T-G Photo by David Melson

Shelbyville Fire & Rescue personnel check smoke rising Sunday night from a building on West Jackson Street. The building, once part of Southern Energy, is currently being used for storage, Fire Marshal Jason Richardson said. The cause has not been determined, according to Richardson.

SCHS student carries BB gun

By DAVID MELSON

Law enforcement is keeping a close watch on Shelbyville Central High School after a student allegedly brought a bb gun onto the campus Monday morning.

"It was reported this morning that a student was in possession of a weapon. The student was immediately by the School Resource Officer and has been removed from campus," Deputy Chief Brian Crews of the Shelbyville Police Department said.

Police emphasized no students or staff were harmed. The school was placed on "soft lockdown," Chief Deputy Nikia Elliott of the Bedford County Sheriff's Office said.

"We don't feel like there's any credible threat, we're just taking every precaution," Elliott said.

"The SRO has verified this was a bb gun and not a firearm," Crews said.

Local principal shares grief over student loss

By DAWN HANKINS
 dhankins@t-g.com

This is an ongoing series of articles relating to teen suicide. A funeral was recently held for a Cascade Middle student who took his own life—an event some are deeming a result of in-school bullying.

In his years as teacher and now principal of Cascade Middle School, David Parker believes the recent suicide of one of his students has been the most painful experience in his career as an educator.

"As a principal, I love and care deeply for each of my students. This tragedy has been devastating for our staff at Cascade Middle School and has been the most painful experience in my career as an educator. As a parent, I cannot begin to imagine the pain and grief the . . . family is experiencing."

Though some Facebook followers have been hard-pressed to blame Cascade Middle for the event, Parker said he's met twice with the teen's family, since his passing and has another meeting planned for this week.

"We are working together to try and develop something good to come out of this, whether that be more awareness training for our students, staff and the community, or something else."

When asked if his school will be putting any different protocols in place to prevent bullying, Parker said there are school policies in place. But, he admits those same policies the school system currently has in place for handling bullying situations is effective, only if reporting and communicating is done by students, parents, and staff.

"We do have systems in place, and we do fully investigate anything brought to our attention. In fact, we just completed a bullying awareness with all CMS students in early November. School systems are in the kid business. While focusing on testing results is important for measuring achievement and growth, focusing on students and their social and emotional well-being is the most important; it trumps everything."

The principal said in fact, focusing on people is critical for any organization, not just schools. "Bullying, including cyber-bullying, is a societal issue for us all."

Parker said grief counseling will continue to be provided at the school for as long as is needed.

Despite whatever is done, the 12-year-old will be missed, particularly by Parker.

"I have been in continual communication with them since this tragic event occurred. I met with them on the day of his funeral and the day following. As part of the healing process and to honor him, we will meet again next week to develop and implement an additional anti-bullying program at Cascade Middle and to create an environment even more encouraging for reporting and solving issues," Parker said.

School system bullying policy

The policy for student harassment and bullying within Bedford County School System is reviewed each year. The policy clearly states: "administrators are responsible for educating and training their respective staff and students as to the definition and recognition of discrimination/harassment."

In the case of a local middle school student, who apparently took his own life recently, was that enough? Some say the "bullying" the child was experiencing should have been stopped in its tracks. But some fear it went on way too long and the end result was tragic.

Some local parents informed the Times-Gazette this year that the same school community was allowing bullying to go on with little intervention. Those same parents said, as a result, they've "pulled their kids out of Bedford County public schools."

The school system's bullying policy, just re-approved in July, also states that by definition, bullying, intimidation and harassment substantially interferes with a student's educational benefits, opportunities or performance. This means if a student causes such emotional stress to another student or creates a hostile educational

SANTA BREEZES IN

In a Cessna, rather than a sleigh, Santa arrived in fashion at Shelbyville Municipal Airport on Saturday morning to an anxious crowd. "Elves" were on hand to assist. Some kiddos were more happy to see Santa Saturday at the airport event than others. Well, these make nice photos to show in high school years.

Students serve up happy holiday

Submitted Photos

On Nov 30, Cascade FFA and National Elementary Honor Society (NEHS) members volunteered at the Bridge Ministries in Nashville. While there, 35 students packed 750 kid meals, 250 boxes of food and wrapped numerous presents. The members exhibited teamwork, cooperation, and a willingness to live the FFA Motto "Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve" as they accomplished this in less than one and a half hours. This effort will help the Bridge Ministries deliver nearly 4,000 kid meals and serve over 200 hot meals.

