John D. Montgomery The Purcell Register

The Oklahoma State Fire Marshal's office is actively investigating three highly suspicious fires, two that occurred nearly simultaneously early last Friday morning and one on Saturday night.

All three houses that were destroyed - one at 128 W. Bruel, a two story house in the 100 block of Fox and the house at 431 S. Santa Fe-were vacant at the time of the fires. The first call came in Friday morning at 5:42 a.m. Firefighters found the home fully engulfed when they arrived.

Just 23 minutes later the second call came in the vacant two story house in the 100 block of Fox.

That house was also fully involved.

Purcell requested mutual aid from Lexington's Fire Department with the two homes burning at the same time.

Due to the structure being in a back yard and adjacent to a dead end alley, access proved to be difficult.

Once the fire was no longer active, Lexington Firefighters were released. Purcell Firefighters remained on scene awaiting the arrival of the State Fire Marshal.

He investigated both fire scenes and again after the House Bill 2154 would expand statutory language to protect all staff and contractors working within a healthcare facility from aggravated assault and battery.

This is unfortunately a significant problem facing many of our healthcare professionals, and is one I have experienced myself during my years as a nurse practitioner. HB2154 takes effect on November 1.

There remains a requirement in statute that requires all funeral homes to be notified of infectious disease status. All inmates are tested for communicable diseases and positive results are reported by statute to OSDH.

As bills move across the Governor's desk, conversations over education policy are continuing. This week, the House passed the Senate's amendments to the Oklahoma Parental Choice Tax Credit Act. House Bill 2172 adds medical care providers to the list of persons it is a crime to threaten, intimidate or harass by sharing available personally identifiable information. However, these provisions do not apply when the incident is unrelated to the provider's professional duties.

House Bill 2175 creates a funding loan repayment plan for mental health providers. The fund may be used to increase the number of psychiatric residencies, expand licensure cohorts to increase the number of master's level clinicians, and develop training, recruitment and supervision capacity.

HB2175 requires that the State Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services make every attempt to work with health care loan repayment programs operated by other states, tribal and federal agencies in order to fill the gaps in critically-needed mental health professions.

House Bill 2182, which was requested by the Department of Corrections, removes language that violates HIPAA in regards to inmates' infectious disease status. There are already statutory requirements for universal precautions when dealing with all inmates regardless of infectious disease status, which is However, we don't want to see legislation that clearly favors parts in urban or suburban areas of the state while our rural schools are hurting. We're still working to find common ground and settle on a plan that makes the most sense for every corner of our state.

We've also considered many bills designed to help regulate the medical marijuana industry, which is a major concern for my House District 42 constituents. The House has passed many bills to curb illegal activity, regulate the market, address resources use by rural grows and ensure property is not owned by a straw person.

These bills will help ensure the safe, legal free market that Oklahoma voters asked for when they approved State Question 788. Oklahomans want more guardrails to ensure illegal activity is curbed, and bad actors are found.

We have more bills to consider before session wraps up at the end of May, and I'll keep you apprised of any other major legislation we're considering.

Mother's Day is a tough day for them and many others around the world. This day may be very difficult for you.

My mother has also passed on but I remember her as one of the hardest working persons I've ever known. On Sunday and often during the week she loved getting dressed up and going to church. One of the greatest enjoyments of her life across my back side. was singing in a gospel quartet with my dad and another lovely couple.

If she were alive today, I would try to make up for all the things I didn't do or didn't consider doing. I always had good intentions for all the things I might try to do for mom and dad but they slipped from this life before I had the opportunity.

Beginning June 11, livestock owners must obtain a veterinarian's prescription to purchase certain animal medications.

The new rule is a continuation of the Food and Drug Administration's efforts to ensure the judicious use of medically important antimicrobials.

In 2017, the FDA implemented the original Veterinary Feed Directive rule, converting about 96 percent of the antibiotics used in animal medicine to veterinary feed direction drugs or prescription drugs.

I came across the most interesting book recently titled Hotel Galvez - Queen of the Gulf by Gary Cartwright.

It was so fascinating that I couldn't put it down.

The last quarter of the book were letters from people who had stayed at the Hotel Galvez and had written to the hotel about their experience. One in particular caught my eye. "1928

In 1965, chemist and mother of two Margaret Dayhoff, Ph.D., published a book containing all 65 then-known protein sequences in human biology.

Proteins are the product of DNA molecules combining in a series of amino acids that keep the body running smoothly. The order - or sequence - of those amino acids determines a protein's function.

Dayhoff applied innovative computer technologies to assemble the book and set in motion the birth of bioinformatics, which uses computer technology to collect, store, analyze and share biological data.

The work earned Dayhoff the respect families, improve edu- evolved from her concepts cation, and keep communities hold hundreds of thousands of protein sequences.

