Enrollment verification problems delay start of private school tax credit program

PaulMonies Oklahoma Watch

Families wanting to apply for a new private school income tax credit of up to $7,500 per child will have to wait a little longer.

The Oklahoma Tax Commission said late Thursday it was delaying acceptance of applications after several schools had problems getting enrollment verification forms to parents and guardians. The portal was supposed to open at 8:30 a.m. Friday.

The opening for the Parental Choice Tax Credit will now be delayed until 2 p.m. on December 6, the Tax Commission said.

"The decision to delay the application start date was not made lightly," the agency said in a written statement."Despite being disappointed with the delay, we believe this adjustment is necessary to establish a 'fair playing field' for all taxpayers, since having the Enrollment Verification Form is a required part of the application process."

Parents who encountered problems in recent days said they had turned in enrollment forms to their schools, which in turn had trouble uploading the verification documents to the website operated by a third-party vendor, Merit Inwith priority given to families with household incomes of $150,000 and below. The credit steps down at higher income levels, with households with income over $250,000 eligible for $5,000 tax credits per child. The median household income in Oklahoma is $57,000, according to the U.S. Census Bureau.

Because of the delay, a 60day priority period for families with household incomes of $150,000 or less will extend to Feb. 5, 2024.

Lawmakers put a $150 million cap on the program for tax year 2024. That will rise to $200 million in 2025 and $250 million in 2026.

"It was the Tax Commission's call on that," Stitt said in a brief interview Friday "There were a few schools that for whatever reason there was a technical error on getting that information back out to their parents. Most schools across the state, most parents had all the information to apply on Dec. 1, but I think I heard there were about 4,500 parents who did not have it."

Stitt, who has three children in private schools, said his family plans to take advantage of the income tax credit. Stitt, and his wife, Sarah, also have three older children.

"I think my wife was planning to fill out the form," Stitt said. "Everybody knows what my salary is as the state of Oklahoma governor. Every bit helps. There's caps on it, where we're going to prioritize it with the $75,000 and $150,000 (income levels) all in one bucket. Historically, the U.S. has imposed strict sanctions on Iran, and we must display strength towards such aggression around the globe. Attacks on the United States and our allies should be met with economic and military repercussions to help deter Iran from continuing aggression.

Our government successfully halted Iran's aggression and nuclear program in 2019 during the maximum pressure campaign authorized by the previous executive administration. Those policies retain merit today if only we had an administration with the resolution to implement them.

In the wake of Iran's increased support of global terrorism, I am proud the U.S. House of Representatives advanced last week, with strong bipartisan support, H.R. 5961, dients. Bring to a boil.

Reduce heat; simmer, uncovered, for 15 minutes or until heated through, stirring occasionally. The more time it has to simmer, the deeper the flavors.

If your preference is a "soupier" consistency, add a bit more water.

The recipe may also be made in a crock pot. Just dump all the ingredients in the morning (only with cooked taco meat option), run your errands and let it cook all day. If you have it on low, you can easily cook it for 6-8 hours. If you put it on high, cook for 3 hours and then turn to low. Since all meat is cooked, it's just about heating thoroughly and letting flavors meld.

In an interview, Russ said the free-speech protections. state's JP Morgan holdings are from typical banking operations offered by the company, not its investment division. His exemption.

"It's not really an investment with them, and they're not holding a pure investment," Russ said. "That is an area that at his retirement benefits being least for a while, we're going to have to make some exceptions because there's not anyone that can actually handle some of the transactional volumes. And it would probably take us 18 to 24 months to get set back up with somebody else."

Russ said JPMorgan's inclusion on the restricted financial company list was from the financial company's investment policies. He conceded that profits from all of the company's operations, whether banking or investments, were going to the same corporate entity.

"The parent company's philosophical position is what it is, even though the banking side doesn't make those kinds of decisions on the investment portfolios," Russ said. "But Russ said the spirit and intenuntil we can find appropriate relationships, we can't really separate ourselves from those accounts. They are more of a day-to-day checking account than an investment.'

Law

On Monday, a pensioner and former officer at the Oklahoma Public Employees Association sued the treasurer's office over the energy discrimination law. Attorneys for Tulsa retiree Don Keenan filed for a temporary restraining order in Oklahoma County District Court. Keenan and later was a human resources director at a Tulsa refinery.