Authorities said they were investigating a report that the boy had been in a dispute with another youth.

Parents were notified of the incident by robocall and another call was likely, Elliott said.

The SPD will increase patrols in the area around campus over the next few days, according to Crews.

"Threats of this nature will not be tolerated and will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law," Crews said.

environment, that student has violated school board policy 6.304.

Principals, like Parker, are tasked with the responsibility of determining whether an alleged act constitutes a violation of this policy. The policy protects students by asking if the child was placed in reasonable fear or harm as well as whether the student's physical or mental health is substantially affected.

To protect students, the bullying policy, which also includes cyber-bullying activity, has an entire section devoted to complaints and investigations. Any individual who had knowledge of behaviors that may constitute of a violation of this policy are charged with bringing such information to the principal of the involved school.

The policy states:

"While reports may be made anonymously, an individual's need for confidentiality will be balanced with obligations to cooperate with police investigations or legal proceedings to provide due process to the accused, to conduct a thorough investigation or to take necessary action to resolve a complaint. The identity of parties and witnesses may be disclosed in appropriate circumstances to individuals with a need to know.

In the end, principals are tasked with investigating the initial complaints and registering them with school system.

The complete student discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyber-bullying and intimidation policy can be received from the local school system. Those concerned should ask for policy 6.304 and any suggested changes should be presented to Director of Schools Tammy Garrett.

Theft suspect refuses to stop for police

By DAVID MELSON
dmelson@t-g.com

An Alabama man was arrested after allegedly taking a Yeti cooler from a vehicle at a Shanna Lane home early Sunday.

Michael Joseph Mannion, 36, of Huntsville was using a flashlight as he entered vehicles in the Brookhaven subdivision, police were told. Officers Tracy Teal and Brad Evans followed Mannion's car for two miles into downtown Shelbyville on South Cannon Boulevard at low speed as he allegedly refused to stop.

Officers were eventually able to reach into the car and grab Mannion when he stopped at the North Cannon Boulevard-West Jackson Street intersection.

Mannion was charged with evading by motor vehicle, burglary, theft under $1,000 and resisting stop/frisk/halt/search. He was held on $28,000 bond.

Speeding wreck

Several witnesses told police they saw a man speeding on an estimated 70-90 mph on Union Street shortly before a crash Friday night.

A passenger said he asked Forrest W. Mason, 49, of Special Court to slow down before he struck two utility poles, breaking both in half, and ending up with his car on its side. The witnesses said they saw the car fishtailing before the crash.

Neither Mason nor his passenger were seriously injured.

Mason denied speeding and told police he was driving home and lost control of the car. He was cited into General Sessions Court for reckless driving.

Struggle

A suspect struggled with officers before surrendering Friday night, police said.

Officer Brad Evans saw Joel Dean Cagle, 41, of Henderson Road and conducted a traffic stop on Madison Street in the old Rite-Aid parking lot. Cagle was driving on a revoked license and was wanted on two child support warrants, Evans' report said.

Cagle allegedly refused to place the vehicle in park, hand over the keys or remove his hands from the steering wheel until forced to do so by three officers.

The report said Cagle suffered a small cut to his forehead and scraped hand as Officers Evans, Tracy Teal and Brandon Paslay removed his hands from the wheel.

Cagle was charged with resisting arrest, third offense driving on a revoked license and no proof of insurance and the child support warrants were served. He was held on $8,500 bond.

Trespassing

A homeless man who told police he entered a pickup truck at Cassidy Auto Works, South Cannon Boulevard, shortly before midnight Sunday was charged with criminal trespassing.

Pipes police say are used to ingest drugs were found on Kristopher Paul Henson, 41, by Officer Bryan Lashwood.

Henson was also charged with possession of drug paraphernalia and held on $2,500 bond.

Drug charge

Marijuana's smell led an officer to confiscation of 11.4 grams early Saturday morning, police said.

Selena Hernandez, 24, of Finch Lane was stopped for speeding on Madison Street and had the substance hidden in her clothing, Officer Chris Vest's report said. She posted $5,000 bond.

Garages entered

A case of beer was stolen early Sunday from the detached garage at a Deery Street home. A suspect was described as a "smaller white male possibly wearing a gray shirt and beanie."

