam era.

This means that veterans who were diagnosed with any of the presumptive diseases are now eligible to receive VA compensation. Surviving spouses of veterans of who served in one of those locations may be eligible for DIC benefits if their death was caused by or aggravated by one of the presumptive diseases. When the veteran and their spouse are both deceased their children may be eligible for benefits under the Nehmer Ruling if the veterans death certificate list Ischemic Heart Disease, Hairy Cell Leukemia or Parkinson's Disease.

There will be tens of thousands of veterans who will now be eligible for the VA benefits along with the surviving spouses who lost their veteran to one of the presumptive diseases.

On another note, I want to let you know that COVID is still something we should all be aware of, especially for us older

'It is the Lord' gives us life's best philosophy

as he begins his narrative in the cast the net on the other side of 21st chapter of John – a shadowy figure appears on the shore of the sea where seven of the Lord's disciples have fished all night. The unidentified figure calls out to those seven men working some hundred yards from shore: "Children, do you have anything to eat?" which we interpret as, "Have you fellas caught anything tonight for breakfast? They all answer that they had not caught a thing," and we can imagine that it is with a tone of frustration. I cannot help but think that there is a hint of symbolism there regarding the state of our lives sometimes. We have all seen life's nights when we endured all-night fishing trips without catching anything. You understand.

Just a note, while we're here: Be assured that during those barren periods, the One who man is, we would likely first often works in mysterious ways think of Peter – normally the will always come walking on most perceptive disciple in the shore within shouting dis- the group – but it is not Peter tance of our little boats. The shadowy figure on the Near morning – John writes shore hollers back for them to the boat; and, when they obey Him, they draw a netful of fish, full to the brim. Amazingly, it does not break, even though it is too heavy for seven men to pull it into the boat. They immediately head to shore sluggishly pulling exactly 153 fish to shore - a number John includes in his narrative, for reasons that are probably grander than we could ever imagine.

In all His greatness and 'bigness,' God is still a God of precision and a God of little things. John, for his part, may have just been adding up just how great the miracle is that his Lord has just performed.

At first, the disciples do not recognize the Lord as he calls out to them in the twilight of the morning-except for one. Were we to guess which disciple guessed who that mysterious and it takes some time to recover from those hours.

The one who recognizes the Lord is the writer of this gospel. It is John, 'the disciple whom Jesus loved.' When John realizes who is standing there on the shore of that blessed sea, he hollers out something powerful and classic to the rest of his fisherman friends, and to us: "It is the Lord!" he exclaims.

Ah, what an astute observation! But it's more than that: It is a philosophy by which to live. It is the vantage point from which every Christian and every man of faith learns to look at life, the more the further down the road we go.

The others' blind eyes suddenly are opened to the great truth; and they all make their way to shore to see the Master, with Peter's efforts surpassing them all. He dives into the water with a child's eager enthusiasm. He swims to his Lord so he can beat them all, just as he had beaten John on that resurrection morning into the tomb of our Lord, though he was slower of foot.

He figures he can swim to shore faster than six men can row a boat with fishing gear and

As mentioned here and in the Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church article, we are in Ordinary Time, the period inbetween Christmas and Lent. This past week or so, winter has finally visited us in Oklahoma. The cold weather and loss of daylight does affect our human bodies. During this time of year, it is common for people to experience fatigue, brain fog, difficulty sleeping, and even sadness. Some individuals only experience this mood change

A couple are obvious. Soak up some Vitamin D. Even though there isn't as much sun on many days, go for a walk when it is shining. Or just sit in the sunshine and breathe deeply. Eat more veggies and sources of Vitamin D or take a Vitamin D3 supplement. Try to eat a more healthy and nutritious diet. Drink more plain water. Be hydrated.

Exercise may not have four letters, but it is a four-letter word to me. (If it came in a pill format, I'd have no problem!) However, exercise can make a difference, even if it is simply making a few rounds of walking in your house or going up or down stairs a couple of times. Our local library has some group, gentle exercise activities, like yoga for everyone or tai chi. Give them a call to find out when they meet.

Instead of complaining about the cold and dark, we can change our attitude toward winter. People who live in countries such as Norway or Sweden actually enjoy the winter season. They focus on the fact that the winter months give us different things to enjoy, such as hot drinks and warm nights by the fire. By extending Order No. 687012 insofar as it established a 640-acre horizontal drilling and spacing unit for the Hunton common source of supply underlying Section 27, Township 9 North, Range 4 West, McClain County, Oklahoma to include Section 33, Township 9 North, Range 4 West, McClain County, Oklahoma.