The lawsuit said the law is unconstitutional and interferes with the duties of pension system trustees to operate for the exclusive benefit of their beneficiaries. It also said the law was overly vague and violated

"As a former employee of November 9, said the OPERS Sinclair Tulsa Refinery, Mr. Keenan does not have any objections to oil and gas opoffice continues to negotiate erations and believes they are with JP Morgan on a possible important and critical to the world economy," the petition said. "However, as a retiree under the OPERS system, Mr. Keenan does object to depleted because the State of Oklahoma believes that making political statements with retiree dollars is more important than taking care of retirees themselves."

In an emailed statement, tion of the law is to protect Oklahomans and the economic base of the state.

Meanwhile, OPERS has responded to a September letter sent by the Oklahoma State Retiree Files Lawsuit Over Pension Commission at Russ' request criticizing its process for taking an exemption to the energy boycott law. Russ, who chairs the State Pension Commission, said OPERS acted too quickly in taking the exemption.

Russ was the lone no vote when the OPERS board voted 9-1 in August to exercise a mawatch.org, is a nonprofit, worked for the state for 11 years financial responsibility exemption to the law so it wouldn't that covers public-policy issues have to divest $6 billion in facing the state.

pension assets managed by BlackRock Inc. Staff for the pension system said it could cost an estimated $10 million to divest holdings from BlackRock.

The OPERS letter to the State Pension Commission, dated board properly followed the law in taking an exemption. The pension system's request for proposal process for other potential investment managers attracted 51 responses, a number in line with industry norms.

"It is important to note at the outset that despite the claims, criticisms, misunderstandings of law and fact made in the (Pension Commission) letter and rhetoric displayed in meetings and the news media, the OPERS Board of Trustees and staff have been completely open and transparent in all actions and have at all times been willing to answer any questions regarding the RFP process and the resulting actions taken by the Board of Trustees," the 16-page letter said.

Last month, the Senate held an interim study on the implementation of the energy boycott law. Russ told senators the law needs to be clarified on how exemptions are taken. He also agreed with several senators that a provision affecting cities and counties should be removed from the law.

The State Financial Officers Foundation, a nonprofit headquartered in Kansas, has been supplying talking points and opinion columns to Russ and fellow Republican state treasurers and financial officials.

The materials critique the climate policies endorsed by shareholders of publicly traded banks and financial firms, part of a broader effort waged by conservative groups against environmental, social and governance policies.

Kenneth Wilton Harrington

Kenneth Wilton Harrington passed away December 4, 2023, at his daughter's home in Lexington, at the age of 92 years 3 months 6 days. A Visitation is scheduled from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, December 7, 2023, at the Wadley's Funeral Chapel. Graveside services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday, December 9, 2023, at the Hittson Cemetery in Mineral Wells, Texas, entrusted to the care of Wadley's Funeral Service.

Kenneth was born August 29, 1931, at the Harrington homestead, Palo Pinto County Texas along the Brazos River, to Paul Jackson and Willie Reese (Thomason) Harrington.

He was a talented athlete who loved playing sports, especially his first love, "Baseball". Kenneth talked many times about how he and his dad would go out into the fields along the Brazos River and play catch where he would dream of playing professional baseball.

This dedication to the sport led to a professional baseball career, beginning in 1949 in the Texas league, and ending with a year playing for the Cincinnati Reds baseball organization in 1954-55. One of Kenneth's proudest moments was when he beat out his biggest rival, another pitcher from Stevensville for a professional league contract.

Over the years, if you ever visited Kenneth or his dad, they were always watching or listening to a baseball game. Kenneth and his dad were passionate Texas Ranger fans, and this past year was able to see his team win their first World Series. Kenneth had a nickname "Gabbie", which was given to him by fellow teammates and opposing players. Not for talking all the time, it was because he never talked, so they gave him this nickname which stuck for life.

During Kenneth's baseball career, he was called to serve his country in active duty, serving in the United States Army during the Korean War from 1952-1954. Being a veteran was one of Kenneth's proudest accomplishments, something that he talked about often and took great pride in being able to say he served in time of war for the United States of America.

In 1955 Kenneth was married to his first wife, Ellen Grayce Patchett in Plainview, Texas, where he was playing baseball. Kenneth and Ellen had four children: Dennese, Gary and Kerri (twins) and Lynda. In 1957, Ellen and Kenneth moved to Oklahoma, where Kenneth would spend the next 66 years of his life.

On June 4, 1977, Kenneth married Dora "Dodie" Davis and they were together for 29 years until Dora's death on March 1, 2006.