The padlock was broken and the garage of a home on Alton Avenue was entered between Thursday and Sunday. Nothing was reported missing.

Jail intake

The following were charged since Friday by the Shelbyville Police Department, Bedford County Sheriff's Office, Tennessee Highway Patrol or 17th Judicial District Drug Task Force. They are only charged; guilt or innocence will be determined by the courts.

•Megan Michelle Brock, 33, Templeton Street; simple possession, possession of drug paraphernalia; summons issued

•Stephen T. Buchanan, 29, Cayenne Drive; DUI, due care; released, $3,500 bond

•Joel Dean Cagle, 43, Henderson Road; driving on revoked license, resisting arrest, financial responsibility, two child support attachments; held, $8,500 bond

•Mauricia Vega Contreras, 39, King Arthur Court; domestic assault; released, $3,500 bond

•Cyrus Nikita Freeman, 43, Cedar River Road; failure to appear, driving on revoked license; held, $20,000 bond

•Everaldo Lopez Godinez, 20, Railroad Avenue; public intoxication, underage consumption; released, $3,500 bond

•Jeremy Bryant Hardison, 47, Pepper Hill Road; possession for resale; held, $2,500 bond

•Kristopher Paul Henson, 33, homeless, Shelbyville; criminal trespassing, possession of drug paraphernalia; held, $2,500 bond

•Selena Hernandez, 24, Finch Lane; possession of schedule VI drug, speeding, financial responsibility; released, $5,000 bond

•Forrest Ray Hester, 40, Fosterville; possession with intent to sell, possession of drug paraphernalia; held, $25,000 bond

•Misty L. Holt, 43, U.S. 41A North; failure to appear; held, $2,500 bond

•Sonya Marie Leverette, 37, Martha Street; DUI, driving on suspended license, possession of schedule II drug, seat belt law, implied consent, financial responsibility; held, $7,000 bond

•Michael Joseph Mannion, 36, Huntsville, Alabama; evading by motor vehicle, burglary, theft under $1,000, resisting stop/frisk/halt/search; held, $28,000 bond

•Sienna Rose Marcle, 22, Hickory Drive; probation revocation; held, $5,500 bond

•Quayvion Hakeem Patton, 34, Courtland Drive; no driver's license; released, no bond

•Christopher Allen Peacock, 36, Richdale Lane; theft over $10,000; released, $20,000 bond

•Jonathan Eugene Pinegar, 44, Highway 130 West; driving on revoked license, financial responsibility; released, no bond

•Saul Ramirez, 23, Lewis Avenue; aggravated domestic assault, domestic assault, vandalism, robbery, criminal impersonation; held, $100,000 bond

•Ruben De Jesus Roblero Zunin, 21, Hoover Street; failure to appear; released, no bond

•Katelyn Sales, 21, Barksdale Lane; aggravated assault, leaving scene of accident, driving on suspended license (second offense), vandalism; held, $27,000 bond

•Audrey Michelle Standley, 33, Christiana; simple possession of schedule IV drug; released, no bond

American Red Cross Update on Tennessee Tornadoes The American Red Cross is on the ground helping people affected by the powerful tornadoes that hit the Tennessee Region over the weekend.

Scene from weekend tornado damage taken by Red Cross volunteers in Mount Juliet

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - With the help of partners, Red Cross disaster volunteers are working around the clock across multiple states that include Tennessee to make sure everyone has a safe place to stay, food to eat, critical relief supplies and emotional support and comfort.

Updates on response:

At least 24 tornadoes ripped across six states in the dark of night, impacting people in Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee. Several emergency shelters are open to provide comfort for people who can't return home. As the weather clears, Red Cross volunteers will be out in affected communities assessing the damage left behind to help determine how we can support people in the coming days and weeks. The Red Cross has provided more than 160 blood products to hospitals in response to these devastating tornadoes. We remain in touch with our hospital partners throughout affected areas and stand ready to provide additional blood products as needed. Initial reports show some communities have suffered significant damage with homes and buildings destroyed, and hundreds of thousands of people left without power. The threat isn't over — the National Weather Service reports that the severe weather will continue today from the Ohio and Tennessee valleys to the northern Gulf States. As Red Cross workers respond to last night's tornadoes, we urge everyone who remains in the path of this ongoing severe weather to listen to the advice of local officials and be ready to get to a safe place quickly in case of a tornado warning. After a disaster, letting your family and friends know that you are safe and well can bring your loved ones great peace of mind. This Safe and Well website has been activated for the Tennessee Tornadoes, December 2021. To register, go to SafeandWell.org.