Each of the millions of data sarcoidosis, an inflammatory disease in which the immune system overreacts, causing clusters of inflamed tissue to form in different organs.

> As a pioneering woman in her field, Montgomery said she felt an "automatic kindred connection" with Dayhoff.

Dayhoff began computing small data sets on punchcard machines before digital computers were commonly available.

"We've had to broaden the scope since those days, but the fundamental mathematical concepts are the same," said Montgomery.

Where data was once isolated to a single lab, Dayhoff's innovations with early computer algorithms made it possible to create a "data ecosystem" with a goal of understanding how each finding fits into the larger world, said Montgomery.

"Recognizing 'mothers' of scientific fields provides honesty to the history of science," said Courtney Griffin, Ph.D., OMRF's vice president of research. "It also serves as an important source of inspiration for aspiring female scientists, who need to know that the path before them is not impossible or untrodden."

Montgomery and Griffin have something in common with Dayhoff beyond science both are mothers outside the lab.

"We juggle many projects at a time in data sciences," Montgomery said, "but mothers are used to managing personalities, relationships, practices, activities and more, so we have the skillset already."

Griffin's experience of motherhood has also provided training for her scientific career, she said. "It's taught me to be organized, efficient, and resilient in my own efforts and to be a cheerleader for others throughout the ups and downs of research."

Healthy choices

Jaclyn Miller and Mark Murray with the fruit basket promoted by the TSET Healthy Living Program coordinators.

Pilot fruit stand produces sales for Washington store

bles produce a healthy bottom eat less than one serving of fruit line for a small store?

St., in Washington is working with the TSET Healthy Living Program of McClain County to find out. And the answer to that question appears to be yes.

"Kids are coming in from school for lunch and they're buying them," said store manager Mark Murray. "Bananas are selling quickly and oranges the second most, though apples are selling too."

The TSET HLP works with partners at the local level to reduce tobacco use (especially in public areas), promote physical activity and increase access to healthy foods. One way to do that is encouraging local convenience stores to carry more healthy food options for their customers.

But would those customers buy healthy food? It's a valid question, as about 45 percent per day, on average, according Sid's Easy Shop, 109 N. Main to Oklahoma State Department of Health data.

> Jaclyn Miller and Ariel Anglin of the TSET HLP in McClain County developed a program for small stores to help them sell fruit, and Kent Smith of Sid's Easy Shop recently became the first store owner to pilot the project.

> Miller said through her program a participating store can pilot selling healthy foods at no financial risk. Miller will loan the store a four-basket stand and Norman Regional Health System, McClain Co.'s TSET sponsoring organization, will make a $100 donation for the initial order of fruit or vegetables.

> For the first pilot group, Miller didn't want unnecessary risk either; she wanted the pilot to take off!

So she and Anglin sought with a few more oranges.

> "We made a list of fruits and vegetables and asked students what they would like to buy, and apples, oranges and bananas were the most popular," Miller said.

Smith, the store's owner, wasn't initially sold on the idea for the pilot program, but went for it anyway.

"She came by and told us about it," Smith said of Miller. "I told her we wouldn't sell any, but we've sold more than I ever thought we would.'

The fruit baskets went up at the end of March, and Miller stocked them with two bunches of bananas and a few oranges and red and green apples. In a few short days, Miller delivered two additional bunches along

The fruits have proven popular for students and adults, and Sid's may continue selling fruit on their own after the pilot ends. And Miller hopes other stores will too, which would increase area residents' access to healthy foods - and their fruit and vegetable consumption.

Murray, the store manager at Sid's, has a final word of advice for a small store that wants to successfully sell healthy produce.

"You want to make money, but don't try to price it too high,' Murray said of the store's fruit. "We have not had trouble selling them. And I would look for foods that don't go bad quickly and don't need refrigeration."

If your store would like to partner with the TSET Healthy Living Program in McClain County to adopt this program, at no cost, please contact Ariel Anglin, Program Manager at aanglin@nrh-ok.com or by phone at 405-432-8737.

Sunday Worship 9:15 & 10:55 a.m.

Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church

By Stella Bledsoe

May 14, 2023 is the sixth Sunday of Easter. The Gospel to the aid of another; an advoreading is John 14:15-21. Jesus cate." The Paraclete is "The told the disciples, "If you love Holy Spirit as a helper or me, you will keep my commandments. I shall not leave you orphans. I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Paraclete to be with you forever."

In the 1960s, an English teacher at Moore High School, Mrs. Bennie Raine, made each of the students in her Honors English class carry a Funk and Wagnalls Standard College Dictionary along with their other books all day long.

Ithad 1606 pages, and I swear it weighed five pounds. Every week, we had to find 10 words for which we did not know the definition, look them up, and write the entire dictionary entry on a three-by-five index card.