Kenneth loved the outdoors, often sitting on his porch waiting for the moon to rise over the Oklahoma horizon, even if it was over 100 degrees outside. He loved to tinker and build things with his hands, although he wasn't a professional carpenter, he had a knack for knowing how everything went into place.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his parents, Willie and Paul Jackson Harrington; his daughter, Kerri Kirby; his brothers, Bill Harrington and Paul Harrington; his sisters, Delia Fallen and Ruth Davis; his son-in-law, Charles "Chuck" Rosenfelt; his great-grandson, Barron Lehr and wife, Dora Harrington.

Survivors include his daughter, Dennese Rosenfelt of Lexington, Oklahoma; his son, Gary Harrington and wife, Karin, of Kollweiler, Germany; his daughter, Lynda Gaither and husband, Jon, of Arlington Texas; his son-in-law, Rick Kirby; his son-inlaw and daughter-in-law, David and Lisa Davis of Haslet, Texas; along with 16 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren and numerous other relatives and friends.

Lynda Mae (Freeze) Moore

Lynda Moore died December 2, 2023 in Sherman, Texas, after dementia and a fracture to her hip.

Lynda Mae Freeze was born June 12, 1944 in Carnegie, Oklahoma. Lynda and her twin sister Glenda Fay Freeze were the last of eight children born to Arlie E. and Pearl G. (Sipes) Freeze of Mountain View, Oklahoma.

When Lynda and her sister turned 16 years (1960), the family moved to Purcell to a farm on Walnut Creek, west of the city, and the girls began attending Purcell High School. They really enjoyed the bigger high school. After graduating in 1962, Lynda was introduced to Leland Wesley Moore, the son of Allen and Sarah Moore of Purcell. They were married July 31, 1963 in Purcell and moved into a small apartment in Norman, where Leland was a student at the University of Oklahoma and in the Air Force ROTC.

Lynda and Leland had eight children, raising six to maturity. Mrs. Moore was primarily a wife, mother and homemaker. Her husband was an Air Force Pilot during the Vietnam War, and was often on temporary duty away from home. After his honorable discharge, Mr. Moore began his career as a commercial airline pilot, which again took him around the world for extended periods. This understandably added to the duties of a homemaker.

They made their home at various times in Norman, Oklahoma City, Del Rio, Texas, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, Anchorage, Alaska, Moore, Oklahoma, Purcell (near Woody Chapel), again Anchorage, and finally Goldsby. They were able to travel extensively around the US and the world. They were members and regular attendees of First Baptist Church Washington.

Lynda loved visiting with her parents, sisters and brother, cousins, in-laws and friends. She loved hosting holidays and other get-togethers at her house for family and friends. She was also a traveling hostess, often leaving the house with a dish of homemade lasagna, or pies and cakes ready to whip out at a moment's notice.

After her children were grown, she began helping in and then running the kitchen at First Baptist Church and continued in that service until her declining health forced her to stop. She also baked cakes and desserts for the restaurant and patrons of the Harry Bear's in Moore, until it was closed.

Lynda was preceded in death by her husband, Leland, on April 26, 2007. After several years widowed, Lynda met the widower JR Philips and they have been boon companions ever since.

Lynda was also preceded in death by her parents, Arlie and Pearl Freeze; her siblings, Maxine Fuchs, Gene Freeze, Arlene Mitchell, Cleta Wooldridge, Delta Wear and Glenda Ward; an infant brother; two children, Lon Jason Moore and Luke Jared Moore, and one grandchild, Conner Wu Moore.

Survivors include JR Phillips of Konawa, Oklahoma, and six children, Leslee Moore of Houston, Texas, Nicole Moore of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Lorrin Moore and his wife, Christina, of Chicago, Illinois, Lance Moore and his wife, Michele, of Kingston, Oklahoma, Lana Crevier and her husband, Steve, of Krugerville, Texas, and Landon Moore of Goldsby, Oklahoma; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren and innumerable nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held Friday, December 8, 2023 at Wilson-Little Funeral Home.

Funeral services for Lynda (Freeze) Moore of Goldsby will be held 10 a.m. December 9, 2023 at First Baptist Church Washington with Rev. Davies Vanpool officiating. Following the service, internment will be at Hillside Cemetery in Purcell alongside her husband, Leland Moore, under the direction of Wilson-Little Funeral Home of Purcell.

Warriors dig out of 18 point deficit

Oust Jones from playoffs for fourth straight year

John D. Montgomery The Purcell Register

It turned out to be the same song, sixth verse for Washington and Jones last Friday night but the game didn't start off well for the Warriors in their 35-34 state semifinals victory at Yukon.