Reduce risk of home fires

Safety might not be the first thing people think of as the holiday season approaches. Faith, celebrations, decorations, and holiday dinners all come to mind when considering the holiday season. But that doesn't mean fire safety should be left out of holiday planning.

Fire safety bears special consideration during the holiday season, when the prevalence of fire hazards like Christmas trees, holiday lighting displays and other decorative items increase the risk for home fires. Such tragedies can be averted with a few simple safety measures.

- Tend to your tree. Live Christmas trees are awe-inspiring, but they also pose a significant fire risk. The National Fire Protection Association urges celebrants to purchase only healthy trees with fresh, green needles that do not fall off when touched. Such trees are less likely to dry out, especially when well-watered throughout the season. Dry trees can catch fire more easily than healthy trees if embers from nearby fireplaces or candles drift in their direction.

- Recognize that location matters when decorating. The NFPA notes that Christmas trees should always be placed at least three feet away from any heat source, including fireplaces, space heaters, heat vents, candles, and even overhead lights. If decorating with candles, never place them on the tree or on tables where other flammable decorations have already been placed. Chanukah menorahs should never be placed near curtains or other decorations.

- Turn off all lights and extinguish all lit decorative items when leaving the home or going to bed. Lit candles and menorahs should never be left unattended. The NFPA recommends turning tree lights and exterior decorative lights off when leaving the home or going to bed.

- Utilize a fire screen on fireplaces. Embers can catch on trees, decorations or anything else that's flammable if they escape the fireplace. Fire screens prevent that from happening by ensuring embers from burning logs stay in the fireplace. Like candles and menorahs, fires burning in a fireplace should never be left unattended.

Make sure all embers have been extinguished before leaving the home or going to bed.

Make your Christmas tree last longer

Dear Readers: When you purchase a live Christmas tree, ask the seller to make a fresh cut, straight across the base of the trunk, removing around an inch from the bottom, to be sure that there's plenty of water absorption.

As soon as you get the tree home, put it in a tree stand. Add water right away, and be sure it covers the cut end of the trunk. The tree needs lots of water. Check it daily.

Place the tree away from fireplaces, wood stoves, direct sunlight or other heat sources, because the heat will make the tree droop and might create a fire hazard. -- Heloise

FAST ORGANIZING

Dear Readers: During the festive and busy holidays, your house can get messy, and you might need to spiff it up in a hurry. Here are five quick ways to do this:

1. File it -- Sort and file bills, coupons and paperwork.
2. Forward it -- Items that are scattered around should be moved to where they belong.
3. Fix it -- Collect any items that need to be repaired and fix them.
4. Fill it in -- Fill out any forms, school permission slips or bills that must be completed.
5. Forget about it -- Throw out, donate to charity, give away or take to the recycle bin any unwanted items. -- Heloise

REMOVING GRAVY STAINS FROM A TABLECLOTH

Dear Readers: During holiday meals, it's inevitable that some of the delicious food will end up on the tablecloth, particularly gravy. Here's what to do for a washable tablecloth: Spoon up as much of the gravy as you can and try to treat it as soon as possible. Blot the stains with paper towels. Then put the tablecloth in a sink. Soak with a mixture of 1 teaspoon of a mild, colorless

Hints from Heloise

liquid detergent to each cup of lukewarm water. If the stain is still there, put a full-strength liquid laundry detergent on the fabric and rub it well, then launder as usual. -- Heloise

TURN LEFTOVERS INTO FROZEN DINNERS

Dear Readers: Most likely, after your holiday dinners, there will be leftovers, and you don't want to toss out good food that can be transformed into other tasty meals. Instead, use heavy plastic plates with compartments. Scoop leftover portions into them. You can add spices or seasonings to jazz them up. Then put the filled dinner plates into freezer-safe zip-top bags and label and date it. When you are in a rush for a fast dinner, you can grab these and reheat in the microwave. -- Heloise

CUT APPLES TURNING BROWN?

Dear Readers: After you slice apples, isn't it annoying when they start to turn brown? It's not an appetizing look. Here's how to prevent this from happening. Squeeze lemon, orange or grapefruit juice on the cut slices, or you can dip the slices in lightly salted water.

