Woodbourne honors veterans

STORY AND PHOTOS BY PATRICIO ROBAYO

Everyone salutes the flag during the Woodbourne Veterans Day Ceremony.

Woodbourne Chaplin Jim Kaufman, started by thanking everyone for coming out to honor those who have served.

This year's Parade Marshal was Sergeant Christopher W. Sutowski, who served in the U.S. Army, U.S. Army Reserve, 50th Armored Division, New Jersey National Guard. He is a Cold War Veteran and Gulf War Veteran having served between the years of 1976-1995.

He is a multi-decorated veteran, a Life Member of the Loch Sheldrake Fire Department, and a Past Captain of the Fire Police.

Moreover, every year the Woodbourne Fire Department honors one of their veterans who has shown commitment to the community, and Walter Van Vleet fits that bill.

He is a multi decorated veteran with over 20 years of service who joined the Army in 1988 and was involved with Panama, Desert Storm, Uphold Democracy Haiti, and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He's also a long-time firefighter.

Guest Speaker Sullivan County Sheriff Mike Schiff said that the Veterans are the ones who guarantee our rights.

"They fought and bled for us so that we could do what we do in a free country. Today everybody should take a little time to contemplate the sacrifices that these people have made," said Schiff.

Senior Chief Joseph Collura, a multi-decorated veteran of the United States Navy and a guest speaker, said, "Yes, this day is here to honor Veterans and their service and sacrifice. But what Veterans most want for you to honor is this nation and all that it stands for."

Sullivan County Judge, Honorable Jim Farrell reminded folks what Veterans Day is all about and what brave steps the men and women in the armed forces took to get us where we are as a nation today.

"America stands free today, because of our veterans, not our politicians, not our elected representatives," said Farrell.

He added that we need to remind the younger generations of the past battles and what happened in them, so the veterans' efforts and the reason they fought for are never forgotten.

As the Veterans, First Responders, and residents stood outside the Woodbourne Firehouse, Farrell quoted President Ronald Regan, "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free."

From the left, Parade Marshal Sergeant Christopher W. Sutowski, Woodbourne Fire Department Honoree Walter Van Vleet, and Senior Chief Joseph Collura.

Senior Chief Joseph Collura, a multi-decorated veteran of the United States Navy, was a guest speaker during the Woodbourne Veterans Day Ceremony.