For the sixth time in the last four years, Washington came out on top including the last four straight state playoff contests against Jones.

But last Friday night the Longhorns jumped out to a commanding 18-0 lead over the Warriors in the first quarter before Hudson Howard got the Washington on the board with a 48-yard scamper.

Howard carried the mail for Washington 21 times for 191 yards and scored the final Warrior score of the night, a 13 yarder in the fourth quarter.

"Hudson had a big night but I'm sure he would give all the credit in the world to his offensive line," head coach Brad Beller said.

Beller was referring to Kingston Stringer, Jordan Vanya, Tanner Winlock, Easton Berglan and BayNate Roberts and Cooper Alexander.

As it was, the Warriors rushed for 313 yards on 38 attempts but would have had closer to 400 yards on the

'Dawgs pick up first win

68-50 over Stratford last week

EmilyMontgomery The Purcell Register

The Lexington Bulldogs picked up their first win of the season with a 68-50 victory over Stratford last Friday.

Four 'Dawgs were in double figures, including 17 apiece from Drew Dierking, Ty Mixon and Colt Mixon. Skylar Rollins added 12.

"Four out of my five starters were in double digits. I'm proud of the guys for playing as a team and distributing the ball well," head coach Tyler Thetford said.

Lexington jumped out in front, scoring 12 points in the first quarter to Stratford's four.

"We mixed things up defensively against Stratford. I never let them get comfortable and changed defenses often."

Thetford's team was still win.

Despite Ty Mixon dropping in 32 points, Lexington dropped their first game of the season, a 73-59 loss to Sulphur.

Dierking and Colt Mixon added eight points each.

Sulphur held a nearly 20-point lead at halftime. And, they kept that cushion throughout the second half to pick up the win over Lexington.

"This was a very physical game and I think it caught the guys off-guard. The refs were letting the teams play. I encouraged them during halftime to fight back and go out and get fouls. We readjusted and won the second half," Thetford said.

> Kade Norman tallied the second Warrior touchdown run of the night on a one-yard plunge. Cantrell had the other score, a 17-yard burst in the third period.

> Jones threw in a few new creases on offense that caused consternation for the play callers on defense, namely Case Taylor, Keller Howard and Cole Beller.

> "They had their hands full with all the formations and all the new formations," Beller confirmed. "They made all the checks and all the calls. They just really took command of the defense on the field."

> Cole Beller led the defensive assault against the Longhorns with 11 tackles. Case Taylor finished with nine while Case Alexander and Naithen Spaulding each registered seven stops. Howard made six tackles

Last year Washington came programs," Washington Head from behind to win their second State Championship in "We're familiar with their school history and first since staff and familiar with their 1996, pinning a 17-14 loss on players."

OU wide receiver commit Jaden Nickens is the reason Washington is not playing Keifer in the finals.

Last week Keifer had scored the go-ahead touchdown with just seconds remaining. Keifer kicked off and the ball fell into the arms of Nickens who took the pigskin to the crib for a walk-off semifinal victory.

Sophomore quarterback Schuylar Turnbull started last year as a freshman and has command of the spread offense the Falcons utilize. "He's a great football player," Beller reports. "But their X-factor is Xzavier Thompson. He's their stud. "Those three are really good football players. Then there is their do-everything linebacker Cameron Carter," Beller said. Carter will line up sometimes in the backfield to rush the football. The other Falcon linebacker is the talented Micho Lavine. "Both of their linebackers are really good. They will both play college football," Beller predicted. Overall, Beller reports Millwood's 4-3 defense is as complete a defense as you can have in high school football. "They can stop the run and still limit you through the air. They are as physical as we have seen all year," Beller said. One key for a Warrior victory is getting out of the gate faster on defense. "We need to have a great start defensively. The last three weeks we have not played well early. We also need to limit their big plays," Beller said. "Offensively, we need to take care of the football and control the line of scrimmage," Beller said squarely putting the game on the shoulders of Baylor Haynes, Easton Berglan, Tanner Winlock, Jordan Vanya and Kingston Stringer. Warrior notes: Washington's Tanner Winlock will be playing Saturday in the State Championship football game, his 57th career game as a high school gridder.

It's tourney season Wayne teams in Binger starting today

EmilyMontgomery The Purcell Register

The Wayne Bulldogs dropped both games last week, falling to ECP 51-44 and Empire 54-48.

"We just keep having selfinflicted wounds. But, I know as we keep going, we'll get things figured out," said head coach Jackson Embry.