Here's a quick treat: Mix a teaspoon of sugar with a bit of lemon juice and toss the apples. -- Heloise

Send a money-saving or timesaving hint to Heloise, P.O. Box 795001, San Antonio, TX 78279-5001, or you can fax it to 1-210-HELOISE or email it to Heloise@Heloise.com. I can't answer your letter personally but will use the best hints received in my column.

Apple Stuffing Bites with Rosemary Gravy

Comfort holiday guests with a satisfying snack

(Family Features)

When guests arrive for the holidays, handshakes and hugs are often the first order of business. However, a satisfying snack to tide hunger before the big meal is likely the next thought on everyone's mind.

Keeping your loved ones full and content can be done with apples, an ingredient that heightens the flavor and appearance of favorite recipes like Apple Stuffing Bites with Rosemary Gravy. This comforting dish can be shared among the crowd for an easy way to call everyone to the kitchen.

An option like Envy Apples offer satisfying texture and taste with a consistently balanced, refreshing sweetness coupled with a crisp, elegant crunch. Perfect for small plates or use in recipes ranging from dinner to dessert, they also make for an easy snack when eaten fresh out of hand. A crimson red skin over a golden background practically glows, and their white flesh is naturally slow to brown when sliced for fresher flavor in sweet treats.

Apple Stuffing Bites with Rosemary Gravy

- 1 box stovetop
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups diced Envy Apples
- 1/2 onion, diced small

- Gravy:
- 3 tablespoons butter
 - 3 tablespoons flour
 - 2 cups beef broth
 - 2 teaspoons kosher salt
 - 20 turns fresh cracked pepper
 - 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 - 1 tablespoon finely chopped rosemary
 - Preheat broiler.
 - Cook stuffing according to package directions; set aside and allow to cool slightly.

In large saute pan, melt butter saute apples and onion until tender. Set aside to cool slightly.

Stir together stuffing and apple mixture. Spread stuffing on sheet tray and allow to cool in refrigerator.

After cooling, form stuffing into medium bites and place on sheet tray lined with parchment paper.

Broil bites 8-10 minutes until golden brown and slightly crispy.

To make gravy: In small pot, melt butter and whisk in flour. Cook flour 1 minute, whisking frequently.

Whisk in beef broth, salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce; bring to boil, whisking frequently. Remove from heat and stir in rosemary. If desired, continue gently simmering gravy to thicken.

Arrange stuffing bites in serving dish and drizzle with gravy. Serve hot.

WISDOM

This is one of my favorites. The Cornerstones section of the Progressive Farmer has a collection of quotes about dogs. Over the years I have had dogs that were friends. My first dog Snowball, two Beagles named Precious and Booger, a Redbone hound named Ramblin' Rose, my Queensland Cattle Dogs named Bear and Penny, a Cocker Spaniel named Sandy, and our assortment of Jack Russell canines, Kiwi, Millie, and Roxy, and our Wire Fox terrier Zoey.

They've all been special at different times of my life, and I think about those times occasionally. When you've had a special dog in your life, that's something. I've had a great group, more than most folks. I'm lucky that they picked me!

There are some really good quotes that most dog owners, or those owned by their dogs, will understand. George Carlin said "What do dogs do on their day off? Can't lie around...that's their job!" Elayne Boosler said "My fashion philosophy is, if you're not covered in dog hair, your life is empty." Robert Wagner said "A dog will teach you unconditional love. If you can have that in your life, things won't be too bad." Edith Wharton said "My little dog...a heartbeat at my feet."

Dean Koontz said "Petting scratching, and cuddling a dog could be as soothing to the mind and heart as deep meditation, and almost as good for the soul as prayer." Charles Schulz said "All his life he tried to be a good person. Many times, however, he failed. For after all, he was only human. He wasn't a dog." Nora Ephron said "When your children are teenagers, it's important to have a dog so that someone in the house is happy to see you."

Gilda Radner said "I think dogs are the most amazing creatures; they give unconditional love. For me, they are the role model for being alive."

C. S. Lewis said "Once when I had remarked on the affection often found between cat and dog, my friend replied, 'Yes, but I bet no dog would ever confess it to the other dogs.' " Doris Day said "I have found that when you are deeply troubled, there are things you get from the silent devoted companionship of a dog that you can get from no other source."

