embracing springtime

The Sullivan Catskills is a popular destination for travelers seeking a mix of outdoor adventure, cultural experiences, and relaxation.

From hiking and fishing to wine tasting and art galleries, there is something for everyone in the Sullivan Catskills. We're home to several quaint towns and villages, each with its own charm and personality.

Visitors can explore the stunning Catskill Mountains, relax on the shores of pristine lakes, and enjoy a wide range of outdoor recreational activities such as hiking, fishing, and camping.

Sullivan Catskills is also known for its rich history, with several museums and landmarks that offer a glimpse into the past. For instance, visit the Museum at Bethel Woods where you can explore the unique experience of the 1969 Woodstock Music and Art Fair and its significance as a culminating event of the decade.

Also paying homage to the Woodstock festival is the Sullivan Catskills Dove Trail. This public art trail features 61 dove sculptures hand painted in brilliant 1960s colors by talented local artists. You can drive through the beautiful scenery to try to find them all.

And stay tuned—even more Doves will be unveiled this spring and summer.

Additionally, the county is home to a vibrant arts and music scene, with numerous festivals and events throughout the year. Check out TAP New York Craft Beer & Music Festival at Bethel Woods on May 20 and 21. The Festival of the Founding Fish, a week-long celebration of the American shad, will be held the last week of May. And Catskills Pride and Catskill Provisions team up to host a Pride month kick-off event on May 28.

Right now, we're really starting to bloom and it's the perfect time to explore our hiking trails and farmers' markets. Pick up some local veggies, meats, cheese, bread, baked goods, and more at one of the many markets throughout the region.

There's so much to do; visit www.sullivan-catskills.com to start planning your itinerary. Make sure to follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter to stay up to date on all happenings, and download the free app Sullivan Catskills GO.

In British slang Clobber (pronounced Claw-bur) is the word for clothes or gear, and was one of the inspirations for the shop Laz Edebiyi and Maxine Edwards decided to open on Barryville's main street in July of 2020, Clobr.

Originally they had looked at opening a place in Livingston Manor, and later considered Narrowsburg, but when they took a trip out to Barryville they quickly fell in love.

Clobr is located at the main intersection with the Delaware River flowing right in front of them and Halfway Brook meeting the river to the side of them. In winter it's calm and quiet, and in summer it's bustling with river-goers.

"When we came out this way, Maxine Clobr is petite, but mighty, with popping colors, unique quality garments, and scents anyone would love.

saw this little shop and we both thought it was the perfect place to be,” said Laz.

Stepping into the shop, it’s pleasantly surprising to find that it’s geared predominantly towards men.

“We do have some women’s stuff in here, but part of the inspiration for opening this shop was not seeing many places around that carry a lot of mens clothing, and that’s something that I wanted to offer,” explained Laz. “Joan at Narrowsburg Proper actually had some mens items in the back of her store, which she ended up giving to us to help us get started, as she’s focusing more on gourmet foods now.”

So Maxine and Laz got to work getting the little shop ready to open.

"I'm the front of the shop," said Laz, "but Maxine has been instrumental in the ideas behind a lot of what is in here. I really trust her eye."

One of the first things you notice walking in is the beautiful wallpaper on the left wall and the pleasant scent from the burning candle that tickles your nose.

According to Laz, except for the mens shaving products, most of the scents - deodorants, colognes, and candles - are unisex scents and can be worn and used by anyone. He pointed to one deodorant that his Mom loves.

“I had people in their 20s or 30s in mind for the shop, but I’ve had a lot of teenagers from the schools come in. They like the oversize look,” stated Laz. “I’ve also noticed that since the pandemic people are dressing more for how comfortable they want to feel throughout the day, so although I do carry jeans, I’ve been getting in a lot more casual clothing.”

immersion therapy

story by Autumn Schanil, photos by Autumn Schanil and Willow Baum

The old saying April showers bring May flowers couldn't be truer here in the Catskills (it also brings a lot of mud but that's pretty normal for those of us who love it here!). Magnolia trees are in bloom with large pink flowers that fill you with awe. The colors of Daffodil, Crocus, Iris, Trillium, and Common Blue Violets are scattered along the roadways, people's gardens, and shallow woods. Ramps (wild onions), wild ginger, garlic mustard, and wild strawberry are popping up out of the ground if you know where to look. Dogwood trees and forsythia bushes shine with brilliance.