Woe be it to anyone who did not hand in 10 cards each week. Until this week, I had never looked up the word 'paraclete' and, honestly, I am sure I always have skimmed right past it and figured out its meaning by the context of the passage.

A paraclete is "one called comforter."

Bishop Kasomo Daniel, Kenya, provides an excellent explanation."We are reminded today that we are called to love Jesus; that is part of the Christian calling. Those who keep Christ's commandments will, he promises, receive the Holy Spirit.

"The Holy Spirit, our Advocate, will gently indicate the way to us that we should go, the paths that need to be repaired, the relationships in need of further inspection or care. For this Advocate, the Spirit of Truth, is a gift from God. And being from God, it can never do harm, never do wrong, never lead us into danger.

"We may, of course, be led in ways that we did not expect or anticipate, but if we are truly open to God and all his gifts, then we must also be open to go where he would will for us to go.

again: Do we earnestly and genuinely wish for the Spirit of truth to enter into our hearts and stay with us always? If we are at all uncertain about any of our answers to these questions, then let us pray - pray that we might truly be open to the scriptures, open to God, open to Jesus and what he asks of us in love.

"And pray that we too might become filled with 'The Divine presence of the Holy Spirit' and completely open to the love and freedom in Christ that is promised to us as a result."

We celebrate the love of Jesus at Our Lady of Victory parish all year long. Our Lady of Victory parish is located at 307 West Jefferson.

The church administrative office is located at 501 N. 4th, and it is open weekday mornings, 405-527-3077.

We learned another reason fact that people just want to give it obligations that God never gave it. In this sermon we learned what the local church is, how it maintains itself, and what its responsibilities are.

After a reading of 2 Corinthians 5:14, Keith Shackleford's Sunday evening sermon focused on the statement "for What is the role of the local the love of Christ constraineth congregation? Interestingly, the first definition had to do with being held together so as not to fall to pieces. So, the study dug into the greater context beginning with 2 Corinthians 1 and showed how many areas in Paul's life were threatened to come apart if it were not for the love of Christ.

The sermon emphasized the idea that the apostle's own example is to encourage us during difficult times to remember Christ's love and that it is He who shall sustain us.

Melisa Dubbs sang "Revolution Song" for the morning special.

Brother John spoke from Ruth 1:1-5 with the subject "The Impact of a Decision."

Naomi lived in a time of the judges, a time of anarchy, when men were doing what was right in their own eyes, not what God said was right.

It was a time of famine. Naomi and her family left the promised land for the pagan land of Moab. Her sons marry Moabite women. In less than 10 years her husband and sons die. She ends up more destitute than she ever was before, with no one to provide for her.

The decision to move had an immediate and generational impact.

The evening message was from I John 2:1-2. We ought to abhor the sin we struggle with most. Sin is a reality we always have to deal with and a choice for the believer.

We have a faithful God who helps us deal with sin, who provides a way of escape from temptation. Jesus is an Lauren Talley from Calhoun, advocate for us and 100 percent Ga. righteous.

He is righteous in our stead and the propitiation for our sins. He is an offering given that appeased God of our sins, satisfying His wrath.

The goal of the believer is to avoid sin as much as is possible.

Pauls Valley Opry has star-studded evening

The May edition of the Pauls the Pauls Valley Opry" and Valley Opry was a star-studded evening with the "Stars" of the Year and 2022 Entertainer of Pauls Valley Opry.

Kicking off the show with some local talent, the "Singing Lawman" Micah Ayache made his second Pauls Valley Opry appearance and this hometown crooner knocked it out of the park!\Micah got everyone in a two-steppin' mood with the Darrell McCall hit, "Dreams of a Dreamer," then took us back to the 60s with the Stonewall Jackson tune, "Don't Be Angry."

You'll find Micah and his "Old Polecats Country Band" on the second Friday of every month at the Elmore City Senior Center. They are getting quite Anne Murray hit, "Oh, Lonea following!

Mary McDonald was back as a guest and this sweet lady stole the hearts of the Pauls Valley Opry crowd with the Dolly Pardon hit, "In the Pines." She took us back to the Golden era of Country Music with the God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels."

Mary and the Country Pride Band perform each third Saturday night at Mary's Music Barn, just south of Stonewall.

We are always so honored to feature our very own John Williams. John has one of the best baritone voices around and it was great to hear him sing, bringing back a lot of memories with the Kenny Rogers megahit, "The Gambler."

"Can't Help Falling in Love with You" to his beautiful bride, Theresa and you could have heard a pin drop. You never know what will happen at the Opry!

Missy Rude is the reigning Female Vocalist of the Year and a Pauls Valley Opry Hall of Fame Member. This sweetheart sang her heart out on the beautiful Buddy Holly/Martina Mc-Bride hit, "True Love Ways." Then Missy took us all to church with the Rachel Robinson tune, Mike Deviney, Annie Reed, "(Amazing Love) You Are My King."