The master observer and spokesman on many life things and a favorite character of mine was Will Rogers. He said "If there are no dogs in heaven, I want to go where they went."

SHELBYVILLE – It might not have been a pretty win for the Community Vikings, but a win is a win.

The Vikings struggled from the free throw line in the last two minutes, but had enough of a lead to hold on and defeat the Shelbyville Central Golden Eagles 45-39 in an intra-county basketball matchup Saturday night.

Neither team could mount more than a 4-point lead as the teams battled to gain the upper hand in the first quarter. Stratton Lovvorn led Community (4-5) with five points while Jason Ragland led Shelbyville (2-7) with four points as the Vikings took a 11-10 lead to the second quarter.

A trey by Joe Harris at the 7:50 mark gave the Eagles their last lead at 13-11. Lovvorn scorched the nets for 12 points as the Vikings used two runs to take the lead. After a 7-0 run put Community up 18-13, the Vikings scored the final 11 points of the quarter to take a 31-17 advantage into the intermission.

Both teams had trouble finding the basket in the third quarter. Community was led by four points from Lovvorn, while Zay Reese and Tim Parsons accounted for all nine Shelbyville points. The Vikings could only muster six points and took a 37-26 lead to the final quarter.

Community took time off the clock and still maintained a 41-32 lead with 2:20 left as the Eagles were forced to foul. The bottom fell out as the Vikings missed eight free throws in the final two minutes, including two shots on the front end of one-and-ones.

Meanwhile, the Eagles took advantage with six points from Reese and five points from Parsons to narrow the gap. Shelbyville used a perfect 4-of-4 performance from the free throw line in the quarter including two free throws by Parsons with 20 seconds remaining to cut the Viking lead to 42-39.

Despite its troubles from the line, Community used three free throws by Stratton in the final 18 seconds to seal the deal.

Lovvorn led all scorers with 24 points for the Vikings.

Eaglettes, Harris warm up to down Viqueens

SHELBYVILLE – Coach Kyle Turnham and the Shelbyville Central Golden Eaglettes might have wondered if there was a lid on the basket after the Eaglettes could only manage seven points in the first half of their game against the Community Viqueens Saturday night.

It turned out to be a completely different second half as the Eaglettes scorched the nets for 33 points, including 19 points from Jaleigha Harris as Shelbyville used a 14-0 run to start the third quarter and defeat the Viqueens 40-32.

“Oddly enough, that’s been us a lot this year,” Turnham said. “For whatever reason, we come out of the gates slow offensively. We typically get into some foul trouble and have to go to some makeshift line-ups.”

It was a low-scoring first quarter as both teams struggled to find the basket. M. J. Simmons scored four points as Community (6-3) finished with the final five points and took a 7-2 lead to the second quarter.

A Haley Mitchell three-pointer gave the Viqueens their biggest lead at 10-2 before a trey by Paige Blackburn stopped an 8-minute scoring drought and brought Shelbyville (7-2) to within “We did a great job defensively,” Coach Cody Pierce of the Viqueens said. “We missed a bunch of easy shots that would have helped if we would have hit them.”

“We as a team like to Reese had 15 points and Parsons added 10 to lead the Eagles.

The Vikings finished 13-of-24 at the foul line while the Eagles were 12-of-18.

“We challenged our guys at halftime to take that 14-point lead and push it out, but we did the exact same thing we did Tuesday night at Huntland,” Coach Robbie Davis of the Vikings said. “We were able to stretch it back out against Huntland but tonight we weren’t because we don’t make free throws. They went down and did a good job of scoring in the fourth quarter and getting back in the game and we did a horrible job of stretching the lead out,” Davis added.

“We talked about effort and intensity in every step and it’s got to be with a sense of urgency,” Coach Kody Howard of the Eagles said. “I thought we were lollygagging back on defense in the first half. I’m proud we only gave up 14 points in the second half. I’m proud of my guys for that.”

Champions outlast Watertown

By WILL CARTER
 For the T-G

For three quarters Friday night, the Cascade Champions held onto a strong lead before seeing it dwindle to single digits in the fourth quarter due to poor shooting and turnovers.

Cascade entered the fourth quarter with a 14-point lead, but Watertown’s Purple Tigers fought back. The Champs hung on for a 47-39 win.

