Welcome!

Dear Readers,

The Sullivan County Democrat would like to welcome you to our twenty-seventh edition of "Where to Go, Where to Stay, Where to Dine." We hope you will keep this handy 48-page guide by your side as your ticket for summer fun in Sullivan County.

The Summer of 2021 is going to be the rebirth of events and our local businesses will also all be open to welcome you in.

Whether you are new to the area, visiting for the first time or have roots as deep as the oaks on Main St., this summer guide will help you make the most of this summer.

May we humbly suggest a trip to The Forestburgh Playhouse, which is celebrating its 75th Season this year. The great plays and performances will not disappoint. Also, Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is reopening and has several concerts on tap.

And two of our truly favorite events, The Grahamsville Little World's Fair and Wayne County Fair are both back. These country fairs date back more than a century and will bring you back in time and educate you on the great agricultural community we are fortunate to call home.

For those who prefer entertainment or a touch of shopping and fine food, what better place to start than right here. Our villages offer great shopping, wonderful restaurants and there's no better time than now to check out our Dove Trail (pages 24-25).

So get on your travel shoes, crack open our wonderful guide and explore everything Sullivan County has to offer. And make sure you tell them... Where to Go, Stay & Dine sent you!

Very truly yours,

The Upper Delaware National Scenic and Recreational River encompasses 76.5 miles of the Delaware River from Hancock to Port Jervis. Much of the Upper Delaware borders Sullivan County, New York and Wayne County, Pa. with numerous public accesses and plenty of places to fish, swim and recreate. Fishing licenses are reciprocal to both states so only one license is needed whether you are entering from New York or PA. Enjoy rafting or canoeing from one of the many rental businesses along the river. It's a day sure to make memories. Also, please remember to pick up your trash and always respect private property.