Going just 5/16 from the charity stripe did not help Embry's Bulldogs.

"We lost on free throws. We've had lots of work on those in practice recently."

Jaxon Dill and Ty Kemp led all Wayne scorers with 11 points in the loss. Bradey VanSchuyver added nine.

Last Friday, Wayne fell to Empire.

"We played hard enough to win, but we just keep shooting ourselves in the foot," Embry said.

"We had too many turnovers which put too much of a strain on our defense."

Webster was the leading scorer with 21 points and 15 rebounds. Dill added 15 points and nine rebounds. Ty Kemp had eight points nine rebounds.

Several guys have stood out to the coach during the young season.

"Wyatt is playing well. When he's on the floor, he splits the focus between himself and Jaxon. And Ty is scoring the ball well and has really stepped up his defense. And Bradey is playing good defense."

The Bulldogs were scheduled to host Little Axe on Tuesday. They will be in the Binger-Oney tournament starting

The Wayne Lady Bulldogs' offense has been sluggish through two games as they lost to ECP 40-31 and Empire 57-25.

"It's been tough to lose Kaylee (Madden) but we've had some girls step up for us, offensively. Two freshmen are getting lots of in-game experience and they're learning fast. Audra (Watts) and Taelyn (Ringwald) are playing good defense and getting used to the pace of the high school games," head coach Embry said.

Watts was Wayne's leading scorer in the loss to ECP with 13 points. She also had 12 rebounds.

According to Embry, free throws were a factor in their loss.

"We didn't hit our free throws down the stretch and we seem to be timid to shoot the ball."

Friday's loss to Empire was much the same. Faith Brazell and Watts were the leading scorers with seven points apiece.

Addison Keeler had 10 rebounds.

The Lady Bulldogs were scheduled to host Little Axe on Tuesday.

"They are quick and like to shoot the three. We have length on them so we'll work to spread them out with a 2-3 zone," Embry said.

Starting Thursday, Wayne will be in the Binger-Oney tournament. They play Binger at 7 p.m.

Wednesday at 7 p.m. This coming week we are examining a few more songs in our book, and the remaining weeks of December we'll be studying quickly and briefly through the book of Hebrews as our plan is to begin a one-year survey of the Old Testament beginning in January.

Sunday morning Bible study begins at 9:45 a.m. and this week we continued our discussion of today's digital age and the issues we may face in it. Among other things, we were challenged to think about the concept of the trustworthiness of electronic Bibles verses the traditional printed Bibles.

It was pointed out that through the centuries people have tried altering the Bible already, some of which have text that if we have received made it into print, but that the modern digital platform makes root, our foundation (v. 7), and these attempts quicker and that means we have heard the Bible study begins each more widespread in potential word of God for the developeffect.

> The morning sermon brought by Keith Shackleford was, he said, the first in a new brief series on the Immutability of God. He examined the term "immutable" as found in Hebrews 6 and showed that the promise of God was sealed with an oath, both of which were immutable, or unchangeable.

The study then focused on the eternal nature of God and how that is unchanged, or as the Bible says "from everlasting to everlasting."

Sunday evening we began with a reading of Colossians 2:6-15 with verse 6 serving as the working title for the sermon: "As ye have therefore received Christ... walk ye in him."

It was established from this Christ we have received our ment of our faith; and that receiving Christ is receiving truth, not fables or philosophies (v.8); and that receiving Christ means we are receiving the very Son of God, for "in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily," (v. 9).

Furthermore, the sermon pointed out that if we have received Christ we have received our spiritual surgeon, our lifegiving redeemer, and victorious conqueror (v. 11-15). In conclusion, we learned that if we have indeed received Christ we really must live like it!

We invite you to meet with us at 407 Jackson St. in Purcell for Bible study at 7 p.m. Wednesday night and 9:45 a.m. Sunday. Our worship services on Sundays are 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

December 10, 2023 is the one in front of us is going too second reading is Second Peter 3:8-14.

St. Peter says we must never forget that the Lord is not being slow in carrying out his promthousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

The gospel reading is Mark 1:1-8. Instead of beginning his gospel about Jesus's birth, he says, "The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God." He reminds his readers that the prophet Isaiah foretold about a messenger who would come before the Lord. The messenger was John the Baptist, a humorless, strangely dressed fellow who said, "After me is coming someone who is

The slow; the price of the car we want is too high so instead of prudently saving or buying a cheaper car, we finance more than we can afford; we want more money now, so we steal it; ises, but he is being patient with we want "benefits", so we live us. To the Lord, a day is like a together instead of committing to marriage.

