TOP EVENTS

In September

Find out who has the best wings at Lake of the Ozarks when restaurants compete during WingFest September 13 at the Regalia Hotel & Conference Center in Lake Ozark. There will be 15 restaurants serving up their best sauced wings to sample from 5-7 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person prior to the event at Central Bank locations or $20 at the door. Kids ages 12 and under are free. For more information, go to www.facebook.com/wingfestloto.

Show

The Lake Ozark Lions Club will host an Outdoor Sportsman Show Sept 15 & 16. Vendors will be on hand to buy, sell or trade items. Guns, knives and outdoor sporting activities featured. Admission is $5 for adults with proceeds supports local charities.

2-7 p.m. Friday
9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday

Final Event

The last Hot Summer Nights of the season will be held Sept. 8 on the Bagnell Dam Strip. The theme this evening is "A Salute to our Front-line Heroes." The free cruise-in is open to anyone who wants to park their car, motorcycle or truck from 5-9:30 p.m. Spectators can walk the Strip to look at the vehicles and visit the many local businesses and restaurants.

WHAT TO HAVE ONBOARD

When preparing to go out on a vessel, there are a few things you need to check that are legally required to be on board. The Missouri State Highway Patrol, Water Patrol Division advises operators to make sure these items are handy.

PERSONAL FLOTATION DEVICES

Under federal law, a wearable PFD is required for each person on board regardless of vessel length. Children under the age of 7 must wear a U.S. Coast Guard-approved PFD at all times unless the child is confined to a totally enclosed area such as a houseboat or a day-cruiser.

NAVIGATION LIGHTS

The required navigation lights differ depending on the size and type of your vessel. You must display the required navigation lights between sunset and sunrise and during periods of restricted visibility.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER

All vessels (there are few restrictions) are required to have a Type B, U.S. Coast Guard-approved fire extinguisher on board in an accessible area. Check the charge level of your fire extinguishers regularly. Replace them immediately if they are not fully charged.

SOUND PRODUCING DEVICES

Vessels more than 16 feet but less than 40 feet in length are required to carry a whistle or horn to signal intentions or positions. Vessels that are 40 feet or more in length are required to carry a whistle or horn and a bell on board.

This is only a partial list. For more information and regulations go to www.mshp.dps.missouri.gov

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

staff reports

A hometown fair

The 54th annual Hillbilly Fair is packed full of two days of family fun.

This year's theme is "A Salute to our Heroes," honoring the EMS, law enforcement, fire departments and veterans will be honored during the two-day fair.

Several crowd-pleasing events are scheduled September 15 and 16 at the Laurie Fairgrounds. Some crowd favorites include the parade held on Saturday, the carnival, beer garden and food, as well as the many bands that play throughout the fair. The popular tug of war and back seat driver's contests have been added back to the list of events this year.

There is a parking fee. Volunteers for the Laurie Police Department will be facilitating parking with 25% of the proceeds donated to the department for future equipment purchases.

Top 5 ways to enjoy fall boating

While the cooler temperatures may keep you from jumping in the water, boating is still one of the best ways to enjoy the beauty of the Lake. Calmer water, smaller crowds and fun events are just a few of the reasons we love fall boating.

1. Scenic Sunsets

Days are shorter in the fall and sunsets are the most scenic ways to end the day. Head out early enough to get a good spot in a cove by boat or just cruise down the main channel. The views are impressive.

Expect sunsets to be between 7:10-7:30 p.m. this time of year at Lake of the Ozarks, getting earlier and earlier by the minute with each passing day.

If you can't go by boat, some Lake area restaurants have amazing views. Baxter's Lakeside Grill and JB Hook's are among the most popular for catching the sunset. You could also take a cruise on board the Celebration or Tropic Island excursion yachts.

2. Waterfront Dining

You'll get seated immediately at most waterfront restaurants this time of year. Getting a table just about anywhere is guaranteed..

From elegant dining at The Reserve to a bucket of crab legs from Dockknockers, or breakfast at Miller's Landing, there's plenty of great food still available on the water.

ON THE COVER

If headed out to dinner, be sure to keep an eye on the weather and pack a few sweaters and blankets in the boat. It gets cold quickly.

3. Long Boat Rides

With less boating traffic, exploring the Lake is easier and you can get from place to place quicker. Less crowded waterways makes for a smoother boat ride.

When it's busy, a lot of boaters stay closer to home, but now is the perfect chance to get out of the areas you visit most. Depending on your starting point, you can go up or down the Lake to visit new restaurants, the state parks or other waterfront destinations. Just make sure to get plenty of gas and plan ahead for long trips.

4. Boat Deals

You never know what kind of deals you can make at the annual Lake of the Ozarks Marine Dealers Association Fall Boat Show. Held Sept. 22-24 at Captain Ron's in Sunrise Beach, many dealers are offering end-of-season prices but if you are looking for a new boat for next year, it's never too early to start looking.