The Mississippian and Hunton common sources of supply are conventional reservoirs and for a conventional reservoir the completion interval of a horizontal well in a horizontal well unit shall be located not less than 660 feet from any boundary of the 640-acre horizontal unit. The Woodford common source of supply is an unconventional reservoir and pursuant to OAC 165:10-29-2 the completion interval of a horizontal Woodford well drilled in a horizontal well unit with a north/south lateral shall be located not less than 165 feet from any north/south unit boundary and not less than 330 feet from any east/west unit boundary. A horizontal Woodford well drilled in a horizontal well unit with an east/west lateral shall be located not less than 165 feet from any east/west unit boundary and not less than 330 feet from any north/ south unit boundary.

Due to changes in technological development horizontal drilling is more economical and prevents waste and protects correlative rights. The horizontal well units may exist concurrently with any previously formed non-horizontal drilling and spacing unit, or any part thereof, and each such unit may be separately developed in that a well may be drilled into, completed in and produce hydrocarbons from the same common source of supply in each such concurrently existing unit with production from such well to be governed by and allocated pursuant to the applicable unit. Therefore the following order is not being vacated.

Order No. 266211 insofar as it established an irregular 320-acre standup drilling and spacing unit for the Hunton common source of supply underlying the E/2 E/2 of Section 33 and the W/2 W/2 of Section 34, Township 9 North, Range 4 West, McClain County, Oklahoma.

There is no production from the Mississippian, Woodford and/ or Hunton common sources of supply or a member thereof from any non-horizontal well in the unit.

That the relief requested herein made be made effective prior to the issuance of this Order.

Chickasaw Lighthorse Dive Team completes open water certification

temperatures of Lake Tenkiller, five Chickasaw Lighthorse Police Department officers obtained their basic open scuba water certification.

Oklahoma has numerous lakes, ponds, creeks and rivers that provide families with an array of water sports, including swimming, fishing, boating, kayaking and other activities. With thousands of miles of shoreline, crime and accidents are sure to occur. The Chickasaw Lighthorse Police Dive Team is prepared to address these concerns, and much more.

"Recovery has become our main goal as a dive team," said Daniel Cloud, investigator for Chickasaw Lighthorse Police. "Most of the time when we get called out, it is to recover items. This can be cars. criminal evidence or even people who have perished."

Investigator Cloud was one of the five to obtain his basic open water certification, along with Chickasaw Lighthorse Police Officers Dakota Hanks, Austin Ahl, Jon Edwards and Sgt. Ryan Massengale.

The basic open water certification ensures the officers are confident in and around water. The basics of scuba diving are taught to new divers during certification. The course also refreshes certified seasoned divers' training.

"It is our job to recover what's been lost," Investigator Cloud said. "Using a scientific process, we are trained to safely determine if something is within a body of water."

The Chickasaw Lighthorse Police Department Dive Team was established in 2006. Lighthorse dive team members complete annual recertification dive team officers to maintain proficiency in all aspects of water recovery and rescue.

Braving frigid water equipment, the dive team performs water rescues and assists neighboring law enforcement agencies in recovery of victims, vehicles and evidence.

During t h e certification, Lighthorse divers were taught how to assemble and use basic scuba gear, manage buoyancy and handle common diving problems. Training is an important stage of preplanning for any dive. Preplanning prepares divers for the highest success rate when called out to a police investigation.

Most Oklahoma waters are considered "dark water" within the dive industry, meaning visibility is extremely poor. Divers are often not able to see anything more than 6 inches away from the face.

During training with indoor pools or other clear waters, dive trainers may duct tape goggles of trainees to simulate blackout conditions of the waters found in the field.

"I consider dark water as not being able to see my hand in front of my face," Investigator Cloud said. "It is the equivalent of turning off the lights in your bedroom at night and trying to walk across the room.

important reason for requirements. training. According to information from the be on the dive team," U.S. Department of Justice, police divers agree the biggest danger is entrapment while underwater. Hypothermia is also a major concern, along with knowing how deep and long a diver can stay under water. Training builds confidence, translating into divers not panicking if serious situations occur. are accomplished investigators. The dive team is one of two specialized teams within the Chickasaw Lighthorse Police Department. There are currently six certified divers and one administrative officer who oversees the teams' operations. > "It's a challenge to Investigator Cloud said. "We have had officers who try out and realize they just aren't comfortable not being able to see while under water. The nature of our work means we get called out during holidays, often during freezing temperatures. The dive team isn't for everybody."

Oklahoma's cold, dark water diving conditions. Dive team members wear a special badge on their uniform designating them as divers.

"We are not trying to make a Navy SEAL, but we do have tryouts testing physical and mental toughness," Investigator Cloud said. "We have (prospective) divers tread water, complete a 500-meter swim and pick up heavy objects from the bottom of the pool and bring them to the surface. It is challenging. We also test mental toughness while in the water. Divers must complete diving certifications, as well as an annual physical