Wiley Winters affectionately known as the "Gentle Giant of the 2022 Male Vocalist of the the Year showed us how it was done!

Wiley crooned his way into the hearts of those in attendance with the Ricky Van Shelton hit, "I'll Leave This World Loving You." He kicked it into overdrive and raised the roof with the Waylon Jennings classic, "Are You Sure Hank Done It This Away."

The beautiful gal from Runaway Bay, Texas, Cathy Lake was back onstage. This little Texas Sweetheart just nailed it from start to finish! Cathy got everyone boot-scootin' with the some Me."

True to her roots, the Texas came out in the gal with swing tune, "Texas Bluebonnet" made famous by Laurie Lewis. We could almost hear ole Bob Wills giving his stamp of approval.

Pauls Valley Opry Hall of Kitty Wells classic, "It Wasn't Fame Member and "Pastor of the Pauls Valley Opry" Mike Deviney was back and this Gospel Preacher had us in aisles! Mike entertained everyone with the John Anderson hit, "I'm Just an Old Chuck of Coal" His self-penned tune, "Where You Lead" had us all paying attention and sitting up in our "pews."

Mike and the "Deviney-Smith Band" are playing a lot of his original material and they are a great band. Check out their He dedicated the Elvis tune, Facebook page and find them on YouTube.

The Memory Makers Band added to the night's lineup with songs made famous by Patsy Cline, Tanya Tucker, Trisha Yearwood and Rita Coolidge.

We appreciate all our sponsors who advertise with us and to the patrons who faithfully support the Pauls Valley Opry with their attendance.

Please join us next month on Saturday, June 3. We will welcome guests Jae L Stilwell, Gunner Shi Donham, Haylie Bagwell, Rod Jones and Dana Price.

Unfortunately, not all mothers are as loving as God had in mind. Many children do not have the type of mother who will fiercely protect them and nurture them. Some are actually abusive. Others have not had good mothers themselves. Sadly, this means that they have not had an example of how to be a good and loving mother.

It is said that the bond a baby has with its mom is the baby's first relationship. Since mothers tend to be the primary caregivers, if children don't feel loved, they internalize that experience and feel unlovable. Attachment to Mom is vitally important: it is the longest and most reliable predictor of a child's cognitive, social, and emotional development.

Dibble Senior Citizens

Greetings from the Dibble Senior Citizens.

The garage sale was well worth the effort. We appreciate our community for the donations and showing up to buy some treasures. We plan to have another one in the fall.

Our community food pantry served 703 households during April which included 2358 people with 861 boxes. We appreciate our faithful volunteers who work hard every week to serve our community.

In an effort to distribute food to our community we receive donations from all avenues. This week we were privileged to receive a truck load full from the McClain County Emergency Management along with Life's Hope and Feed the Children. We appreciate these organizations for this generous donation. We also want to express our appreciation to McClain County District 3 for coming to our rescue to load all the pallets on the big box truck.

Regionals

The road to the State tournament went through Washington in the Regional tournament.

They defeated Purcell 12-0 to open the tournament.

Marlon Moore struck out three batters over five innings in a complete game for the junior hurler. He gave up four hits and no walks.

The Warriors scored two runs in the first inning but blew the game wide open when they hung a six spot on the Dragons in the second.

They added two more runs in each the third and fourth innings.

Dax McCaskill and Cam Bates both homered in the game. McCaskill was 2-3 with four RBIs. He also doubled while scoring twice.

Moore helped his own cause, going 3-4 with a triple and plating a pair of runners.

Jones

The Warriors squared off with Jones next in the first of two Regional tournament meetings.

Junior pitcher Tristin Babbitt dazzled in the 8-0 win, pitching a no-hitter and allowing no walks.

"I don't care where you are; to throw a no-hitter in the Regional tournament is pretty impressive,"Kulbeth said."We had three of the most dominate performances in a Regional that I've ever seen, and I've been doing this a long time. The way we performed on the mound, on defense, the way we ran the base - what a complete performance."

The Warriors jumped on the Longhorns early and put up three runs in the first inning.

HB1987 was signed into law, decriminalizing fentanyl test strips. This harm reduction bill will help prevent overdoses, assist with rehabilitation, and save lives. Nonprofits can now distribute these strips without fear or lawsuits. A crucial step forward," Rep. Dollens said.

According to the Oklahoma State Department of Health, fentanyl is one of the leading substances involved in the drug overdose crisis in Oklahoma.

In 2019, there were 47 fentanyl overdose deaths. In 2022, the number of deaths ballooned to 300 according to the Okla-

"Oklahoma is facing a serious addiction crisis and synthetic fentanyl is extremely deadly. The hope of this bill is to save vulnerable Oklahomans who are struggling with addiction," he concluded.
