dedicated to the 4-H program showing off their livestock for public viewing. Held in the livestock barn at all hours of the day, their owners are glad to answer any questions that people may have.

- A majority of the livestock events are hosted on Friday including shows of horses, swine, sheep, goats, poultry and alpacas. After these events, you can catch special performances from Bubbledad as children and adults alike can enjoy beautiful bubbles floating in the sky. Bubbledad will have performances throughout the fair so be on the lookout for them. While Bubbledad is performing, there will also be live music featuring Albi Beluli from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m. and Far Beyond Gone from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. As the music roars throughout the night, attendees are encouraged to try a brand new event at the fair titled the Power Wheels Derby. There will be classes for children ages 3-5 as well as 6-10 year olds. More information can be found on the Little World Fair website under Entry Forms.

- Saturday is a full day of performances and other fun events. From 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. there will be a children's scavenger hunt hosted by the Neversink Parks and Rec. Show off your treasure hunting skills and search for all the items dispersed all across the fairgrounds. During the scavenger hunt, there are a plethora of other events such as a watermelon eating contest at 11 a.m., a lumberjack show from 12 p.m. until 5 p.m. and live music performances from BJ, The Other Band, Shane Rennison and 80s vs 90s Show. To end the night there will be a fireworks display starting at 9:30 p.m.

- The final day of the fair has a balanced schedule of events and performances. There will be an all day horseshoe tournament starting at 10 a.m., a draft horse pull beginning at noon, a classic car show from noon until 4 p.m. as well as an auction from 4-H at 1 p.m. There will be multiple live performances from artists such as Jesse Noren and Somerville. The fair will end at around 6 p.m. so make sure you have as much fun as possible before it ends.

Fixing up the Fairgrounds

STORY AND PHOTOS BY CAROL MONTANA

Members of the Neversink Agricultural Society have been hard at work the past year – as they are every year – painting and building, gardening and fixing, renovating and retrofitting structures and systems at the Grahamsville Fairgrounds.

Directors of the Neversink Agricultural Society Tom Byrne, Kyle Butler, John Garigliano and Jim Schulte – just a small sampling of the all-volunteer Ag Society crew – were at the Fairgrounds this past Thursday working on creating brand new benches to surround the Main Ring, where events like the Draft Horse Pull, Power Wheels Derby and Bessie Bingo take place.

Garigliano, who is also Vice-President of the Society, said the benches are just one of many projects they've been working on this year. "We painted all the buildings on the grounds, constructed a new building, completely renovated the main bathroom, resurfaced