Flowers aren't the only things coming to life, peepers are heard far and wide in all bodies of water, geese are trumpeting their return, deer are nesting in the fields, turkeys are dancing and puffing their feathers, and birds are singing in the mornings.

It's a beautiful time to get out and get hiking.

Some of the most beautiful hiking trails in NY can be found right here in the Catskills, ranging from easy walking to intense climbing.

Frick Pond Loop, located at Beech Mountain Road in the Willowemoc Wild Forest is an easy to moderate 2.2 mile loop that travels through varied terrain from forest and meadows, to wetland. Boardwalks have been installed in certain areas of the trail, making it a family-friendly hike.

The Neversink River Unique Area, or the Neversink Gorge Trails, is a harder 8.4 mile trail located at Katrina Falls Road, south of Rock Hill. Most of this loop follows the banks of the Neversink River, but you can follow off-shooting trails that lead to Denton Falls, High Falls, and Mullet Brook Falls. It's a well maintained

There are plenty of walking and hiking trails of various terrain to be found here that are well maintained, and give a glimpse of what makes the Catskills so special.

The BashaKill Area has great trails and loops that lead through wetlands where duck, geese, and beavers seek refuge and surrounding forest where you can spend an afternoon identifying various plants.

Setting out for a walk or a hike, with friends or alone, is one of the best ways to beat those winter blues, connect to nature, get your body moving, and clear your mind.

and marked trail with several bridges here and there, but it can sometimes be slippery with the abundance of surrounding water, so bring sturdy hiking shoes.

Tusten Mountain Trail, or Ten Mile River, located on Tusten Road just a few minutes drive on Route 97 from Narrowsburg is a moderate trail about three miles long. Red Ten Mile River and yellow Scouting symbols mark the trail that begins along the river and then crosses over a stone bridge.

The BashaKill Area has a few loops you can take that range in difficulty. Haven Road to Tower, out and back, is an easy 2.3 mile walk through the marsh toward the rail trail and observation tower. Haven Road toward Wurtsboro is a moderate 4.7 mile round trip, while the BashaKill Southern Loop is a more strenuous 10.4 mile hike. Whichever loop you choose you're sure to see geese or ducks in the water, water lilies and cattails, various birds, and maybe even a beaver or two.

Jensen's Ledges, or the Bouchoux Trail is a moderate 2.1 mile hike located near Lordville that leads up to rock ledges overlooking the Delaware River and the Catskill Mountains. It's perfect for an early morning with the sun coming through the trees, a stop at the waterfall to the right along the way, and the stone quarry where visitors have constructed stone seats, benches, and art forms.

The Rail Trails have been a big focus in Sullivan County the last few years. They are easy, accessible trails that follow the O&W Rail Trail. Some parts are now paved for access to wheelchairs, bikers, walkers, and hikers alike. There are Rail Trails in Parksville, Liberty, Hurleyville, and Fallsburg.

Other walking and hiking trails can be found at Walnut Mountain in Liberty, Balsam Lake Mountain in Beaverskill, Circle Park in Glen Spey, Crystal Lake Loop in Fremont, Huggins Lake Trailhead in Andes, or the Minisink Battleground Park near Barryville.

So awaken yourself, put your feet on the ground, and find your next hike.

Tusten Mountain Trail is a beautiful walk along the river, and offers lovely views at its summit. Just follow the red trail markers!

Bethel Lakeside Music

Music has the power to move us like no other art seems to. It has the ability to transport us back in time, to tap into memories and feelings, and to allow people to step outside of themselves for a little while.

In Bethel, music is always in the air, from the concert series Bethel Lakeside Music to the Kauneonga Lake Farm and Makers Market, to the Holiday Series Christmas, Hanukkah, and Kwanza.

Sullivan County's longest running continuous summer concert series is now in its 7th year, featuring 11 fun-filled concerts every Thursday evening from 6- 8 pm starting June 29th through September 7.

The Bethel Lakeside Music & Art outdoor concerts are for everyone - bring your family, friends, or just yourself with a blanket and chair, and with plenty of restaurants in the area for dinner or drinks afterwards, you could stick around to watch the sunset on the lake.

The project is made possible in part with funding from a Sullivan County Arts and Heritage Grant, funded by the Sullivan County Legislature and administered by the Delaware Valley Arts Alliance.

Sponsors include the Town of Bethel, The Bethel Local Development Corporation (BLDC), the Bethel Council of the Arts (BCA), the Bethel Business Association (BBA), and
