Roger Baker

Hi... I'm Roger Baker... an artisan/craftsman who is also the author of this fun weekly column in the Sullivan County Democrat called 'On the Road with Roger Baker.'

Traveling and criss-crossing Sullivan County's almost 1,000 square miles has been and still is very interesting... I never know what scene is going to pop up and inspire the next column. Anything from a single tree to a beautiful building with some cool history.

Living in an adjacent county insists that I cross the county line to enter Sullivan County, of which there are many entrances... one of these days I will compile a list of entrances.

I only take a handful of pics at a time to work from... which keeps the illustrations current and seasonal enough to be recognized in their timeframe.

My originals are the same size as the available prints... 49 sq. inches (7"x7") which seems to be a very reasonable, manageable size to work with.

The art is mostly colored pencils and wash... however some other mediums wind up contributing (coffee, housepaint, woodstove ash... and maybe even a little breakfast).

Views from the road comprise the majority of the drawings... hence 'On the Road.'

Depicting the road surface with all the traffic lines and character lend a lot of familiarity to the piece.

Sometimes I go inside local establishments to get a bite or look at some cool stuff... have a cup of coffee and wind up drawing that experience for the column.

This weekly exercise of making the deadline (it is a printed newspaper after all) with an illustration of a cool point of interest in Sullivan County is just as interesting currently as it was over 400 weeks ago. Wow!

Some of the other creative interests I've experienced during my career have been mowing large images into hayfields, sign painting and pinstriping on various vehicles (mostly vintage) and the pursuit of hang gliding since the mid-seventies... which was responsible for discovering this beautiful area in the Hudson Valley where I reside with my wife Carolyn, Forest our dog, Rosie the hen and Sal the rooster.
