Take a bite of this

While readership as a whole has fallen over the years, newspapers remain a valuable source of information for millions of Americans across the country. According to some estimates, over 35 million buy a newspaper every day for reasons that vary.

Some subscribe to the newspaper for the coupons and flyers, others for the little community interest stories tucked inside. Some simply prefer print to screen and enjoy being able to read the newspaper whenever and wherever they like. Whatever the reason, newspapers are here to stay.

Don't miss out on yours! Subscribe to The Tipton Times today and stay in the know!