Hours are Friday 1-7 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-7 p.m. and Sunday 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Tickets are $7 for adults, and free for children 12 and under. Proceeds go to Kids' Harbor Child Advocacy Center.

Other businesses and professionals in the marine industry will be on hand to answer your questions from insurance to dock maintenance.

5. Reel Em In

Fall is an excellent time for fishing as many species become more active. Bass will be all over the Lake because water is cooling down. Tracking their habits and patterns can be tricky, so a fishing guide is a great way to learn the best spots on the water and get some tips.

Morning is a popular time to fish because it's calm and everything seems to be hunting for food. While out and about, be on the lookout for wildlife and be respectful of their environment. It's not unusual to spot a Blue Heron or Bald Eagle circling around.

ATTRACTION

A hands-on adventure

Sunrise Beach Safari opens petting zoo

Interact with some exotic animals for a unique hands-on experience at a new petting zoo on the Lake's west side. Tonia Haddix and Jerry Aswegan recently opened Sunrise Beach Safari after spending more than 30 years operating a mobile petting zoo outside of the area. Tonia brokers exotic animals. They moved to the Lake area about two years ago.

"We both decided we needed to do a stationary petting safari so we could share our love for animals with people," Tonia said.

They've started with a "quant little safari" with the comfort of the animals in mind. There are 25 various critters to see, including the opportunity to have a few personal encounters. The star of the show is often Noah, the resident camel, but the zoo includes a wallaby, kangaroo, exotic hood stock, and many other creatures.

"Our goal is to share our love of the animals with folks and for them to get to interact with them up-close and personal," Tonia said. "For the love of our animals, and to educate people on respect and responsible private ownership."