Champions coach Chris Lawson was happy with the win, but emphasized the importance of being consistent for the duration of the game.

“We did a much better job finishing quarters, but we have yet to play consistently an entire game,” Lawson said. “In the third quarter, we had ten possessions in a row that were negative because of either a turnover or bad shot. That’s where we have to get better.”

The opening frame started with a lid on the basket as both teams were scoreless for the first three minutes of the contest.

Led by senior Justis Carter’s six first quarter points, the Champions started their run offensively.

Carter finished with 15 points on the night.

Junior Lucas Clanton joined Carter as the only two in double figures for the Champions with 12, but five others added to the final score.

“Eventually we will have three or four different ones that will put up double figures. We’re not there yet, but we will be dangerous if we can get there,” Lawson said. “We’re still trying to figure out the pieces of the puzzle and who can produce for us.”

Cascade opened the second half with another run offensively leading to a 17-point lead near the middle of the third quarter.

Thomas Gentry connected on two of his three shots from the arc in the quarter with Jayden Gulick adding one of his own.

Gentry and Gulick finished with nine and three points respectively.

But the Champions’ firepower began to run out in the final frame putting up only eight points to Watertown’s 14.

“Sometimes our mindset changes, and we try to make tough passes. We make the game harder than it has to be. We have to learn how to play with a lead instead of taking the first shot they give us,” Lawson said.

Even with the home-court win, Lawson once again cited a lack of consistency for Cascade’s struggles.

“To win tough games and any game, it takes consistency across the board,” Lawson said. “You’re not going to be able to be bad for two minute stretches and beat good teams. That’s where we have to grow.”

Titans win again

NASHVILLE (AP) — It took the Tennessee Titans a month to find themselves. This version looks pretty comfortable atop the AFC South.

After two turnover-filled debacles and a bye week, the Titans ended up on the other side of a turnover-fest and got back in the win column Sunday. It surely helped that they faced woeful Jacksonville and rookie quarterback Trevor Lawrence.

The opportunistic Titans took advantage of four interceptions to beat the Jaguars 20-0 and earn their first home shutout in more than two decades.

Rashaan Evans, Jayon Brown, Kristian Fulton and Buster Skrine picked off passes from Lawrence, who hadn’t thrown three or more interceptions in a game since his NFL debut.

By WILL CARTER
 For the T-G

The Cascade Lady Champions entered the locker room at halftime with a slim 19-16 lead, but the Lady Purple Tigers of Watertown opened up the second half with a barrage of threes, giving them an eight-point lead heading into the fourth frame.

Cascade rallied to close the gap, but free throws in crunch time kept falling for the Lady Tigers en route to a 45-36 road win.

“We had a great first quarter. The best first quarter we have had in a long time. We just have to figure out how to do it the whole game,” Lady Champions coach Kendall Hampton said. “We gave up 17 points in the third quarter and that was the turning point. We have to figure out how to maintain what we’re doing every quarter and not take a quarter off.”

The Lady Champions jumped out to a quick lead behind Caroline Stone’s six points in the first quarter, and a couple of baskets from freshman Sophie Ray.

Both teams struggled in the second quarter with Cascade scoring only two field goals and Watertown putting only three through the net.

Coming out of halftime, it was all Watertown.

Madison King knocked down her first three of the game for the Lady Purple Tigers, sparking the 17-point quarter.

King finished with 15 points on the night, nine of which were from behind the arc.

“I think we got too content with where we were coming out of the half. We kind of just coasted for a little bit, and then they were ahead,” Hampton said.

But like many of the Lady Champions’ contests so far this season, they clawed back into the game.

Stone drove to the basket on back-to-back possessions in the fourth quarter for layups that sparked a short run for the Lady Champions.

She finished with 14 points on the night.

“Our players are really resilient and have a lot of fight. We had some good looks that didn’t connect. They (Watertown) hit their foul shots, and that’s what closed the game out,” Hampton said.

Where the Lady Tigers thrived at the free throw line, the Lady Champions struggled for the duration of the contest, shooting 3-10 on the night.

“We shot 30 percent from the foul line, so it’s going to be hard to win any game when you do that,” Hampton said.

Looking ahead at the schedule, Hampton emphasized the need to hit foul shots and continue to improve before region play begins.

