White County High School Warriorette soccer team poised for success in 2024 fall season under new head coach Madison Mahan

RACHEL AUBERGER
Staff Writer

Excitement is building for the White County High School Warriorette soccer team under the guidance of first-year head coach Madison Mason. With a clear vision to enhance the soccer culture within the Sparta community, Coach Mason is determined to lead her team to greater success on the field.

"Our primary goal is to win more games this season," Coach Mason stated, emphasizing the importance of instilling a winning mindset in her players.

Reflecting on last season's two victories, she expressed her desire for the girls to experience the thrill of victory and the pride of being winners.

The team boasts a strong leadership core, with several standout players ready to step up and guide their teammates. The senior class, comprising a significant portion of the group, is expected to lead by example and mentor the younger players who look up to them. Additionally, Autumn Birdwell, Luci McKee, Poppy Shank, and Katelyn Blakeman have been appointed as this year's team captains, bringing experience and leadership to the squad.

Joining Coach Mason this season as assistant coach is Courtney Ferris, who brings continuity and stability to the team's soccer program. With a strong rapport with the student-athletes and a deep understanding of the players' strengths and personalities, Coach Ferris serves as a valuable support system for both the team and Coach Mason.

The Warriorettes entered the season with a blend of on-field experience, dedication, and talent. Coach Mason highlighted the team's commitment to continuous improvement, citing the eagerness and skill of the incoming freshmen as key assets. When combined with the leadership and determination of the upperclassmen, the team is poised for a successful season ahead.

All eyes are on Coach Mason and her team as they strive to make their mark on the soccer field and bring pride to the White County High School girls' soccer program. With a winning mindset and a strong foundation in place, the Warriorettes are primed for a season of growth, success, and teamwork.