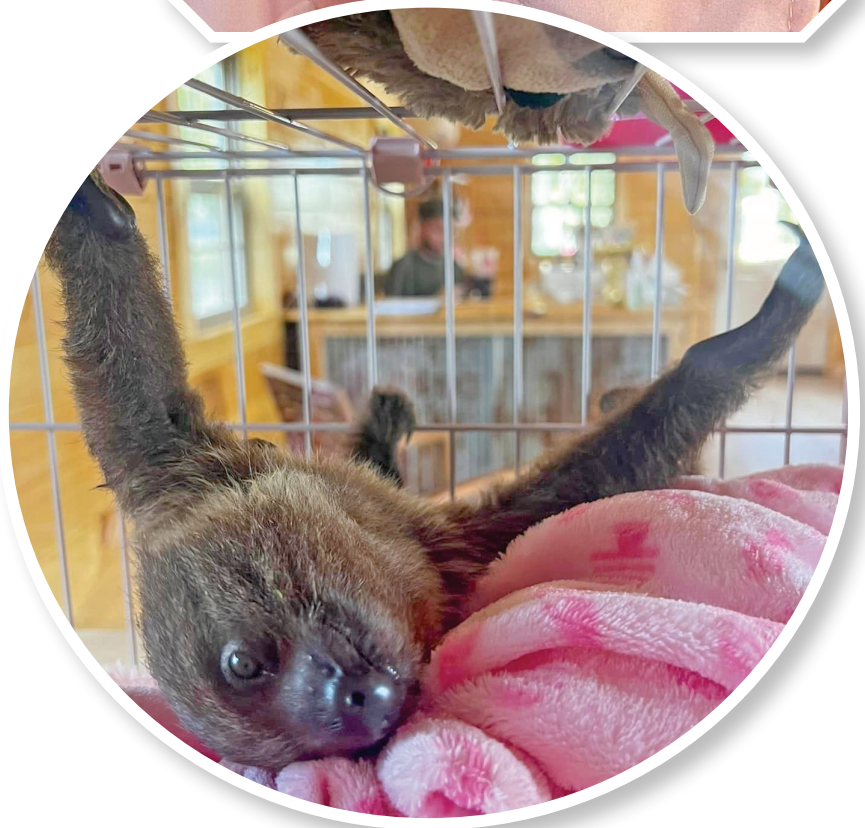

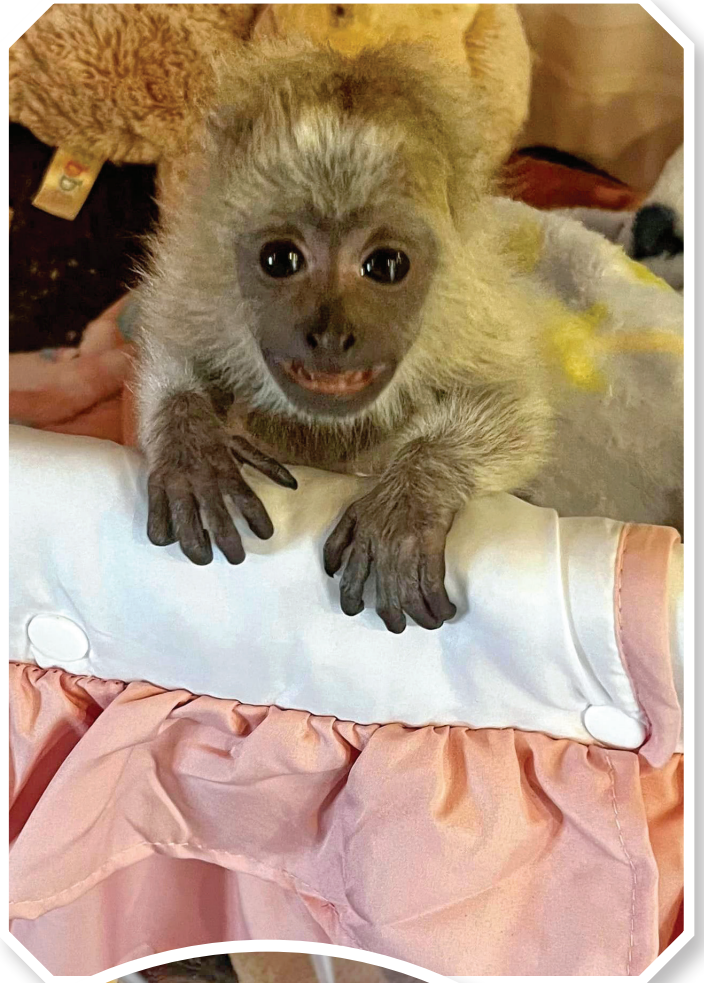

While the property is 28 acres, they are planning on building the safari in stages. For now, they are on a "trial run." By next spring, they expect to have twice as many animals on the property.

Admission is $15 for adults, $10 for children ages 4-11, and free for children 3 and under. Feed cups are $5, pony rides are $10, sloth encounters are $50 for adults and $25 for children (second animal encounter half-price).

Tonia encourages visitors to build a relationship with the animals, and come back to visit them often.

Longtime “dive bar” elevates food

The Western Burger with a favorite Lake area libation - the Pain in the Ass. Maggie's version has a rum floater and orange cream cookie straw.

When Ilene Vanabbema decided to open up a waterfront bar on the Gravois Arm, she wasn't quite prepared for the challenges that would soon follow. Like many Lakefront establishments, finding seasonal employees on the heels of a pandemic proved to be a difficult.

No stranger to the restaurant business, Ilene has owned Maggie's Bar & Grille in downtown Boonville for more than 15 years. Named after a formerly-beloved pet, the popular restaurant is a local hangout in the style of an old English pub. Once the pandemic hit and things began to slow down, Ilene found herself spending more time at her old log home in Gravois Mills. A patron of the old Frog's Bar & Grill, Ilene said when it was placed on the market in 2020 she decided to take it over. After 25 years of being known as "Frog's" the restaurant reopened with a new name, a new look, and a new menu.

Due to the difficulty of finding employees, the restaurant was only open four days a week the first year in business. With fingers crossed, Ilene brought in more help this season and has not only been able to stay open six days a week but has expanded the menu. At first it consisted of mainly fried foods and pizza, but this year many homemade items and some locally-sourced ingredients are crafting dishes that leave patrons craving more. The 7-ounce Missouri Angus beef are hand-pattied into 7-ounce burgers which have become as well-known at the Lake as they are at the Boonville location. Another popular item are the hand-breaded Wisconsin cheese curds, homemade fried pickles and the Homemade Chicken Bites.

Pizza comes in thin, extra thick or a gluten-free cauliflower crust. Salads, baskets and a variety of burgers and sandwiches make up the remainder of the menu.

Warm Hospitality & Entertainment

Ilene doesn't mind being busy. It's a place that thrives on camaraderie so she'll often stop to check on a table or help the bartender sling a few drinks. There's not an aspect of the business she doesn't handle daily — from running to the supply room or stepping into the kitchen to help during the dinner rush.

"I'm a social person," she says. "I like the stress when it's busy."

The bar's interior pays homage to its past with vintage photographs, signs and articles explaining the history of the area. Table games such as Brain Teaser and Connect Four, cornhole on the outdoor patio, songs on the jukebox, and friendly staff keep the atmosphere fun and playful.

Those seeking refuge from the summer sun will find it without having to give up being outdoors. The additional dock space provides ample parking for boaters and the amount of outdoor seating allows everyone to have a view of the Lake while enjoying their meal. The indoor dining room is easily converted to outdoor space by opening up the garage doors leading to the patio.

Locals gather on weekdays, especially for the scheduled entertainment and Monday night bingo from 6-8 p.m. Ilene shops specifically for the prizes awarded to bingo winners and admits some of them might be a little unusual. Live music is regularly held on Saturdays.