“The whole point of this (non-region play) is to work and get better. We need to make sure we secure rebounds and take away second chance points. With the offense we run, we have to hit foul shots. If we can’t do that, then it takes away from our success.”

points from Lanaya Young. A free throw by Harris gave the Eaglettes their first lead at 16-15 with 5:14 left before Shelbyville completed their run with a basket by Young to go up 21-15. The Viqueens broke the ice on a basket by Mitchell with 3:47 remaining and used four points from Simmons to cut the Eaglette advantage to 24-23 heading to the final quarter.

Simmons scored 14 seconds into the quarter to give Community its last lead at 25-24. The Eaglettes led 28-27 with 5:14 to play before Harris took over.

Harris scored the final 12 Eaglette points as Shelbyville increased its lead. Harris used two treys and a 6-of-7 performance at the free throw line to propel the Eaglettes to their biggest lead at 38-29 with 1:21 remaining.

A three-point play by Zoey Dixon moved the Viqueens within six, but it was close as Community would get as Shelbyville pulled away for the win.

Harris led the Eaglettes with her 19 points.

Simmons led Community with 17 points.

Viqueens were 3-of-7.

“Turnovers are what got us,” Pierce said. “Too many of them led to easy baskets for them and that’s what cost us the game.”

“I didn’t feel like we were very aggressive offensively in the first half and we weren’t moving the basketball,” Turnham said.

“We weren’t getting the ball inside. I thought one of the big keys for us was when we got Jaleigh Harris in the middle of the zone. I thought she changed the complexion of the game.”

PUZZLE SOLUTION

ASTROGRAPH

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Relationships will be easy for you this week, Aries. You will be in tune with the vibe of the people with whom you interact on a daily basis and can push interactions further.
TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
Remember to take lessons from those who have blazed trails before you. Taurus. You don't have to reinvent the wheel. Explore some tried and true strategies.
GEMINI – May 22/June 21
Gemini, your desire to remodel or redecorate your home could come to the forefront this week. Be careful to set a budget; otherwise, you run the risk of overspending.

CANCER – June 22/July 22
You may be lacking some self-confidence in the romance department right now, Cancer. Phone a friend and get the pep talk you need to realize you've got what it takes.
LEO – July 23/Aug 23
Leo, you may be tempted to turn off your phone this week, as the idea of a device-free day is enticing. Take a brief time out from technology each day.
VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgo, if you feel backed into a corner, try not to lash out but understand others' opinions and why they may be questioning you. Listen and you'll find a solution.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, it's unlikely you can check everything off of your list this week. Don't let that get you down, however. You will accomplish a lot. Measured progress is still progress.
SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, you may be known for being serious much of the time, but it's alright to be goofy and playful once in a while. Engage in some entertaining antics.
SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
Stand up for what you believe in this week, Sagittarius. Others will be inspired by your actions and may join in support of the cause you've championed.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
The pressure on you has been tremendous lately, Capricorn. You may want to treat yourself to a well-deserved rest. The break will quickly rejuvenate you.
AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
This is a good time to pursue your dreams, Aquarius. Make a list of smaller steps that will help you achieve your goals and then put the plan into action.
PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
You can't avoid every poor situation that comes your way, Pisces. Don't run and hide, but step up and face the music.

Santa arrives safely at the airport

Reading with kids Saturday, Dec. 18

Staff Report

Saturday's early morning storms left the day drizzling and cloudy, but dozens of families still turned out for the Santa Fly-In at the Shelbyville Municipal Airport.

Santa had his annual meet-and-greet with kids inside the terminal.

Next city holiday event

Shelbyville Parks and Recreation will host a "Story Time With Santa" at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 18, at the Rec Center. Cookies, milk and juice will be served. The story will be read by Santa.

Cost is $1 per child. Pre-registration is required by calling 684-9780.

Library benefits from annual wine walk

By DAWN HANKINS
dhankins@t-g.com

The weather outside, Friday evening, was delightful, at least to those wanting to participate in the 11th annual "Sip, Shop and Stroll" on the public square.

Dozens of local merchants opening their shops to guests. Shoppers sipped wine and strolled around the candlelit historical public square.

With a $10 charge, benefitting the Shelbyville-Bedford County Library, participants received a commemorative wine glass over at Heritage Jewelers.

With a $15 donation, shoppers were provided with a take-home wine tasting kit.

The event was held from 4 to 8 p.m. Once the wine ran out, shops turned off their lights on another successful event.