> When we confess our sins, how many are a result of our failure to exercise patience?

> We need to learn God's time and avoid those sins of impatience that cause so much harm. Teach us, Lord, to wait patiently until the proper moment. Teach us, Lord, to wait in joyful hope.

Several events will be occurring in the next few days. The Solemnity of Immaculate Conception is December 8 and is a more powerful than me, and I Holy Day of Obligation. Mass am not fit to kneel down and in English will be at 5 p.m. and mass in Spanish will be 7 p.m. On December 9, the Nativity Pageant will be presented by the Religious Education Children at 5 p.m. mass. The Altar Society's First Annual Advent by Candlelight Service is Sunday, December 10, from 4-7 p.m. in the office basement. Enjoy a lovely candlelight evening of fellowship, food, and speakers to refresh your spirit during the Advent Season.

The Solemnity of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be celebrated on December 11 and 12. There will be Mariachis playing Las Mañanitas (Morning Prayer) at 11 p.m. on Monday night, December 11, lasting until 12:30 a.m. Tuesday evening at 6 p.m. The rosary will be recited in the Parish Hall followed by procession with the Statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe from the Parish Hall to the Church during which the Parish children will play the Mexican dance. Good week to all. Welcome stuck with me. to the "front porch."

\Well, we are in the early days that occur every year between Thanksgiving and Christmas, and the two continue to blend together. But in the days that lie ahead of us, we are going to be concerned more and more with the upcoming Christmas and with all the gifts we want to buy and give.

Thinking of that reminded me of something I learned a long time ago -- of the gifts we do not want to receive, the gifts we "send back." It is a lesson from a story my chiropractor, Dr. Jack taught me a long time ago.

Dr. Jack, you see, would not just straighten up your bones and joints. He would help straighten you up sometimes in between the ears.

You understand.

We were talking one day when it was slow at his practice, and he told me a story that has

He said that once there was a king who would go throughout the land to share a positive message of hope for the citizens of his kingdom, most of whom were very poor.

But at every stop, the unappreciative crowd who came out to see him and hear him would throw fruit, eggs, and rocks at the king.

This act of disrespect went on for some time, but the king still went out to deliver his positive message throughout his kingdom, seemingly oblivious to the ill-treatment he received in return.

At the castle after one trip, the queen, said to him, "King, why is it that you do this? You go out there and encourage the people and give them hope, and all they do is abuse you by slinging stones!" "Oh," said the king with a grimace, "it's something I have to do. It's a message I have to deliver."

Then he gave his good wife a soft smile, and said, "There's something else, too."

He paused.

"My father taught me something when I was just a boy," he said. "His words still help me every time somebody slings something negative my way. He told me that just because people give you gifts -- well, that doesn't mean you have to accept them."

I smiled at the good doctor when he told me that story, and I said, "I like that, Doc. So I need to be sure to give as many good gifts as I can to as many people as I can. But I need to know there are gifts some give me that I will need to send back."

Dr. Jack left us some years later, but his great lesson that day, his gift, never will.

Our December Food Give Away will be Saturday, December 16, from 12 to 4 p.m. This is the opportunity to get ready for the Christmas holiday.

We were able to feed about 200 people at the Community Thanksgiving Feast. Pastor David and all our church appreciate the support we received in providing this to our area.

I haven't written in a while because my heart is troubled with all that I see and hear going on in our world. The Middle East, Ukraine, even Africa has so much war and turmoil going on.

Our country is involved around the edges. Our own citizens who are Americans yet are of Palestinian and Israeli heritage are being persecuted even in our country.

We are trying to help those who are trying to retain and/or regain their freedom at the expense of complicating our own country's stand.

We are a country divided by many political things, which I won't list.

When I was young, I once heard an evangelist remark that very few countries have been able to retain their political system for more than 200 years.

I had hope at that time that we, as a democracy, would be able to be the exception. In the past year and months, I am so afraid that he is right...

In this time of Advent, the remembrance of the coming of Jesus, let us reconnect with the peace on Earth that God has charged us with working toward. May God, no matter what name we use for prayer, bless us and help us to work together for that end.

Let there be peace on Earth, and in all our Universe, and let it begin with us!

Please join us in this season of Advent. We have worship at 9:30 a.m. every Sunday, followed by coffee, tea, and fellowship. Sunday school starts at approximately 11 a.m.

Our address is 631 East Ash, just west of Lexington High School.
